SCHOOL NOTES

CHESTERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL
By Janet MacVean

The big event of the week at C. H. S. was the Literary which was held the last period Friday. The meeting was called to order and the minutes read and approved. Then the orchestra, directed by Miss Stavely and accompanied by Phyllis Greenwood the new pianist, played a charming selection. A talk on track was given by Herschel Calloway during which he said that out of 29 events in the county meet 21 records held by C. H. S. Of those now in Chestertown High, Bill Reed made the record for hop, step, and jump in 1927, William Falkner set the record for the shot-put in 1932. Also several present students of C. H. S. were in the '33 660 yard relay which won the first place in the state meet. Then Bob Fleetwood, the track coach, spoke a few minutes. He says we will have a good team if everyone works, practices, cooperates and support the team. Miss Stavely and Billy Miller played a violin duet, "Rock-A-Bye Moon" accompanied by Phyllis Greenwood. The mock trial, coached by Mr. Poole, which followed was a great success. Miss Mary Lillian Knotts sued Mr. Joseph D. Harper for $25,000 for breach of promise. The jury consisted of the faculty. Wilson Yerkey was Judge; Betty Strong was Clerk of Court; Mary Moffett, court crier; Phyllis Greenwood, court stenographer; attorneys for the plaintiff, Grace MacVean and John Truslow; and attorneys for the defendant, Margaret Stavely and Leon Hand. The meeting closed with a hilarious sample of the minstrel to be given that evening.

The minstrel cleared about $20. This reduces the "Dragon's" needs to about $145.

Material for the "Dragon" is being assembled and Miss Eareckson is to take the Senior's pictures Thursday and Friday.

Miss Bryan has returned, to the satisfaction of all C. H. S.

Freshmen are studying description in English class.

The 11th grade biology class is becoming very proficient in first aid and is practicing artificial respiration.

The Commencement music has been selected and ordered.

BLIND FAITH

She—Women are given too much to blind faith.

He—Yes, many of those who enter the beauty contests prove that.

Jigsaws Get You This Way

A jigsaw jigger called up the jigsaw department of a downtown store and asked whether any new ones had come in from Jigsawville.

"Yes, we have a new one just in," the young saleswoman replied.

"What's the title?"

"The Road to Denver."

"All right—send it out."

But when the jigsaw jigger received the new jigsaw puzzle the name on the box said:

"The Rhododendron!"—Indianapolis News.

POP'S A PUNSTER

Willie—Say, Maw, pop must tell you a lot of riddles.

His Mother—Why do you ask?

Willie—Well, I heard him tell Mr. Jones last night that he had you [illegible].

In a Hurry

A gang of electric light workmen had stretched the cable from a huge reel across the road, when a taxicab bowled up. Stopped by the obstruction, the taxi driver shouted indignantly to the foreman on the job: "Say! Why don't you take your bloomin' yo-yo into a side street and play with it there?"—Boston Transcript.

Bossies' Little Weakness

A city girl visiting her uncle on the farm was watching a cow chewing her cud.

"Pretty fine cow, that," said her uncle as he came by.

"Yes," said the girl, "but doesn't it cost a lot to keep her in chewing gum?"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Burglar Insurance

"Why did you pick out such a pretty cook?"

"My husband is away a great deal and I wanted to have police protection."—Funny Scraps.

Gob Humor

Sergeant—Say, Top, how would you like to lend a friend a five?

Top Sergeant—Buddy, I'd like it, but I haven't a friend in the world.—Tennessee Tar.

Next Question

Teacher—William, what three words are most used in the English language?

William—I don't know.

Teacher—Correct.
