INFLATION

"What I want," said the farmer, "is inflation of the kind that will raise the prices of the crops that I sell but will have no effect on the price of clothing or arm machinery."

"What I want," said the merchant, "is inflation of the kind that will raise the prices of the goods that I have for sale but will have no effect on rent or other items of overhead."

"What I want," said the manufacturer, "is inflation of the kind that will raise the price on my finished goods but will have no effect on wages or the cost of raw materials."

"What we want," said everybody at once, "is inflation of the kind that will blow up our own balloons but will leave the other fellow's just the same size as before."

YACHT DINNER HELD FRIDAY

Regatta Plans Are Discussed

Neal Truslow Names Committees

Nearly one hundred yachting enthusiasts, their friends and guests, participated in the annual Yachtsmen's Dinner at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club last Friday evening, during the course of which, Neal Truslow, chairman of the 1933 Regatta Committee, outlined plans for the annual regatta of the local club, which will be held on July 28 and 29.

Simon W. Westcott was toastmaster at the dinner and the speaking list included: Commodore W. B. Scott, of the Miles River Yacht Club; Dan Henry and E. P. Buck, of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club; Col. Hiram S. Brown, Philip G. Wilmer, Edward W. Emory, R. Hynson Rogers and I. Price Ewing. One of the features of the dinner was the serving of terrapin, caught in the lake at the local club.

Mr. Truslow, in announcing regatta plans, has made public the committees which will have charge of the meet this year. They are:

RACE COMMITTEE—Stephen R. Collins, chairman; J. Thomas Kibler, H. T. Hartman, M. deK. Smith, Tilghman Moyer and James W. Johns.

FINANCE—Ernest H. Strong, chairman; and H. T. Hartman.

PATROL—Claude E. Truslow, Medford Brooks and William Collins.

COURSE—R. H. Rogers and E. Scott Thompson.

PUBLICITY AND PRESS—Harry S. Russell, chairman; R. H. Collins, Jr., and W. Dorsey Hines.

TROPHY—Philip G. Wilmer, chairman, and J. P. Corcoran.

WHARF—Eben F. Perkins, chairman, and I. Price Ewing.

RECEPTION AND DANCE—Jas. G. Beck, chairman, and Simon W. Westcott.

Plans for the two-day regatta call for the first day's races to be held off the Corsica river. Events there will include a Log Sailing Canoe race, an International Star Class event, a sailing handicap race to anchorage at Chestertown and a similar event for motor crafts.

The second day's races, off Chestertown, will include a Log Canoe handicap, a small sail boat championship, an unlimited outboard event, a race for 110 H. P. runabouts, a free-for-all sailing race, a 110 H. P. stock runabout for ladies and an unlimited event for speed boats.
