SCHOOL DAYS — By DWIG

A medicine that brightens people's lives

Fortunately for most of us, a state of happy health does not depend on strength. But like any other piece of machinery, the human machine must be properly regulated to run right.

There is a simple means of regulating the system. It makes an amazing difference in the way your organs function and the way you feel.

It pays most men and women to try this regulation. You may consider yourself in fairly good health today, and after only two weeks' regulating realize you were only half alive.

This means of stimulating the system to new life is a prescription, and it is known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It's derived from fresh herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. Every druggist keeps it on hand. Get some today, and take some tonight.

Whole households have blessed this family doctor's prescription. It has saved old and young from sluggish spells—and from downright sickness. It's the only tonic you may need; the only laxative you need. It is the most likeable and remarkable medicine you ever tasted.

Try one bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and compare your condition with how you felt before!

SCHOOL NOTES

CHESTERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

Janet MacVean

The History Clubs met Tuesday for the first time under the new officers. The 10A club meeting with Charles Hague as president, and Margaret Bell as secretary enjoyed the following program:

Report on Ground Hog Day—Francis Gibson.

Boy Scouts of America—Robert Hoopes.

Gettysburg Address—Rumsey Anthony.

Book Report, "The Soul of Anne Rutledge"—Mildred Willis.

Valentine Day—Beatrice Berger.

Washington's Social Life—Myrtle Hadaway.

Life of Longfellow—Audrey Long.

Longfellow's "Psalm of Life,"—Charles Hoelle.

Life of Edison—Pauline Crew.

The Phillippine Bill—Baynard Harper.

Debate on the question that Lincoln was a greater president than Washington—Janet MacVean, affirmative; Margaret Bell—negative.

Edward Patton. the new president of the 10B club and Elizabeth Wescott, the secretary presided during the following program:

Reading about Lincoln—Earle Perry.

Gettysburg Address — Katherine Atwell.

Report on the book, "The Soul of Anne Rutledge"—Isabelle Brice.

Report on Thomas A. Edison—Louise Morris.

Report on Longfellow—Elizabeth Wescott.

The Skeleton in Armor—Charles Wheatley.

The Psalm of Life—Marian Reinhart.

The mixed doubles in the ping-pong tournament have progressed well. In the first round Westcott and Wright defeated Pyle and Porter 6-3, 6-2; Bryan and Coleman won 6-1, 6-3 over Crew and Wheatley; Briggs and Benjamin lost 6-2, 6-8, 8-6 to Anthony and Harper; Barnes and Truslow were defeated by Reinhart and Hepborn 6-2, 6-0. In the semi-finals Bryan and Coleman defeated Westcott and Wright 6-1, 6-2, and Reinhart and Hepborn won 7-5, 6-1 to Anthony and Harper. The title is now between the Bryan-Coleman team and the Reinhart-Hepbron team. The boy's doubles champion team consists of Truslow and Owens. There is to be a challenge match between Coleman and Truslow at noon Wednesday. It is believed that "Mac" will broadcast minute to minute description of the play. The five cents admission is for the benefit of the Dragon.

In the Home Ec. Classes a lot of work is being accomplished, although most of it is not very newsy. The 9th graders are now sewing and the Seniors are continuing their study of the girl and her relationships. Their last discussion was on honesty. They are preparing the program for their club meeting. The Freshmen have proudly made baking powder biscuits. Miss Kersey and Miss Hadaway are to meet soon to outline their courses of study for Home Economics.

Several of the most clever cartoons of the week are on the bulletin board in Miss Peacock's room.

Did you know they played football in France? It seems they do. One of the girls who has heard from France says they do. Alice Marian Sterling, Georgeanna Redman and Elizabeth Fontaine have heard from French boys.

The orchestra may have an addition in the shape of a French horn if Harry Coleman, its owner, doesn't change his mind.

Mr. Willis, Mrs. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling and their daughter went to see "Green Pastures." "Wonderful, the best ever produced," are a sample of their opinions concerning it.

Read the "Reflector" and find out about Calloway and his track team.

If you're good at writing letters perhaps you can win $5.00 in gold. Two of these prizes are offered for the best letters on the subject "What My Rural Mail Carrier Means To Me." One $5 gold piece will be given to the writer of the best letter in the elementary schools of Kent and the other to the winning high school scholar. Further information concerning the contest may be received from Mr. Blades in C. H. S.

Those who are interested in Home Economics talks and who are able to listen to the noon program on Monday over WCAU will enjoy the list of programs which Miss Kersey has.

Basketball fans will be glad to hear that C. H. S. boys and girls will play Easton at Easton on Wednesday evening. We expect a good game, so come and cheer for us.

SHE KNEW WHAT HAPPENED

Servant Girl: "Madam, master lies unconscious in the hall with a piece of paper in his hand and a large box alongside."

Wife (joyously): "Oh, my new hat has arrived."

Do your Customers know your "Second address" Mr. Merchant?

THERE are times when busy people simply can't get away from home or office to do their shopping.

Do they realize that at such times your telephone becomes a "second address" at which they can shop quickly and easily?

Tell them about it in your advertising, Mr. Merchant. Feature your telephone shopping facilities. Make your telephone number as well-known as your street address. Then it will be easy for your customers to buy from you at all times.

And they will know that you welcome them when they come to you by telephone.
