DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For President:
FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT
Governor of New York

For Vice-President:
JOHN N. GARNER
of Texas

For United States Senator
MILLARD E. TYDINGS
of Havre de Grace

For Congresman, First Congressional District
T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH of Denton, Md.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2nd, has been designated as "Go To Church Sunday" in Kent county and the preachers of the various denominations have joined in an effort to fill the churches on that day. It is hoped that the various congregations will cooperate in this movement by making a record church attendance that day.

THE ATTACK on Congressman T. Alley Goldsborough by Edgar Allan Poe, Jr., president of the Crusaders, an anti-prohibition organization, of Baltimore, is, we think, an unfair one. Congressman Goldsborough has represented this Congressional district in the U. S. Congress for several terms to the satisfaction of the majority of the people of the Eastern Shore, and we have no doubt will continue to do so. Mr. Goldsborough is a man of unusual ability and can be trusted to do his duty to his constituents in the future as he has done in the past, and it seems unfair that an organization that is opposed to prohibition should demand of a candidate of the standing of Congressman Goldsborough to declare himself for or against the temperance question. When a candidate is presented to the people of the standing of Congressman Goldsborough, he should be allowed to conduct his candidacy as he deems best and we think it would be just asunfair for the prohibition organization to make the same demand. We accept Mr. Goldsboroughs candidacy in good faith.

GOLDSBOROUGH ANSWERS PHOEBUS

SAYS SOME OF FIGURES ARE FALSE

In last week's issue of the Eastern Shore Republican, a paper published in Princess Anne and owned by Mr. Harry T. Phoebus, Republican candidate for Congress, a great deal of front-page space is devoted to the compensation received by Mr. T Alan Goldsborough as a member of Congress.

Over the Congressman's picture is the heading, "Is He Worth It" And below is what purports to be "a brief outline of just what Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough has taken from the public treasury since his election in 1921: Salary $123,866.65; Clerk hire, $37,888.30; mileage, $728; stationery allowance, $1,717.75; grand total, $164,200.70."

In another column in the same paper is an article written in an editorial vein, severely criticizing Mr. Goldsborough for having "taken all that the law allows in the way of allowances,' plus his salary."

Mr. Goldsborough shows his surprise at Mr. Phoebus attack in a letter to the latter, which is published in "The Somerset News" and which Mr. Goldsborough requests Mr. Phoebus to publish in the latter's paper as a paid advertisement. In this letter Mr. Goldsborough says some of the figures published by Mr. Phoebus are absolutely false. He says that when he entered Congress in 1921, the salary was $7,500 a year. Four years later this was increased to $10,000 a year, and then on August 1, of this year it was decreased to $9,000. "The above amounts I have been receiving; not one cent more, not one cent less. All the other 434 Congressman have been receiving exactly the same amounts." He disputes the figures relative to Miss Pierson's salary, and gives the amounts, which have actually been paid his chief clerk, and then says: "All the other 434 Congressmen have received exactly the same amount for clerk hire."

The Congressman expressed astonishment at the criticism of salary and allowances from one who is a candidate for the same position evidently desiring the same salary and allowances.

Mr. Goldsborough says that the figures in the article complained of are inaccurate, and that any statement of the services rendered by him as Congressman were carefully avoided. He then cites a paragraph from an editorial in the "Cambridge Record," showing how Mr. Goldsborough was responsible for the defeat of a bill which, had it passed, would have cost the United States Treasury more than five millions dollars, or enough to pay a Congressman's salary for five hundred years.

WHY SAVE?

Saving money, just to have it is, of course, better than not saving at all, but the joy and satisfaction of saving money for a definite reason puts content and enthusiasm into our lives.

Here are some sensible reasons for putting money aside in a separate account where it will be ready when needed.

A few dollars saved each month may help take the "ax" out of taxes.

Insurance is a wonderful protection for the family in case life's plans are interrupted. Premiums are no hardship if they are saved in monthly installments.

Vacations are needed, but are much more pleasant if cash has been saved for the expenses.

The music of wedding bells may be much sweeter if the habit of saving has been cultivated.

Home, whether it be the humble vine-clad cottage or the more pretentious palace, is made possible by saving.

Yours for service,

Third National Bank of Chestertown
