Reese, near Chestertown, aged 88 years. She is survived by the following children, Mr. R. Nelson Stevens, Frank E. Stevens, Mrs. Alexander Dodd, Mrs. Charles L. Miller, Mrs. H. D. Reese and Mrs. H. C. Stavely.

Funeral services were held on Thursday from the home of her daughter, Mrs H. D. Reese at 3 p. m., the officiating ministers being Dr. A. Norman Ward, President of Western Maryland College and Rev. J. Lee Marker, pastor of St. James M. P. Church. Interment was made in Wesley Chapel cemetery.

The bearers were six grandsons, Messrs. David J. Stevens, William S. Miller, H. Chaplain Stavely Walter H. Reese, H. Dale Reese, Jr., and Robert N. Stevens. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

THE FRUIT OF ENDURANCE

When a worried-looking man applied for settlement of a claim for fire insurance, the agent asked: "Much damage?"

"Not much," the man said; "just a door."

"How much would a new door cost?"

"About $5."

"When did the fire happen?"

The man hesitated a moment, and then replied: "About thirty years ago."

"Thirty years ago?"

"Yes."

"And you've waited all these years to report it?"

"Yes."

"How did that happen?"

"Well," said the man, "my wife has been at me to do something about that door ever since it was burned, and I couldn't stand it any longer."—Idaho Farmer.

Easy for Him

The jealous wife of a theatrical manager was peeved when he came home and announced that he had that day selected from a big crowd 24 wonderful chorus girls.

"I suppose," she declared, sarcastically, "it was very difficult work for you?"

"Oh, no, dear," he told her. "Simply a matter of form."—Stray Stories Magazine.

BACK UP!

Judge—Are you sure that he was flat on his back after the accused hit him?

Witness—Well, as near as he could be, considering how round-shouldered he is.

Social Progress

"Has your boy Josh made any distinguished acquaintances since he went to the city?"

"Well," replied Farmer Corntossel, "he knows all the big movie actors by name, though I don't know whether he's acquainted with any of them personally."
