CHURCH NOTES

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown

Rev. E. A. Sexsmith, D. D. Minister.

Bad habits are like a comfortable bed: easy to get into, but hard to get out of. You may stop loving God, but God never stops loving you. This fact should turn the most neglectful to God and the services of the Church. The best time to begin is now. We invite you to join us next Sunday.

The Sunday School will meet at 10 a. m. with Mr. W. R. Huey, Superintendent, in charge. The subject of the lesson will be "Jesus Our Example in Service."

Morning worship at 11 o'clock. The pastor will present another of his sermons on the Precious Promises of Christ, this one being "The Promise of Power."

The Christian Endeavor service will be held at 6.45 p. m. with Miss Mary Knight in charge. The subject will be "Is it Practical to Live Without Worry?"

Evening service at 7.30 o'clock. A gospel song service will precede the sermon by the pastor on the subject, "Recruiting for Chirst."

Special services will be held throughout the week at 7.30 o'clock each evening except Saturday, Rev. T. J. Turkington, pastor of Denton M. P. Church will be the speaker. Rev. Turkington is also a fine song leader and soloist. You will certainly want to hear him. Come and bring a friend.

HELD FOR WORTHLESS CHECKS

James M. Johnson is in the Kent County jail, charged with getting credit under false pretenses. He was arrested on a charge made by Mrs. Virginia Ott, taxicab driver, of Elkton, who charged him with giving her a worthless check for $100 in payment of a 500 mile taxicab ride.

A hearing was held and he is held for Court. At the hearing it was brought out that he had deposited in a bank in Clayton a draft for $25,000 on a New York bank and had passed a number of worthless checks using his bank book showing the $25,000 deposit for identification. The New York draft was no good. A $5 check was accepted by Mr. Hildish at Turner's Creek wharf in payment of gasoline and he gave some cash for change.

On complaint of Mrs. Ott, he was arrested and he sent for Mr. W. F. Russell, attorney. He told Mr. Russell that if he could get in touch with friends in New York or Norfolk he could get plenty of money. Phone calls were made and as the score stands now, Mr. Russell is $1.40 minus and the plenty of money is still lacking. It is reported that Johnson has just finished serving 30 days in a Delaware jail. He will be tried at the April term of court.

Most men's idea of a snap is the other felloy's job.
