"THE KID FROM SPAIN"

"The Kid from Spain," with Eddie Cantor as the pop-eyed matador for laughs and a hundred dary-eyed senoritas for further excitement in a lusty tale of Mexican bull-fighting and love-making is to be presented at the New Lyceum Theatre on Thursday and Friday, April 27 and 28 with a matinee showing on Friday, April 28 at 3:30 P. M.

Nonsense and song, as nervous and bubbling as Eddie himself is, propel a gay romantic fable of love under the southern moon, a story of the dark smiling eyes that give matadors the grace and valor of Spain's noble sport of bull-fighting, with Eddie as the unwilling matador.

"The Kid from Spain" continues Cantor's plans with Samuel Goldwyn of one picture a year. Last year there was "Palmy Days" and the season before "Whoopee."

Three songs, in which the electric blonde comedienne, Lyda Roberti, joins Eddie, enable them to tell you what happens "In the Moonlight," of "What a Perfect Combination" he and his partner are, and looking each other in the eye, in song to ask each other "Look What You've Done" against a background of lavish beauty, beautiful girls, tuneful music and spirited dance.

Prominent in the big cast that supports Eddie and Miss Roberti are Robert Young and Ruth Hall as the love interest, and as the menaces, John Miljan and Carrol Naish, together with Noah Beery, Stanley Fields and, playing the role of no one but himself, Sidney Franklin, the Brooklyn boy who went to Spain and became the world's greatest bullfighter.

Bert Kalmar and Harry Ruby wrote the songs. With William Anthony McGuire, they co-authored the story. Busby Berkeley created and staged the dances and ensembles, while Leo McCarey directed the story.

DID YOU KNOW, THAT:

Lambert Wickes, the most distinguished naval officer of the Revolutionary war took Benjamin Franklin to France on his ship, Reprisal which was the first American Continental war ship to visit European waters.

DID YOU KNOW, THAT:

Hail Point which is at the Southeastern end of Eastern Neck Island is so called because in colonial days all vessels were "hailed" from this point and required to stop for inspection before proceeding up the Chester River.

DID YOU KNOW, THAT:

Kent County is named from a shire in England, that it has an area of 315 square miles of which 75 miles are water.

DID YOU KNOW, THAT:

Somewhere in Chestertown is an old cannon whose history is most intimately connected with most stirring traditions and events of the county seat of Kent county. Would it not be an appropriate and patriotic thing to unearth this old gun and place it as a fitting decoration to the approach of the New Armory? Referred to local military company, a history of this old gun would be a most interesting bit of local history.

DID YOU KNOW, THAT:

A tobacco Prize House was a place where tobacco, back in the tobacco growing period, was "prize" or placed in hogsheads each hogshead containing 950 pounds.

NOW AND THEN

WHAT THE THRUSH SAYS.

"Come and See!" "Come and See!"
The thrush pipes out of the hawthorn tree:
And I and Dicky on tiptoe go
To see what treasures he has to show.
His call is clear as a call can be,
And "Come and see" he says
"Come and see."

"Come and See!" "Come and See!"
His house is there in the hawthorn tree:
The neatest house that ever you saw,
Built all of mosses and twigs and straw:
The folks that built it were his wife and he.
And "Come and see" he says
"Come and see."

"Come and See!" "Come and See!"
Within this house there are treasures three,
So warm and snug in its curve they lie,
Like three bright bits of spring's blue sky
We would not hurt them, he knows; not we!
So "Come and See" he says
"Come and see."

"Come and See!" "Come and See!"
He has no fear of the boys and me.
He came and shared our meals you know,
In hungry times of ice and snow.
So now we share in his Secret tree
Where "Come and See!" he says
Queenie Scott Hopper.
"Come and see."

