DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING

AT

CHESTERTOWN

SATURDAY, OCT. 22, 1932

AT 7.30 P. M.

IN OLD LYCEUM THEATRE

The speakers will include

SENATOR
MILLARD E. TYDINGS

CONGRESSMAN
T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH

AND OTHERS

ALL are welcome to hear the issues of the campaign discussed.

The LADIES are especially invited to be present.

JUST WHAT WEIGHT the stockholders of the Claybourne-Annapolis ferry will have in convincing the Reconstuction Finance Corporation that the people of the Eastern Shore don't want the Chesapeake Bay Bridge, remains to be seen. If their opposition to the project is based entirely and so stated, on financial loss they may be justified, but if they attempt to voice the sentiment of the shore to protect their financial interests then they are assuming a responsibility that cannot add to their stading in their various communities.

THREE WEDDINGS ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dwyer, of Worton, announce the marriage of their daughter, Clara Lydia, to Mr. Wm. O. B. Knight, Saturday, October eighth, nineteen hundred and thirty-two at the St. James M. P. Church Parsonage.

The cermony was performed by the Rev. J. Lee Marker and was attended only by the immediate families.

Mrs. Knight is a graduate of the Chestertown High School and won the Mathematics Medal. Since her graduation she has been in the employ of the C. & P. Telephone Company in Chestertown.

Mr. Knight is engaged in farming in Kent County.

Both families are well known in Kent County and the bride and groom both have many relatives here.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward E. Scott, of Galena, announce the marriage of their daughter, Bertha Theresa Scott to Dr. Glenn Wilson Zeiders, of Baltimore. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents at Galena, only the families of the bride and groom being presnt. A reception was held immediately following the cermony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holt Woodall in Georgetown.

Miss Scott was assitant dietitian at John Hopkins University and Dr. Zieders is a student in surgery in Baltimore. They will reside in that city.

Announcement was made on Wednesday of this week by Mr. A. Leon Brown, of Chestertown, of the marriage of his daughter, G. Deborah Brown to Mr. James S. Kreeger, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Kreeger, of Chestertown on January 23rd, 1932. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Allan F. Poore, rector of Washington M. E. Church, Washington, D. C. The bride and groom are students at Washington College.

Th principal speaker of the evening will be Mr. G. Paul Musselman, Rector of St. Johns Church, Dowentown, Pa.

THE BAY BRIDGE PROSPECTS

FEDERAL LOAN REQUEST REDUCED TO $6,250,000

FERRY INTERESTS TRY TO BLOCK LOAN

The prosepcts for bridge across the Chesapeake Bay from Tolchester to the Western Shore are brighter than ever and the actual construction depends on a yes or no from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Traffic check-ups by two engineering companies have been reported favorable, the State Legislature has agreed to build the approaches, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has the money, which all together apparently leaves the question to the sentiment of the people of the Eastern and Western Shores toward the bridge.

A delegation, representing those interested in the Claybourn-Annapolis Ferry Company and the communities adjacent to the Eastern Shore ferry terminals have protested and posed as representing the sentiment of the people of the Eastern Shore.

it remains now for the various communities who favor the linking of the two parts of Maryland with quick transportation to express their sentiment to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Washington, D. C., immediately.

The Kent County Chamber of Commerce is actively engaged in expressing the favorable sentiment of Kent county. The Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association, representing the entire Shore has twice gone on record favoring the bridge.

The following communcation is from a resident of Talbot county:

Chestertown Transcript,
Chestertown, Md.

Dear Sir:

It is generally known here in Washington that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation will undoubtedly aid the Eastern Shore of Maryland in its transportation problem provided public opinion on the Eastern Shore proves to be stronger than the "cry baby" stuff of John M. Dennis and the Claiborne-Annapolis Ferry Company.

I insist that a "favored few" cannot stop the transportation developments to which the Eastern Shore is entitled by actual necessity and by the federal act creating the Recontruction Finance Corporation.

