MERCHANTS ADOPT N. R. A. CODE

At a meeting of the Chestertown Mercantile Section of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce, held on Monday of this week, twelve merchants of Chestertown agreed to govern their business in accordance with the N.R.A. Code which includes wages and hours of labor. This is independant of the grocery stores which have submitted their code under the National Retail Grocers Association.

The following merchants, who have signed the code and will close their stores at 6 p. m. except on Satuurdays when they will be opened until 11 p. m., are:

John Bartley & Son, B. L. Bonnett, Bordley & Son, Fox's 5c to $1 Store, Margaret E. Jefferson, J. S. Kreeger, W. P. Newnam, Noland, Oriole Shoe Store, Jones & Satterfield, A. L. Sparks, Albert L. Wheat.

The agreement as made by these merchants is in an effort to cooperate with the Federal program to fight depression.

The grocery stores, according to their code, will close at 6 p. m. except on Saturdays when the stores will be opened until 10 p. m.

DO YOU KNOW THAT:

Do you know that the Queen Annes and Kent County Railroad had its origin (quoting from Emory's History of Queen Anne's County) in an act of Legislature, passed in 1856 to incorporate the road and named Pere Wilmer, James T. Earle, John B. Thomas, William H. Jacobs, Stephen J.Bradley, Samuel S. Harrison, George B. Westcott, George Vickers, Abel J. Rees, William S. Skirven, William F. Smith and Caleb W. Spry as commissioners to open book for subscriptions for stock. Capital stock was to total $300,000, $25 per share.

The route authorized was from Centreville, or from any other other point in Queen Anne's County, or any other point that might be thought advisable, through Kent County to Fredericktown in Cecil County to connect with the Sassafras River Railroad, about being constructed, or to Elkton to connect with the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore, or to the Delaware line to connect with the Delaware Railroad branches.

Baltimore and Maryland had been caught "asleep at the switch" and Philadelphia capital clinched its economic grip upon the future of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, the city and State having refused to sponsor the necessary capital, left the way open for Philadelphia interests to initiate and complete the route of the new enterprise in favor of Philadelphia instead of Baltimore.

DO YOU KNOW THAT:

The present firefighting service, which means so much to Kent County, had its inception in the act presented to the General Assembly of Maryland in 1753. This act provided that:

"Whereas sundry persons, inhabitants and owners of lots in Chester Town in Kent County, have sent, that there have been at several times several Dwelling Hoses and other valuable buildings been destroyed by Fire, which would not have been the case if they had had a fire engine; therefore they prayed that an Act be passed to oblige the owners and possessors of the lots or parts of lots of the same Town xxx to pay the sum of twenty shillings for every such lot." The act further provides that the sum of Five Pounds be levied on the taxable inhabitants of the county for the purpose aforesaid. It was also provided that the Fire Engine with the necessary appurtenances be acquired and "shall cause a House to be built wherein to keep the same, from the weather and that the key to the house be put in the possession of some person living near such house." Messrs. Bedingfield Hands, Thomas Ringgold and Joseph Nicholson, of Chester Town, were appointed and constituted Commissioners for raising necessary funds.

BIDS ON PAINTING

Bids on reglazing all the windows in the Worton school building, painting the outside of said building and the new unit of outbuildings with two coats of paint, and coating with filler and two coats of best varnish the inside of the window sash and window casings will be opened by the Board of Education of Kent County at its meeting to be called at 10.00 a. m. on in the office of the Board on the first floor of the Elementary school building, Chestertown, Maryland.

The paint on which bids are made must contain no oil other than PURE LINSEED OIL and no lead other than LEWIS' or BUCK'S WHITE LEAD or lead of a quality equal to either of these two. The colors for the outside of the buildings are a light shade of Pearl Gray for the body of the buildings and White for the trim. The filler and varnish finish on the inside of the window sash and casings is to be the same shade as that on the inside woodwork at present.

The paint on which bids are made must be named in the bids.

All surfaces where there is any of the old paint are to be scraped and two good coats of paint applied. Reglazing is to include removal of all putty except that which is very tight, replacement of all panes that are broken out or cracked, putting in at least eight glazing points around each window pane, and the application of a heavy coat of thin paint on the mullions before the new putty is applied.

The successful bidder is to furnish all material, equipment and labor. He must do a neat and thorough job and complete it on or before September 2, 1933.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of Board of Education of Kent County,
Louis C. Robinson, Secretary.
