FIREMEN PLAN FOR CARNIVAL

Plans were practically completed on Monday evening for the greatest Community Festival ever to be staged by the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company. Opening on Friday, September 1 and ending on Monday, September 11, the carnival will run for nine full and eventful nights.

As the opening night feature the committee in charge of the program has scheduled a musicale by the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company Band, an organization that has made a great reputation throughout the Eatsern Shore.

Saturday, September 2, has been designated as Children's Night. Free tickets will be presented to all children under 11 years which will entitle them to a chance in the prize drawing at 11 P. M.

The comic parade which has been one of the high spots of the local firemen's fetes for the past several years will be revived on Monday, September 4th, with suitable prizes for winners.

A new feature and one that is expected to be one of the biggest of a series of outstanding events is the Baby Show set for Tuesday, September 5. Prizes will be awarded for the prettiest, the healthiest and the cutest baby and souvenirs will be given each baby entrant under two years of age. Public health officials will be in charge of the contest.

A mass band concert by Elementary School Bands from counties all over the Eastern Shore has tentatively been set for Wednesday, September 6th.

Thursday, September 7th, will be Firemen's Night with its mammoth parade of fire equipment, many bands and hundreds of volunteer fire fighters. Three gold prizes will be awarded to participants in the parade.

American Legion Night is tentatively set for Friday, September 8th, when bugle and drum corps from various Legion posts will drill for prizes.

Saturday, September 9, will be Farmer's Night. Two prizes will be awarded, one to the largest family in attendance and one to the family coming the longest distance.

The festival will close on Monday, September 11th, with the grand drawing for the major prizes, a Pontiac coach, an automobile radio and furniture.

Free gate prizes will be given each evening.

Rock Hall Firemen
Donation Week
AUGUST 14th, 1933

During the week of August 14th every home in the 5th district will be called on by Firemen and asked for donation of $1.00 to defray the expense of the Fire Company for the year 1933.

Everyone donating will be given a booster card to display on their house.

We have taken this way or raising money for the Fire Company, rather than hold a carnival, as our Company felt it would be too much of a burden on our community to hold same this year.