Hoping that the enclosed information will meet with your editorial policy of fair play for the Eastern Shore, I remain

Sincerely yours,
ALBERT WALKER,
McDaniel, Md.

HEALTH ASSO. MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

ORGANIZATION OUTSTANDING IN COMMUNITY WORK

The Kent County Public Health Association membership drive is now being spread over the county through the districts leaders who are a part of the Executive Committee of the organization.

Quotas are being set for each District and an endeavor to bring in more members than in former years will be made. The membership fee for one year is a dollar.

The Public Health Association cooperates with the State Department and has been increasing its scrope of work throughout the county each year. The Dental Clinic has been one of the more recent undertakings and the correction of oral defects among school children whose teeth have been neglected has answered a very great need in Kent.

Under the present conditions the Association looks forward to a year of greater need for srvice and urges all citizens of Kent County to join and support their efforts.

HERBERT E. PERKINS, Attorney.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Alice Lynn Mooney Manahan vs.
Frank J. Manahan

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 2793

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled cause is to procure a Decree for the annullment of the marriage of Alice Lynn Mooney and Frank J. Manahan, also for permission to use her maiden name.

The Bill states:

1. That on the 12th day of April, 1931, Alice Lynn Mooney Manahan was married to Frank J. Manahan, the defendant in this cause, at Chestertown, Maryland, by Rev. E. A. Sersmith, as will appear by a certificate of marriage to be filed with this petition and prayed to be taken as a part of same and marked "Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1."

2. That the said Frank J. Manahan was, at the time of this marriage with your Oratrix, already married and had not been ganted a divorce according to the decree of the Courts of Chester County, Pennsylvania, until the 10th day of August, 1931, a certified copy of which is field with this petition and prayed to be taken as a part thereof and marked "Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 2"

3. That your Oratrix was born January 18, 1908, and now is a resident of the State of Pennsylvania, residing with her parents at 1031 South 54th Street, Philadelphia.

4. That Frank J. Manahan, the defendant above named, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and that his last known address is Spring Lake, New Jersey.

5. That the object of this petition is to secure an order from this Court annulling the marriage between your Oratrix and Frank J. Manahan, the defendant above named, and for permission to use her maiden name, Alice Lynn Mooney.

6. That your Oratrix and the said defendant, Frank J. Manahan, have had no children born to them from said marriage.

It is thereupon, this 8th day of October, 1932, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 7th day of November next, give notice to the said Frank J. Manahan, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 21st day of November next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

NEW LYCEUM THEATRE

MONDAY and TUESDAY
OCTOBER 17 and 18
Constance Bennett
—in—
"What Price Hollywood"

Constance Bennett reveals what it costs to be a star in this story of the world, the flesh and the movies. One day they threw roses—the next day mud. The title tells the story and the picture is Miss Bennett's very best. The great supporting cast includes Lowell Sherman and Neil Hamilton. WHAT PRICE HOLLYWOOD is a heart-touching drama that rips the veil from the world behind the screen.

Added: Aesops Fables, "Dancing Around The World," Comedy.

WEDNESDAY -- THURSDAY
OCTOBER 19 and 20
Ruth Chatterton
—in—
"The Crash"
—with—
George Brent

The screen's most famous newlyweds in their newest big hit. "THE CRASH" is now playing at the CENTURY in BALTIMORE and shows here for the first time on the Eastern Shore. See America's foremost actress and her sensational husband star in this fine screen triumph, far more thrilling than "The Rich Are Always With Us." United in real life—now united on the screen.

Added: Comedy "Sherlocks Home," Cartoon and Act.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY
OCTOBER 21 and 22
"The Sporting Age"
—with—
Jack Holt
Evalyn Knapp
Hardie Albright

We are proud to announce one of the very first showings in this part of the country of this new screen hit. A he-man crashes into society, rides it off its feet and learns a thing or two about love. All the thrills, chills and spills of an International Polo match. You'll like this action crammed out-door hit.

Added: Bosko Cartoon, Jack Denny and His Band in "Music To My Ears," Comedy Attraction.
