Lessening Sadness

Is the First Duty of the Funeral Director

My excellent system of arranging the details or each and every funeral entrusted to my care leaves with those upon whom I wait, a feeling of confidence and satisfaction that the last offices were performed with such perfect harmony as to greatly lessen the sadness connected with such an event

SCHOOL NOTES

CHESTERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL
By Janet MacVean

C. H. S. has enjoyed several assemblies this week. Thursday afternoon Miss Snow spoke to the Juniors and Seniors on the League of Nations. She said that there are three undeclared wars going on at present and that armaments are being piled higher and higher. A famous person has said that there can be no disarmament until there is moral disarmament. For this reason, a resolution is at present before the World Court and the League of Nations that students throughout the world shall be instructed in world peace, in the terms of the various international treaties and in the aims and ideals of the League of Nations and the World Court. She told us of the League of Nations and its accomplishments. Only the support of the United States can make its success continuous. A verdict of "guilty" has been pronounced on Japan by the World Court. To carry out the sentence, the U. S. A. must be willing to refrain from financial, commercial, or diplomatic relationships with Japan. It is up to the present generation and the future generation now in high school to pledge support to the World Court and the League of Nations. On Monday Mr. Hill, the Information Director for the Washington district of the Bell Telephone Company addressed the school on the subject of "Extending the Voice's Range by Telephone." We found, among other interesting facts that last year there were 26,000,000,000 telephone calls in the U. S. as compared with 16,000,000 first class letters. A voice today, because of improved cables, the vacuum tube repeater, and the short-wave radio set, can be transmitted for more than ten thousand miles. At the present time, three telephone messages and twenty-eight telegraph or teletype messages may be transmitted over the same three wires at once.

Field day events are being practiced and the tennis club is preparing to commence its fourth annual tournament when the court is ready.

The "Dragon" is nearly ready to go to press with a lack of less than $135. Miss Riches and her staff are to work every afternoon from three to six until May 16 to put the material into its final shape.

The class rooms are overflowing with beautiful flowers. Spring is really worth while in spite of spring fever.

Miss Fitz attended a teacher's meeting and luncheon at Beacom College on Saturday. She reports that the C. H. S. Commercial exhibit was prominently displayed and favorably commented upon.

The new History Club books are: Raiders of the Deep, The Power and the Glory, A Lantern in Her Hand, Katrinka Grows Up and the World Atlas.

The Home Economics Department desires that all parents will supply inexpensive materials for students to work with in sewing class. Silks and expensive linens and rayons are seldom ah easy to work with and mean a greater loss if spoiled.

The Freshmen are serving breakfasts at one lesson and criticizing them the next. The 9th graders are still sewing and dresses have already been handed in by Janet Briggs and Opal Perry. The 9A Section is planning a club program this week. Home nursing for the Seniors, will conclude, except for tests, with a demonstration on bandaging and artificial respiration by the same boys who have given it in science class.

EXPLAINS LARCENY BILL VOTE

In a letter to Senator S. Scott Beck last week, Governor Albert C. Ritchie explained his reason for vetoing the Larceny Bill last week which was introduced by Senator Beck and passed.

The letter and veto statement follows:

Hon. S. Scott Beck,
Chestertown, Md.

Dear Senator:

After hearing from both sides in regard to the Larceny Bill, Senate 165, I finally concluded that it ought to be vetoed because of its application to Baltimore City. I dislike doing this because it was not the fault of the counties that Baltimore was included, and yet I did not feel that I ought to take the chance which the Baltimore City authorities felt the measure would involve for them.

Very truly yours,
Albert C. Ritchie, Governor.

Veto Statement

The following is the veto statement which was enclosed with the above letter:

This bill provides in substance that the theft of property under the value of $25.00 shall be a misdemeanor and not a felony, and triable before a Police Magistrate instead of the Court.

The Legislature of 1931 passed a similar bill, and upon the request of the State's Attorney of Baltimore and the Police Commissioner, I vetoed it, because, among other reasons, if such cases are tried before the Police Magistrate there cannot be the same opportunity to investigate the record of the accused that there is if the trial is before the Court, and thus persons who are really criminals and who ought to be detained might be released.

The bill, however, is much desired in the counties, chiefly in order to save them the expense of keeping accused persons in jail during the comparatively long interval between terms of court, and when this measure was introduced in the Legislature it applied to the counties only, and exempted Baltimore City. It was, however, amended so as to include Baltimore, and therefore the situation whch was presented in 1931 is now presented again.

Much as I would like to give the counties relief in the respect just referred to, the conditions to which the bill would give rise in Baltimore City made it unwise to do so, and, for this reason, the bill will be vetoed.

Dad: "That's right."

Small Boy: "Then is that why some people are always trying to make a hit?"

Drink Yerbavida

AND YOU'LL

Hop Out of Bed "Rarin' to Go"

If you have lost your pep, feel tired all the time, and hate to get up in the morning, don't take a dose of salts, mineral oil or laxative and expect it to pep you up and make you young again, because it won't do it.

Yerbavida is produced from plants growing wild on the American desert. It contains no drugs of any kind. In fact, no ingredients of any nature have been added to it. When brewed into a tea according to instructions, it becomes a delicious, satisfying beverage which has been found to accomplish wonders in cases of glandular troubles and also poisonous acidity.

G. M. B., of Los Angeles, California, writes; "From the very first day of using Yerbavida I felt an increase in vitality, and in a few days all signs of indigestion with which I had been suffering for years had disappeared. But the greatest benefit of all is that I am no longer constipated, for which I am more grateful than I can tell, as I have had to resort to every kind and sort of pill and cathartic for years and have never received permanent relief from anything."

Yerbavida is inexpensive too. A large package, enough for 240 cups, can be obtained for only $1.00. If your local druggist cannot supply you, accept no substitute but send $1.00 direct to Yerbavida Sales Co., 612 Southwest Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif. Or a 20-page book "The Story of Yerbavida" free on request.
