A UNITED EFFORT on the part of all the organizations in the county who are planning to take Christmas cheer to those who are in less fortunate circumstances would add much to the cause which these various groups are endeavoring to accomplish. The Christmas basket cannot be classed as charity but as a spirit of sharing the joyfulness and good will of the season. Many church, civic and social organizations each year join in carrying out this good work and the opportunity to help will probably be greater this year than ever before. Cooperation between the various organizations in a community will make it possible to avoid duplications and the slighting of many worthy families.

THANKSGIVING WAS quietly observed in Kent County and was probably more like the old-time thankskiving than for many years. The day was celebrated by family reunions, gunnings, etc., and the report from peace officers indicate practically no disorder. There was a lack of automobiles on the road, very little drunkardness and while a number of people attended football games in Baltimore and Philadelphia, the financial condition of the average individual was a enjoyable old time thanksgiving.

PRISON SUNDAY IS DEC. 7, 1932

Prison Sunday originated in 1884, following a meeting called by the Prison Association of New York, at which three hundred clergymen were present. The American Prison Association identified itself with the movement in 1889, and since that time both organizations have annually and jointly urged the observance of the day. The purpose of Prison Sunday is to acquaint church-going people more intimately with the problems relating to the administration of penal and correctional instituions and the crime situation generally, and thereby develop a better public understanding of these problems and a more general demand for their treatment.

The following appeal is made to clergymen, church organizations, and Prison Association:

"The setting aside of one day of the year as Prison Sunday is the work of representatives of the church, and we are therefore asking that you carry on in support of a continuation of the fine spirit which prompted their action.

"It should be remembered that that which affects the prisons of the country has an important bearing on the lives of the population generally. Public interest is alive today on the subject of the man ond the woman, the boy and the girl, who come into conflict with the law. There is a growing cry for revenge and similarly a demand for severity in the treatment of the law breaker. What is needed, however, is a better understanding of the individual, and the certain, prompt and impartial admiistration of crimnal justice.

"Prisoners are human beings whose neds are very great, and whose interests must not be over looked by those who are folowers of Him who said, 'I was in prison and ye visited me.' Recently it was found in one of the penal institutions of the country that only one out of every one hundred inmates attended church regularly before commitment. This ought to be food for thought. It is not a question of one being out on the mountain and ninety and nine in the fold, but of the reverse. What ought the churches do about a problem like this? What can they do? If the churches could solve this problem they would greatly decrease the number who are in our prisons.

"If men in prison are going to be made free from sin and from the fetters which bind them, the churches must take an interest in the prison problem of the country. It is not a question of punishment but of reformation that must be worked out in the prisons. Revenge does not belong to man—'Vegeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.'

"Therefore, the American Prison Asociation and the Prison Association of New York make an earnest appeal that the churches see their opportunity, which is a great one, and that beginnig with the present time they may exercise a more constant influence upon the moral and religious work of penal institutions. It is with this in view that it is hoped that in every institution and from every pulpit in the land there will be an observance of Prison Sunday, December 4.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES

GOOD REASONS FOR CANNING MEATS AND POULTRY

Winter months—the time for home canning of meats, game, poultry, and fish.

Butchering time and poultry culling season find meat and poultry prices at their lowest. Home canning at this time means money saved.

Sufficient roast meat or chicken for thirty meals may be canned in from two to five hours, depending on the method used. The same amount cooked for thirty different meals will require at least sixty hours. The home canning of meats is a time saver. The home canner can have fresh pork sausage and spare-rib in mid-summer or spring chicken in mid-winter. This also adds variety to meals. There is a fine bulletin on "Home Canning in Maryand." Call or write for same at the Extension Office.