Did you ever know such weather, and following as it did the beautiful day on Tuesday last when everything gave promise of coming spring. The weather man foretold it over the radio, but we could hardly believe him. As we know the weather man personally and have found him a most agreeable and intelligent person, we are rather surprised that he does not prophesy better weather. One of the most interesting of Dickens,' characters, Mr. Jarndyce, used always to say when things went wrong, "The wind is east" and it certainly has been east these days. Perhaps tomorrow will be sunshiny again.

It is sad to know from the Welfare Association that there are at least 450 families in Kent County who need help badly. Their condition is largely due to lack of employment. Generally with the coming spring it means work, but this year the farmers have little money. We are hoping for better times soon.

To call Casabianca a moron seems almost sacrilege to those who were taught to copy his filial obedience. It is true he might have shown more initative, but still he is a hero to the children so do not tear their idol down.

Spring time and shut up in the musty court room. How sad for the lawyers?

The Law the Lawyers know about.

The law the lawyers know about
Is property and lands,
But why the leaves are on the trees,
And why the winds disturb the seas,
Why honey is the food of bees,
Why horses have such tender knees
Why winters come and rivers freeze
Why faith is more than what one sees
Adn Hope survives the worst disease
And Charity is more than these,
They do not understand.

CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION HERE

Grand Jury Finished Wednesday

JUDGE OWEN C. KNOTTS, OF DENTON

The April term of the Circuit Court for Kent County convened on Monday of this week with Judges Keating and Knotts on the Bench. This was Judge Knotts first appearance on the bench outside of Caroline county following his appointment by Governor Albert C. Ritchie to succeed the late Judge Lewin W. Wickes on Thursday of last week. Judge Knotts is well known in Kent Coutny having practiced in the local Court and spoke here on various occasions.

He delivered the address at the cemetery on Decoration Day last year during the memorial services held under the auspices of the Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36, American Legion. Judge Knotts appointment is for the period to 1934 when two Judges will be elected as Associate and Chief Judge.

After Court convened on Monday the morning session was taken up with calling the docket and assigning cases for trial.

The grand jury was drawn as follows and charged by Judge Keating: Charles W. Kibler, foreman, W. Holt Woodall, Lewis S. Price, Charles B. Nicholson, David B. Ford, J. Robert Lewis, C. Frank Crow, J. Bayard Sutton, Andrew W. Wilson, Robert R. Hill, Thomas S. Silcox, Conlyn E. Noland, John C. Willson, Howard Jones, Howard S. Rees, Newnam Stevens, T. Frank Pinder, T. Bayard Crew, Sudler Loller, Joseph Price, Jesse E. Ireland, George W. Sutton, Roger B. Harris.

The petit jury was drawn as follows: M. deK. Smith, Theodore J. Thompson, Weldon Walbert, William J. Maslin, John W. Naylor, Frank A. Roeder, Harry Clark, Joseph N. Wheatley, Norris L. Ashley, W. B. LeCompte, W. Dorsey Hines, Olin Dulin, John C. Sutton, Harry T. Williams, E. Scott Thompson, Cecil Crouch, Joseph E. Gibbs, E. B. Harper, Walter U. Lusby, John W. Harman, E. Thomas Massey, Robert N. Bramble, Clinton C. Jones, Harrison E. Wagner, W. R. Strong.

On the appeal docket the following cases have been tried:

State vs. Clarnece Wilson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct. According to the evidence, Wilson was attending a church supper near Edesville and being a little late all the pickles were gone. Wilson called for pickles and as no pickles were forthcoming, he was charged with acting in a disorderly manner. Court trial, verdict not guilty.

State vs. Edwin T. Moore. Charged with assault and battery on Roy White, at Rock Hall. Jury trial, verdict guilty and sentence suspended, Moore to pay the costs.

State vs. Lydia G. and Paul Curtis McClain, children, charged with being without proper care. In this case the charge was that the parents of these two children did not give them proper care. There have been numerous complaints from the school and health authorities about the conditions under which these children were being raised. Court trial, verdict guilty and the children were placed under the care of the Maryland Aid Society.

