Music for the occassion will be furnished by "Cye Johnson and his pumpkin eaters." The band stand will be erected in the middle of the street.

Four prizes will be given for costumes. The best costumed lady will receive a prize and the best costumed lady will receive a prize. The other two prizes will be for the most comical costumes.

There will be a pie eating contest for five contestants. Huckleberry pies will be used. Each contestant will have his hands tied behind his back and the first one to eat up all his pie will receive a prize. No fair shoving the contestants and give them plenty of room after the contest.

And a greasy time was had by all contestants. A greased pole will be elected on top the band stand. A money prize will be placed on top the pole and the first one to get to the top and get the money keeps it.

More grease will be used later when six greased pigs will be turned loose. Catch one and he is yours for keeps. The pigs will be roasting size pigs.

A good dance and plenty of amusement is promised to all. This will be the first public Hallow'een celebration in Chestertown for a long time. Hallow'een spirit has been on the wane here there not being more than a dozen or so children bothering to costume. It is the hope of the merchants staging the party to revive the old spirit.

FURROWS

BY JOSIAH ALLEN WEATHERBY

It's easy to lay the blame on somebody else, but makin it stick is another matter. The present administration at Washington is tryin to make it appear that the democrats is responsible fer these here hard times. The President is makin speches, and he has a lot of cohorts runnin around the country tryin to make people believe the democrats is to blame fer everything bad and that the republicans, especially Hoover, ain't done nothin but help the country. It ought to be clear just how the republicans has helped the country, but it aint. They try to tell you but it ain't convincin.

They say that the republicans has let the farmers of this country have over a billion dolars of credit durin the past two and a half years. Well, it don't help a man none to git him into debt that he can't pay out. And they don't let him have no credit without a mortgage on his farm. And what are these here agricultural credit corporations doin now? Why, they are sellin the farms of people that can't pay the interest on the mortgages. And in a few years a lot more farms will be sold to pay back this billion dollars that the farmers has got lately. And the Reconstruction Finance Corporation will loan the farmers some more credit at 7 per cent. interest, but the banks is gitin money to loan to the speculators in Wall Street at onehalf of one per cent!

These republican speakers is sayin a lot about the protective tariff on farm products which wuz passed in 1930. Well, that ain't helped the farmers none because, as they admit, agricultural imports durin the past year wuz greater than the exports by 83 million dollars. Why didn't they put a tariff on all farm products and give the farmer a break? And if they wuz sincere bout this tarif business, why didn't they lower the tariff on what the farmers has to buy? But they ain't goin to do anything like that because it would be givin the farmers a real break.

The industries of this country has had protection fer the past 70 years and the agriculturalists has had it fer two years! And they call that helpin agriculture. The policy of the Republican Party has always been to make farmers sell their products in an unprotected market and buy what they use in a protected market.

These republican speakers talk a lot about republican economy. But they don't give you the figgers showin how government expenses has increased durin the past ten years, and especially during the last four years. They talk about Garner's pork barrel bill, but they fail to tell you that the Reconstuction Finance Corporation is the biggest pork dispenser that the world has ever known. Mr. Mills don't say nothin about 102 million dollars of pork that he let California have to try to carry the election in that state fer Hoover.

The Assistant Secretary of Agriculture said the other day in a radio spech: "This genral recovery apparently is now in progress. . . . Let us hope that nothin will occur that will turn us aside from the goal we all desire." But if Hoover don't git elected the big money boys will see to it that the recovery don't come in business, just like they done in 1913. And if they don't succeed in keepin factories closed they will say that the recovery wuz due as a result of Hoover's wize policies before the election. Mr. Hoover has fought every measure the democrats has proposed since he has been president. But his measures ain't brought prosperity to the country, and they won't bring none either.

The founder of he Republican Party once said: "You can't fool all the people all the time." The republicans has been foolin a lot of the people fer the past twelve years, but they ain't goin to fool so many of them this year. The democrats wuz fools enough to try to help the republicans balance their budget in the last session of Congress, and all the thanks they git is to be blamed fer the depression that started three years before they got control of the House.

Well, you listen to their speeches and they will tell you all about their wise policies and how they brought prosperity, or how they saved the country from a worse depression and so on. But what they won't tell you is that the greatest Secretary of the Treasury since Alexander Hamilton piled up the biggest deficit in the history of the country, and then quietly resigned and went to England! ! And this wuz the deficit the democrats tried to help meet in the last session of Congress.
