IN MEMORIUM

In loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother who departed this life 1 year ago May 23, 1932. Eliza Ann Ashley.

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent the voice we loved to hear,
'Tis sad but true, we wonder why,
The best are alway's first to die.

It is so lonesome without you,
So sad and weary the way,
So life is not the same to us,
Since you were taken away.

Rest on, dear mother, thy labor o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more,
A faithful mother, both true and kind
A truer mother you could never find.

For all of us she did her best
God grant her eternal rest.
And while she lies in peaceful sleep,
Her memory we shall always keep.
By her loving husband and children.

—Frederick Richardson, colored, delivery boy for Hadaway Bros., was drowned in Chester River Sunday. His body was found Monday afternoon.

FIRE CO. SUED

TRIAL STARTED IN EASTON FRIDAY

The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company was the defendant in a suit for $500, brought by Mr. W. W. Story, of Stevensville.

The suit is the result of an accident at Bordley's corner in 1931 when Number 1 fire truck and the automobile owned and driven by Mr. Story crashed.

The firemen were answering a call to the Tri-State Yacht club and left the fire house to go north on High street. As the truck was rounding Bordley's corner, an automobile, owned by Mr. W. W. Story, in which he and his wife were riding, was going down High street and hit the side of the truck as it rounded the corner. Firemen, riding on the side of the truck, were compelled to jump to avoid being caught between the two machines. No one was hurt in the accident. Both the truck and automobile were damaged, the truck being unable to answer the call and the club house was destroyed.

A number of witnesses who saw the accident and firemen who were on the truck are testifying in the case.

WASHINGTON LOSES TO MD.

Ekiatis Wins First Bout

In what was correctly termed the best baseball game of the season at College Park, Washington College lost to the University of Maryland on Wednesday by the score of 7 to 2. The game was not near as one sided as the score indicates as up until the beginning of the 6th inning the score was tie at 1 to 1. Maryland scored in the 6th to gain a one run margin which held until the 8th inning when the Old Liners scored five runs. Washington scored its second run in the ninth when Tigor hit a home run against Maryland's substitute pitcher.

The night game, scheduled against George Washington University Wednesday night to be played under arc lights, was postponed on account of rain.

Ekaitis Wins First Bout

George Ekaitis won his first fight in the professional ring last Friday night when he knocked out his Philadelphia heavyweight rival Frank Susky in 30 seconds after the gong sounded. Ekaitis stated that there was nothing to the report that Susky took a "Swan Dive," because the knockout blow was the hardest blow he has ever delivered in his life. It is generally conceded that Susky was not in condition for the fight.

Rock Hall Defeats Wilmington

Home runs by Fitzgerald, Archibald and Oliffe, together with four safe hits by J. Williams turned a base ball game into a track meet at Rock Hall last Saturday when that team defeated the 12th Ward nine of Wilmington 12 to 3. Bradley for Rock Hall held the visitors to five hits while his team rolled up a total of 15. A double header between these two teams has been scheduled for Decoration Day.

Washington Loss To Delaware

Washington College lost a close game to University of Delaware last Saturday by the margin of one run, although the locals got 9 hits as compared to Delaware's 7.

Delaware took an early lead by getting 2 runs in each of the 2nd and 3rd innings. Washingto got 3 runs in the 6th ining and one in the seventh but were not able to overcome Delaware's lead. Costly errors attributed to Washington's defeat.

Lynch's Station broke into the base ball racket last Saturday when they defeated Still Pond. The gam ewas featured by the come back of old timers which have not played ball for the past twenty years.

Chestertown Defeats Sudlersville

Chestertown upheld its undefeated record last Saturday when that team defeated Sudlersville 15 to 8. The locals were credited with 22 hits as against Sudlersville's 11.

FARM MORTGAGE RELIEF

PROVISIONS OF FEDERAL FARM AID BILL

A brief outline of the various means of easing the farm mortgage situation as provided in the new law just passed by Congress and signed by President Roosevelt follows:

(1) Reducing the interest rates on Federal Land Bank loans, setting the pace for others in the farm mortgage loan business.

(2) Temporarily waiving the requirement of payment on principal.

(3) Continuance of extensions on Federal Land Bank loans where desirable and necessary.

(4) Providing Federal Land Bank bonds for exchange or purchase for first farm mortgages.

(5) Providing funds for refinancing farmers' debts.

(6) Sharply curtailing the volume of foreclosures.

(7) Providing loans to Joint Stock Land Banks to facilitate their orderly liquidation. They will make no more loans nor issue more bonds as in the past.

According to a recent statement by Charles S. Jackson, Pres. of the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore, the reduced interest rate becomes effective sixty days after the bill was signed or early in July. It will effect 400,000 farmers and will save them eleven millions of dollars annually in interest. The new interest rate of 4 1-2 per cent. applies to old loans for the next five years and to the new loans made during the next two years.

Federal Land Bank borrowers whose loans are in good standing (interest, taxes and insurance) will not be required to pay the instaliments on the principal of their loans during the five (5) year period mentioned (1933-38.)

Loans made by the Federal Land Banks may not exceed 50 per cent. of the appraised normal value of the land for agricultural purposes plus 20 per cent. of the insured improvements.

Federal Land Bank Bonds exchanged for first mortgages cannot be in excess of this amount or the amount of the mortgage offered in exchange, which ever is the small, when such exchange is made the farmer pays the bank on the basis of the face value of the bonds exchanged and the loan is amortized over a long period at 4 1-2 per cent. interest. Each borrower to purchase capital stock to the extent to 5 per cent. of the new loan in the local Federal Farm Loan Association or the Bank.

In many cases the amount of first mortgages will have to be reduced before they can be exchanged for the bonds. The Federal Land Banks may also purchase such mortgages.

Separate and distinct from the Federal Land Bank loans, the Farm Loan Commissioner of the new Farm Credit Administration, through his agent lo-

PICTURE SNATCHER

James (Jimmy to his friends) Cagney is perhaps the screen's champion lady smacker. He rarely winds up a picture without punching some fair damsel in the jaw, slapping her, bashing a grapefruit in her face or otherwise mauling and roughhousing her.

He has had many leading ladies in his screen career, most of whom have felt his contempt expressed by means of a fist, a foot or some projectile. These include Joan Blondell, Loretta Young, Evalyn Knapp, Mae Clark, Jean Harlow, Marion Nixon, Virginia Bruce, Ann Dvorak and Mary Brian.

But at last Jimmy has one leading lady whom he not only does not smack, but treats with tenderness and the utmost consideration. She is Patricia Ellis, who plays opposite Jimmy in the Warner Bros. production, "Picture Snatcher," which comes to the New Lyceum Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, May 29 and 30.

Patricia does not lend herself to the type that is bashed. She is young with a wistful, almost fragile charm that none can associate with being cracked on the jaw. She arouses the protective instinct in the rough and ready male, and Jimmy awards it to her in "Picture Snatcher."

Not that Jimmy has gone soft. He is plenty tough in this screen role in which he plays the part of a young jail bird who is trying to go straight through the somewhat innocuous (to him) occupation of stealing pictures for a sensation seeking tabloid. And while he is plenty polite to Patricia, he cracks Alice White, a flirtatious sob sister, smack in the eye with a ping pong ball. Dumps her unceremoniously on the floor from a couch and maltreats two other beautiful girls.

So you see the same hard boiled Jimmy with just a new touch of tenderness for one of the fairer and frailer sex. Others in the cast include [illegible]llamy, Ralf Harolde, Robert Connor and George Pat[illegible] screen play by All[illegible]. J.
