DEMOCRATIC
MASS MEETING
AT CHESTERTOWN

SATURDAY, OCT. 22, 1932
AT 7.30 P. M.

IN OLD LYCEUM THEATRE

The speakers will include
SENATOR
MILLARD E. TYDINGS
CONGRESSMAN
T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH
AND OTHERS

ALL are welcome to hear the issues of the campaign discussed.

The LADIES are especially invited to be present.

WE CALL ATTENTION to the Democratic campaign meeting to be held this evening in Chestertown and we urge all who can possibly do so to attend. This will be the only Democratic meeting held this year and it is highly important that the voters should hear the issues upon which the Democratic candidates are making their campaign. Some voters seem rather confused over some of the issues to be voted on and this is their one opportunity to hear them fully explained. So far as the Eastern Shore is concerned the Democrats are reported in splendid condition, but these reports should not for a moment cause any Democrat to fail to vote on Tuesday, November 8 and to get every Democratic voter possible to go to the polls and do their duty. The speaker for Saturday evening will be the Hon. Senator Millard E. Tydings, and the Hon. T. Alan Goldsborough.

Don't forget the Democratic Mass Meeting tonight Saturday, October 22, at the Old Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, at 7.30 p. m.

URGE REDUCTION OF SCHOOL BOND

Resolved, That the Board of County Commissioners of Kent County, Maryland, be and are hereby requested and urged by the Chestertown Public High School Commission not to issue bonds in excess of fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000) if the majority of the legal voters in Kent County, Maryland, vote for the said bond issue at the election on November, 8, 1932.

Resolved further, That the Chestertown Public High School Commission does hereby pledge and vow to the Board of County Commissioners of Kent County, Maryland, and the taxpayers of said county that it will not exceed, in its expenditures for additions to and the remodeling and renovating of the said high school building, the proceeds from the sale of bonds for fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000) in the event the majority of legal voters in said county vote for the bond issue.

Resolved further, That a certified copy of these preambles and resolutions be sent to the Board of County Commissioners of Kent County and each of the three local newspapers.

Chestertown Public High School Commission.

Louis C. Robinson, Secretary.

KENT 4-H BOYS CLUB NEWS

Millington

Members of the Millington Boys 4-H Club met at the home of president, Charles Anthony, in Millington on Thursday night, October 13th. The regular order of business was followed by remarks by Asst. County Agent Sutton who showed several interesting and instructive pictures committees were appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the Hallow'een Social to be held in the ball on October 27th. Three members of this club plan to join the new Baby Beef Club which will be started in the near future.

Cliff City

The Cliff City Boys' 4-H Club met at the home of Charles Wood, near Pomona, on Friday night, October 14th. In the absence of president Wilson Yerkey, vice president Thomas Legg presided. The Club voted to change the name of the club to the "Quaker Neck Boy's 4-H Club," as its members are located in all parts of Quaker Neck instead of around Cliff City where the original members line. The influence of this club has spread considerably.

Baby Beef Show

4-H Club members of Queen Anne County who raised Baby Beef Calves this year exhibited their fat animals at Centreville Monday afternoon, October 12th. The calves were taken to Baltimore, after the Queen Anne Show, for the Baltimore Live Stock Show which was held October 18th to 21st. Sevral of Kent Club Members accompanied by County Agent McVean and Asst County Agent Sutton visited the show at Centreville and tried their skill at judging the calves. A number of the future Baby Beef Clubbers of Kent visited the Baltimore Live Stock Show at the Union Stock Yards Wednesday the 19th to get an idea of what they will have to do next year to make a success of their project. There were 2500 head of fat cattle at the Baltimore show in addition to fat hogs and sheep. Club members interested in raising Baby Beef next year are Wilson Yerkey, Jim McGregor, Wilbur Lindsay, John Yerkey, Jaunita Yerkey, Bill McGregor, Walter Lindsay, Irvin Perry, George Carter, 3rd, and Willard Lindsay.

4-H POULTRY

The Poultry raisers are still working on their judging and met at the home of Bill Comella on Tuesday night, October 18th, practing on classes of Barred Rocks, R. I. Reds and White Leghorns. The State contest will be held November 17th, a Kent team has won the contest for the last two years and is out to win again this year.

Club Members Guests of Rotary

Twelve 4-H Club members were guests of the Rotary Club at their dinner Monday night at the Wesley Chapel Church Hall. Everyone enjoyed the wonderful dinner and the meeting. The address by Mr. Paul Musselma was outstanding and was well received. The club members are very grateful to the Rotary Club for the interst shown in them.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Alice Lynn Mooney Manahan vs.
Frank J. Manahan

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 2793

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled cause is to procure a Decree for the annullment of the marriage of Alice Lynn Mooney and Frank J. Manahan, also for permission to use her maiden name.

The Bill states:

1. That on the 12th day of April, 1931, Alice Lynn Mooney Manahan was married to Frank J. Manahan, the defendant in this cause, at Chestertown, Maryland, by Rev. E. A. Sersmith, as will appear by a certificate of marriage to be filed with this petition and prayed to be taken as a part of same and marked "Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1."

2. That the said Frank J. Manahan was, at the time of this marriage with your Oratrix, already married and had not been ganted a divorce according to the decree of the Courts of Chester County, Pennsylvania, until the 10th day of August, 1931, a certified copy of which is field with this petition and prayed to be taken as a part thereof and marked "Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 2"

3. That your Oratrix was born January 18, 1908, and now is a resident of the State of Pennsylvania, residing with her parents at 1031 South 54th Street, Philadelphia.

4. That Frank J. Manahan, the defendant above named, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and that his last known address is Spring Lake, New Jersey.

5. That the object of this petition is to secure an order from this Court annulling the marriage between your Oratrix and Frank J. Manahan, the defendant above named, and for permission to use her maiden name, Alice Lynn Mooney.

6. That your Oratrix and the said defendant, Frank J. Manahan, have had no children born to them from said marriage.

It is thereupon, this 8th day of October, 1932, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 7th day of November next, give notice to the said Frank J. Manahan, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 21st day of November next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

OCTOBER 24 and 25
Richard Barthelmess
—in—
"Cabin In The Cotton"
—with—
Bette Davis
Dorothy Jordan

The most widely read book of the South now a thrilling epic—Romance as only Dixie knows it. Every two years Barthelmess makes screen history and here is his very latest. You can see this great picture ahead of practically every city in the east and CHESTERTOWN has the very first showing of CABIN IN THE COTTON for the State of MARYLAND. Don't miss this tense, vivid, colorful drama of MODERN SLAVERY—filmed with an epic sweep that marks it as todays "Birth Of A Nation"—by far DICK BARTHELMESS' best picture.