State vs. Charles Morris, colored, charged with assault and battery on Roosevelt Jones. According to the evidence Morris shot Jones in the arm. He was tried before a Magistrate and sentenced to two years in the House of Correction. The case was appealed and the Court dismissed the appeal which means that Morris will serve the original sentence of two years.

The case of J. H. Clendaniel vs. J. K. Valliant for $25, was carried over from the October term of Court due to a mistrial. In this case Mr. Clendaniel claimed a balance of $25 was due him for work done. According to the evidence Mr. Clendaniel had completed work for Mr. Valiant at his new home near Chestertown for which a charge of $50 was made. Mr. Clendaniel received material to the value of $25 and the suit was for the remaining $25. Mr. Valliant claimed the price for the work was exorbitant. Jury trial, verdict $10 for Mr. Clendaniel.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following:

Albert Deshields, Charles Deshields, George White, Wm. Dean, Samuel Tiller, James M. Johnson, D. Alphus Price, Charles Nehus, Charles Rodgers, Wm. Richardson, Miller Cornelius, Andrew Kolschensenther, Dupont Cann, Franklin Hogans, Vickers Le-Cates and Clyde Landing.

The Grand Jury submitted the following report an dwere discharged:

The case of Charles S. Ellis vs. B. H. Bittle and Alice Bittle for commissions on the sale of some real estate in Montgomery county was tried before the court and a verdict given for the Bittles.

A case Emma J. Bowers vs. Ray A. Yaple for damages in an automobile accident was started before a jury, but was taken from the jury by the court because of some evidence given by a witness involving the insurance held by the defendent which it seems is considered under the law to constitute a mistrial. This case has been settled between the interested parties after the mistrial.

The case of Cora Tilghman vs. Strong & Cooper was tried before a jury. This was a case in which Cora Tilghman claimed there was $400.00 due her on a trade-in-car deal. Jury trial; verdict for Strong & Cooper.

The case of Albert Deshiles charged with stealing two bushels of corn from H. Stockton Startt was called; plead guilty and a verdict of guilty rendered and sentenced to six months in the Maryland House of Correction.

Charles Deshiles charged with stealing one bushel of corn from H. Stockton Startt, plead guilty, verdict guilty and sentenced to 4 months in the Maryland House of Correction.

Case of Claude Landing charged with the larecny of one bag of coal from the Penn. Railroad, plead guilty and sentence suspended upon Landing paying the cost in the case.

Case of Wilbur Johnson charged with passing a forged check on Carl N. Bordley. Jury trial, verdict guilty and sentenced to nine months in the Maryland House of Correction.

GRAND JURY REPORT

Grand Jury Room
April, 1933.

To the Honorable Judges of the Circuit Court for Kent County, State of Maryland.

The Grand Jury of the April term of the Circuit Court of Kent County, State of Maryland 1933 beg to report the following on completion of their labors.

We have been in session three days having examined 89 witnesses, made 2½ Presentments, and found 22 True Bills.

We have visited the jail and are pleased to report same in an unusual clean and sanitary condition.

We have interveiwed the Sheriff and different officers in the County as to Violations of the Criminal Law.

Our attention has been called to the fact that less than one half of the dog taxes assessed in the County for the year 1932 have been paid. We therefore recommend that the Honorable Court instruct the dog tax collectors to make the collections now in default or impose the proper fines as provided by law.

The Grand Jury desires at this time to pay respect to the memory of the late Lewin W. Wickes, who for many years presided over this Court. Many of the members of this Grand Jury were intimately associated with him and have served on juries over which Judge Wickes presided. He was a man of the highest integrity, kindliness and accomodation, and in our opinion filled his office in a very able manner.

The Jury extends its appreciation to the Honorable Court, the Sheriff, the Clerk and all other officials for the courtesy extended.

Respectfully submitted:
C. W. KIBLER, JR., Foreman.
C. E. NOLAND, Clerk.
JESSE E. IRELAND, Asst. Clerk.
