THE LOCATION of the new post-office is of great importance to the business interests of Chestertown as well as the convenience of the individual patrons. A mistake will have to be paid for over a long period of years, and every effort should be exercised to avoid that mistake.

THE URGE to keep chimneys clean is particularly appropriate at this time of the year when hot fires are needed to keep the homes warm. Local fire companies are being constantly called to extinguish chimney fires, which if the chimney is free of cracks the only serious menace is sparks setting fire to the roof, but many chimneys are cracked without the occupants of the home knowing it, and the result may be a serious loss of property. The cleaning of a chimney is a very simple process compared to the danger of dirty ones.

DECORATED FOR CHRISTMAS

Chestertown is the scene of elaborate decorations and at night displays a brilliance of many colors. 435 different colored electric light bulbs overhead and decorated Christmas trees along the side walks makes the most elaborate decorations ever seen here. Store windows display novel Christmas scenes and the whole town reflects the spirit of the season.

BOY DIES FROM GUN WOUND

Death claimed its first hundredvictim of the season on Friday morning in Emergency Hospital, Easton, when William Mispel, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mispel, of McGinnes Corner, died from gun-shot wounds in the stomach, received Thursday afternoon while hunting near his home.

From information furnished by several neighbors who were hunting with the lad, the Mispel youth's gun was accidentally discharged and the entire load passed through his stomach. He was rushed to the office of Dr. J. W. Stack, in Crumpton, who ordered his removal to Emergency Hospital.

He lived until shortly after midnight Friday morning.

The Mispel family formerly lived at Lennox, Mass., and came to Queen Annes county about a year ago. They have been farming near McGinnes Corner.

Diet Didn't Do This!

HAPPY little girl, just bursting with pep, and she has never tasted a "tonic!"

Every child's stomach, liver, and bowels need stimulating at times, but give children something you know all about.

Follow the advice of that famous family physician who gave the world Syrup Pepsin. Stimulate the body's vital organs. Dr. Caldwell's prescription of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh herbs is a mild stimulant that keeps the system from getting sluggish.

If your youngsters don't do well at school, don't play as hard or eat as well as other children do, begin this evening with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This gentle stimulant will soon right things! The bowels will move with better regularity and thoroughness. There won't be so many sick spells or colds. You'll find it just as wonderful for adults, too, in larger spoonfuls!

Get some Syrup Pepsin; protect your household from those bilious days, frequent headaches, and that sluggish state of half-health that means the bowels need stimulating. Keep this preparation in the home to use instead of harsh cathartics that cause chronic constipation if taken too often. You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store; they have it all ready in big bottles.
