CHICKEN THIEVES CAPTURED

Cooper Tibbett, Frank Kennard, Charles "Buck" Johnson and William "Big Boy" Wampoo, of Chestertown are in the Centreville jail, charged with stealing 16 chickens from George Clough, of Pondtown, Queen Anne's county, this week. Sheriff Anthony, of Queen Anne's county assisted by Kent County officers traced the car used in stealing the chickens to the home of Tibbitt, in Chestertown where Tibett was found in bed with three of the chickens. "Big Boy" Wampoo also shared his bed with a like number of chickens. Johnson and Kennard were apprehended, minus chickens, but with blood on their shoes and trousers. No trace of the other chickens has been found.

Tibbett was released on $1,000 bail late Wednesday. The others have been unable, thus far, to arrange bail.

The By-Ktoa Club of the Chestertown M. E. Church will meet in the social room of the church next Monday day evening, to be entertained by Mrs. John Speicher, Miss Ella Hicks and Mrs. Belle Smith.

Eastern Sho' Only

Dear Editor,

About thirty years ago, I knew Eastern Ave. in Baltimore city. Riding along in the street car, I would see the saloons and the men who frequented them. The street itself was a most awful place for the up-bringing of children. I've seen men coming from Sparrows Point, with their pay envelopes, stopping there, and when they finally were thrown out, or staggered out, their pockets were empty, and the women and children had nothing for the next week or two.

The saloons were closed. There was a great cry as to the loss in income, from the places of business (?) And person wanting to may go down there and see the place now. The places of business are opened. They are opened for the women and children to walk into openly. There are large plate glass windows kept clean, and plate glass door, with no curtains.

There are furniture stores, because the women have money to spend. There are beauty parlors, because women have money to spend. There are ice cream paroirs, for the children have money to spend. There are Movie places, for the children have money to spend. There are dairies, for the babies are getting their due.

IF there is but ten dollars, and dad is weak when he sees a BAR, the women and children get none of the benefits of the ten dollars, for after one or ten dollars have been spent because of BEER, it cannot be spent for milk or ice cream or parlor furniture.

I have seen little children waiting at the side doors, until someone came along to carry in the bucket which their father had compelled them to carry to the corner saloon. I've seen men on the side walks, nastily drunk, thrown out when their money had been all spent or taken from them. And did the city gain much by the taxes paid by the saloon, when it was losing on the other places of business which will be forced to close because mother and the children do not have the money after dad has spent it?

This piece of poetry "author unknown" is full of meaning.

A BAR to Heaven, and door to Hell,
Who ever named it, named it well.
A BAR to manliness and wealth,
A door to want and broken health.
A BAR to honor, love and fame,
A door to grief and sin and shame.
A BAR to hope, a BAR to prayer,
A door to darkness and despair.
A BAR to honored, useful life
A door to Brawling, senseless strife
A BAR to all that's true and brave
A door to every drunkard's grave.
A BAR to joys that home imparts.
A Door to tears and aching hearts.

There is but little money for the working people. How in this world can it be made to go farther, if it is to go for BEER, and the associations that it brings? I've heard it said that "I was too young to know anything about saloons, so why should I vote against it?" If only those old enough to vote when they were closed, were permitted to vote now, would not the same opinion prevail?

"Where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise." We who lived then, hate to see it come back.

A MOTHER.

That the Cecil County Bar Association will support the candidacy of James F. Evans, Elkton attorney, for his election to an associate judgeship in the First judicial circuit of Maryland, including Cecil county, was learned this week. Mr. Evans has been proposed to succeed Associate Judge Lwin W. Wickes, who it is reported will seek the chief judgeship upon the expiration of the term of William H. Adkins in 1934.

E. Brook Lee, member of the State Roads Commission, announced plans for legislation making possible widening of the Philadelphia and Belair roads out of a $4,000,000 bond issue, to be retired by proceeds from the proposed new taxes on trucks.

The plan contemplates an entirely new method of financing State projects since it is proposed instea dof a State bond issue backed by the credit of the State to obtain the necessary loan by the issuance of State Roads Commission debentures, backed by the receipts from the new taxes on the trucks.

BETTERTON

Because of Conference there will be no preaching service at the Methodist church tomorow afternoon. Last Sunday afternoon the members of the Junior League were received as probationary members into the church and two persons were received by letter.

Last Saturday evening the Junior League entertained the members of the Junior choir in the church basement which is used as a recreation hall for supervised play each Saturday evening.

Miss Ada Townsend, the niece of Mr. and Mrs. William Rolph was taken to Easton Hospital on Wednesday in the county ambulance. She is ill with pneumonia.

Miss Edith Smith returned to her home from Easton Hospital last Saturday, where she is recuperating from an appendicitis operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crew have moved from Bayside, to Norway Cottage, the home of Mr. Crew's mother.

Mr. Armant has returned to Betterton and opened the Betterton Garage for the summer.

The Indian, "Sunny Skies," who has been visiting the various schools throughout the county was here last Friday and gave a most interesting talk to the children.

Prof. Horace Wheeler, of Baltimore, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wheeler, Miss Elizabeth Brice returned to Baltimore with him.

Mrs. George Turner and children are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. William Turner.

Nine members of the Home Economics Club attended the all day meeting in Chestertown on Thursday.

Mr. Weader, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with his family at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gooding and daughter, of Wilmington, were the week end guests of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Horace Brice.

Many persons in the town "listened in" over WDEL last Monday afternoon to hear Mrs. Howard Toulson and Mrs. Ralph Geary sing. These are two of Kents sweetest singers and two who are always willing to use their talent, whenever asked, if it is possible. We congratulate them on their achievement. They will sing each Monday afternoon at three fifteen and are announced as "The Price Sisters." Their program will be "Old Songs."

Mrs. Toulson and Mrs. Geary are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price.

A courageous smile is particularly praiseworthy.

Dear Joe,

Have you ever asked yourself this question—

What do I want my investments to do for me?

Will they do it?

Just think that over and then talk it over with Harper, at Still Pond, the Massachusetts Mutual man.

Faithfully,
Doc.

Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder physic, also containing buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels.
