SCHOOL DAYS — By DWIG

SCHOOL NOTES

CHESTERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL
By Janet MacVean

The 10A History Club meeting was called to order on Monday, May 1, by the president, Charles Hague. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and the dues collected. The following program was then given:

April Fool's Day—Edward Hepbron.

Edwin Booth—Dorothy Jones.

Flags of America—Alvin Coleman.

Yale University—Pauline Crew.

First Printing Press in America—Margaret Fellows.

Wreck of the Titanic—Mildred Willis.

Longfellow's "Paul Revere's Ride"—Mark Wood.

Life of James Monroe—Alice Kennedy.

Life of James Buchanan—Carrie Schreiber.

The Founding of Rome—Oakley Valliant.

Life of Ulysses S. Grant—Elizabeth Johns.

The capture, trial, and punishment of John Wilkes Booth—Charles Wheatley.

Lee's Last Battle and the Surrender at Appomattox—Edward Patton.

The final meeting is to be a joint one if possible. All dues should be paid before this meeting so that the treasurers may make up their reports. Several dozen pencils also remain to be sold.

Preparation for the spring meet has made several people hurry through lunch to practice. The relay teams are being swamped with candidates, and touchdown-passball and hitball are progressing rapidly. The volley-ball squad, under the direction of Miss Bryan, is eagerly trying for positions on the team. More than fifty girls are trying for their silver badges, about twenty-five for the gold badges, and about twenty for gold bars. The track team practices every afternoon as well as between times. If good weather returns for good, C. H. S. is going to do things at Rally Day.

The eighth graders are still cooking and serving breakfasts that make one's mouth water to think about. The hostesses in the 8B section were Harriett Silcox and Marcia Earle, and in the 8A section, Dorothy George and Yetta Gordon. The 8A section had two visitors from the college at their breakfast. A few of the Sophomores have completed five articles in sewing class as well as keeping up their notebook work. The 9A Home Economics Club met this week. After a short business meeting the following program was given:

The Life, Customs, and Dress of the Spanish Girl—Janet Briggs.

Poem, "The Cellar Tragedy"—Helen Coleman.

Proper Shoes for School—Barbara Bigelow, Louise Clarke, Frances Atwell.

R Reading from poem, "Next to Godliness"——Freida Dorf.

Proper Dresses for School—Eleanor Barwick, Betty Coleman, Lucille Fellows.

Selection, "How to Preserve Children"—Marian Aldridge.

Spelling Bee.

The Juniors are sewing steadily. The course on Home Nursing has been completed, with the exception of the final test. Last Monday Bill McCullough and Billy Deringer gave them a demonstration of bandaging and artificial respiration. The remainder of the time the Seniors expect to devote to sewing.

STILL POND

Mrs. Thomas Mann and daughters spent this week with her sister at Easton, Md.

Drink Yerbavida

AND YOU'LL

Hop Out of Bed "Rarin' to Go"

If you have lost your pep, feel tired all the time, and hate to get up in the morning, don't take a dose of salts, mineral oil or laxative and expect it to pep you up and make you young again, because it won't do it.

Yerbavida is produced from plants growing wild on the American desert. It contains no drugs of any kind. In fact, no ingredients of any nature have been added to it. When brewed into a tea according to instructions, it becomes a delicious, satisfying beverage which has been found to accomplish wonders in cases of glandular troubles and also poisonous acidity.

G. M. B., of Los Angeles, California, writes; "From the very first day of using Yerbavida I felt an increase in vitality, and in a few days all signs of indigestion with which I had been suffering for years had disappeared. But the greatest benefit of all is that I am no longer constipated, for which I am more grateful than I can tell, as I have had to resort to every kind and sort of pill and cathartic for years and have never received permanent relief from anything."

Yerbavida is inexpensive too. A large package, enough for 240 cups, can be obtained for only $1.00. If your local druggist cannot supply you, accept no substitute but send $1.00 direct to Yerbavida Sales Co., 612 Southwest Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif. Or a 26-page book "The Story of Yerbavida" free on request.

Lessening Sadness

Is the First Duty of the Funeral Director

My excellent system of arranging the details or each and every funeral entrusted to my care leaves with those upon whom I wait, a feeling of confidence and satisfaction that the last offices were performed with such perfect harmony as to greatly lessen the sadness connected with such an event
