Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown

Rev. E. A. Sexsmith, D. D. Minister.

The one thing worse than a quitter is the man who is afraid to begin. If you have not lived the life you should, why not begin? If you haven't the church going habit, why not start it? We invite you to join with us in the services of next Sunday which will be as follows:

Sunday School at 10 a. m. under the direction of Mr. W. R. Huey, Superintendent. The lesson subject will be "Jesus Ministering to Human Needs."

Morning worship at 11 a. m. at which time the pastor will deliver the second of a series of Pre-Easter sermons on "The Precious Promises of Christ."

The Christian Endeavor service will be held at 6.45 p. m. The leader for the occasion will be Mrs. Earl Barnes.

The evening worship service at 7.30 o'clock will be known as Ladies' night. The Ladies' organizations of the church are expected to attend this service and sit together. "Women of Biblical Fame", will be the subject of the sermon.

The Ladies' Aid Society will be entertained at the parsonage on Monday evening. A full attendance is desired.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

PRESENT BOY SCOUT AWARD

CEREMONY HELD AT ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Mayor Charles N. Satterfield, representing the community of Chestertown, formally presented the Hoover Award for 1932 to Mr. Lee Gill, Chairman of the Troop Committee of the local Boy Scouts, at a special meeting held in the auditorium of the Elementary School last Wednesday evening. The Hoover Award, a streamer of blue, with gold lettering, to be attached to the Troop flag, was won by the local Troop for their attainment of high standards of Scouting during the year 1932. Chestertown was one of three Eastern Shore Troops to receive this award; the others being Princess Anne and Pocomoke City.

The meeting at which the presentation was made was arranged and presided over by Dr. Howard Dana, Scoutmaster. A splendid program consisting of music by the Elementary School Orchestra, speaking, and refreshments, was put on. Among those besides Mayor Satterfield speaking on the program were Dr. Esther M. Dole, who's subject was "What a Scout's Mother thinks of Scouting." Mr. Louis C. Robinson, Superintendent of Schools, who's subject was "What an Educator Thinks of Scouting;" and Mr. Howard B. Owens, District Scout Commissioner, who made several comments on the Award. A report which summarized the Troops standing was read by Mr. George E. C. Kauffman, Assistant Scoutmaster. Rev. Frank White, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, pronounced the Invocation.

BETTERTON
