THE SQUADRON'S LOG

BY THE STOWAWAY

"Our Broaduast" announces that Mr. Ernest Strong, Treasurer of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club corrects the Stowaway for mentioning that the club was "having a hard time to balance its budget." The budget is balanced and the club in good shape financially. Splendid.

As the name implies, the Stowaway can know only what is common gossip. A great many unpleasant, untrue and sometimes malicious things are frequently spread about by word of mouth. Until they appear in print nobody does anything about them.

Be it understood, right here and now, that the Stowaway repeats only what has been said or can be seen around this community.

If any person does not wish a statement repeated in print, the statement should not be spoken.

As for the Chester River Yacht and Country Club, its members should be wary of gossip damaging to itself.

The Club fills a long felt need in the community and is an asset in every way. Those who conceived it and brought it into being have created a lasting benefit for their neighbors.

Those who carry the club on and derive benefits from it should be loyal enough to refrain from making slurring remarks.

If the Stowaway's reported gossip brings this evil into the open by focusing the spot light of publicity upon it, it will be recognized and eradicated.

The Club like a person is accepted at the standard by which it values itself.

It is what you say and what you do that creates the news in your local newspapers.

It is rumored that five new members have been added to the club, four of them newcomers to Kent and Queen Anne counties.

Talbot county, too, has many new residens his year. Comparatively few waterfront properites are available in this locality. Unless those who contemplate moving to the Eastern Shore buy quickly, their chances will be poor, indeed, to be able to secure property later.

The saturation point is not far off for waterfront properties in Kent and Queen Anne Counties.

The younger members of the club and the community are making their presences felt. Thursday afternoon, July 27, the day prior ot the Chester River regatta, a swimming meet will be held from the Club pier.

Of course everyone knows that the water carnival originated with Bill Usilton and his sister, Nancy Jean. It will be held under the auspices of the Club.

There has been a great deal of bathing actively around the Club pier this season.

Diving and swimming has been really fine, much of it. It appears as though the carnival will be well worth going to see even if one is not able to compete.

Judging from the way a dozen or more very young would be swimmers kick and clap and scramble around under Nancy Jean Usilton's instruction twice a week, it is probable that this year's swimming meet will become an annual feature of the regatta season.

A local squadronate not long ago received an invitation by mail (some folks might call it an advertisement) to buy a sea-going yacht moderately priced for quick sale at $90,000.

Rumor has it, that he replied, "I cannot buy the yacht, but I thank you for the compliment."

STILL POND

TheStandard Bearers had a very jolly picnic on Tuesday afternoon and evening, at Bernard's all enjoyed the pleasant ride in Mr. Charles Clark's bus, the delightful bathing and last, but not least, the wienie roast at supper time.

The Little Light Bearers had their party on Monday afternoon at Mrs. Medders'. It was as much enjoyment to those who entertained as to the tiny guests.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are very proud and delighted with the appearance of their hall. It has a new coat of paint inside and outside with much thanks and appreciation to the faithful members who have made this possible. Work, time and money were needed and all were cheerfully supplied.

Master Walker Lamb is visiting his grandmother in Morgnec.

Mrs. L. H. Smith and iWlson Norris have returned after spending a few days in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pie Steele are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby girl. We trust that Mother and Baby will continue to improve rapidly.

THE AUTOMOBILE

An auto is the finest thing that any man can own,
If you'er entirely out of debt and own a little home ;
If you've a job that's paying well and money tucked away,
Then take your auto bus and go spin on your merry way.

An auto is the finest thing that any man can own,
The smoothest thing that man e'er traveled in beneath the moon ;
And O the joy that fills your soul when on some pleasure bent,
You meet the business men of town and owe them not a cent.

An auto is the finest thing that any man can own,
It he can buy his gasoline and groceries for his home ;
If he can pay the butcher and the baker every day,
And all the other little bills a family man should pay.

But if to have an auto you have gathered every bone,
And borrowed money on your life and mortgage on your home,
And owe for wood and coal and food you've purchased in the mart,
Your auto is a Jonah bus and sure will break your heart.

O why will men be foolish and barter all that's dear,
For transient things that perish, although they promise cheer,
Who in pursuit of happiness lose all that makes for peace,
And in old age the burdens press until this life shall cease.

RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, It has pleased an allwise Province to remove from our midst the soul of Ellsworth C. Bowers, for more than sixteen years a most valuable member of our Board of Directors, and

Whereas, The service rendered by him was of inestimable value to the best interests of this institution, which prompted him even in the days of his illness to meet with our board for the transaction of the business of the Bank, which was one of his most cherished privileges, and to the interests of which he gave unstintedly of his time and energy at all times, therefore

Be it Resolved, That his associates unreservedly express our very highest regard for the untiring efforts which he exerted in behalf of the financial interest of this Bank, for the real and lasting friendships which he made for the institution, and for the kindly influence which he exerted in his deliberations around the board table. And be it further

Resolved, that the members of the Board of Directors express to his relatives our deep sorrow because of his death and assure them that we shall ever remember the consideration which he always manifested toward his fellowmen in all walks of life, and his genuine worth as a member of this board. It is hereby directed that a copy of these resolutions be made a part of the minutes of this board, that they be published in the county press, and a copy sent to the members of his family.

WILLIAM S. COLLINS

Well here is someone that does not seem to be on Jupiter's side of the argument and thinks Southern Maryland is a little behind the times.

La Plata, Maryland
July 17, 1933

Mr. W. S. Collins,
Chestertown, Maryland

Dear Sir:

I read what you wrote about the crime in Charles County. I think I can explain why the negro was saved from violence. Even a mob moves slowly in Southern Maryland. Two crowds of people in Charles County collected separately and tried to find their way to the La Plata jail. Very few of these men know where La Plata was, and besides the awful hard rain had caused such a growth of weeds as to hide all the trails leading to La Plata. Chiggers, danger of tick fever, and falling weather, made it hard to walk far from home. Nature and the elements were what saved Jupiter's hide.

Yours truly,
A SUBSCRIBER

Bernard Ades has started work on the Jupiter case. This will probably be hard on the treasury of Charles County. Ades in defending Yuell Lee has cost Worcester County over six thousand dollars we will say, but some say the cost is about ten thousand, and the case is not finished yet.

The big rumpus in the Yuell Lee case is, that negroes were not given a square deal on the jury. In Southern Maryland it is the custom to have negroes on the jury and also for them to hold county jobs. So we will have to wait to see what kind of a defense Ades will use.

And to the subscriber that wrote the letter and seems disappointed that Jupiter's hide was saved, we will say that there is a possibility that it was better he was not lynched.

In Massachussetts they refused to send a negro chauffeur, who is accussed of killing the white woman, who employed him, and also her white maid, back to the state of Virginia for trial. Their excuse s that negroes do not serve on juries in Virginia and their "Yankee sense" of justice demands that they set him free.

This "Yankee Sense" of how the south shall live is going to play havoc with a lynching party. The "Yankee Sense" has said for a long number of years that the south has no right to discriminate against negroes or segragate them in schools, marriages, courts or any public business place and for a short period after the civil war they carried out with armed troops, their idea of "Yankee Sense" in the South. THANK THE HEAVENS THE SOUTH STILL HAS ITS OWN IDEA OF SENSE. But, a lynching around these parts is likely to lead to a federal investigation and some of the members of the lynching party being arrested and serving long jail terms. At Salisbury they were lucky in having nothing but a state investigation. A federal investigation would cause a lot more trouble.

It is a lot of injustice and it is hard for us to stand Ades with communist ideas and northern officials with "Yankee Sense," but the time has now come as never before, when it is dangerous to take part in lynching parties.

Well, the Kent County "Drys" had their meeting and we read in the stock market reports a day or so later, that distillery stocks have dropped twenty to thirty points. Mr. Herbert Perkins says that if the Kent County meeting caused it they are liable to sag a couple of more points because they did a little more work Wednesday night. Yes sir, putting Kent County on the map again.

One thing about the dry committee we can say, is that they are a sincere crowd and there is no chance of calling them hypocrits. However, we would like to see them pick some young workers. It would be interesting to see what young workers they would get.

Some weeks ago, in a strictly news article, Mr. Raymond Horney, of Centreville was endorsed by the Kent County Republicans to run in the Queen Annes Democratic Primary for State Senator from Queen Annes. He was to oppose the Roe Faction. Well the rumor is that if there is a fight, the Anti-Roe organization will offer their support to ex-Supt. of Schools for Queen Annes, Mr. Bennett. They are hoping Mr. Bennet will accept, so the report goes. Mr. Bennett, however, has received an appointment in Washington.

KNEW HER BIBLE

"So you attend Sunday school regularly?" said the minister to little Eve.

"Oh, yes, sir."

"And you know your Bible?"

"Oh, yes, sir."

"Could you tell me something that is in it?"

"I could tell you everything that's in it."

"Indeed!" and the minister smiled.

"Sister's young man's photograph is in it," said Eve, promptly, "and mother's recipe for face cream is in it, and a lock of my hair cut off when I was a baby is in it, and the ticket for dad's watch is in it."—Tit-Bits Magazine.
