N.R.A MEETING MONDAY

COMPLIANCE BOARD TO MEET IN CHESTERTOWN MONDAY

AMERICAN LEGION HEADQUARTERS MEETING PLACE

The six members of the compliance board of the N. R. A. committee for Kent County will meet at the American Legion headquarters in Chestertown on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at which time a permanent chairman will be elected.

Members of the Compliance Board are as follows:

Employee in Industry, Mr. W. E. Duyer, of Lynch, Md., employee of the firm of A. N. Stavely and Son.

Employee in Retail and Wholesale, Mr. Ernest Horsey, of Betterton, Md. Employee of the firm of Turner & Son.

Employer in Industry, Mr. Purnell Elburn manager of the Rock Hall Manufacturing Co., of Rock Hall.

Employer in Retail and Wholesale, Mr. Everett Lambden, manager of the E. S. Adkins Lumber Co., of Chestertown.

Representative of consumer Mrs. Mary O. Morris of near Chestertown.

Lawyer representative is Stephen R. Collins, of Chestertown, who is also pro-tem chairman of this committee.

The permanent chairman will be elected Monday afternoon and he will be the seventh member of the committee. The permanent chairman must be free from any connection, political, financial or otherwise, which would cast any doubt on the impartiality of his decision. It is suggested that retired leaders of commercial or professional life be considered for this nomination. None of the present board are eligible for this chairmanship.

The duties of the Compliance Board is to hear all complaints from people in Kent County about firms displaying the "Blue Eagle" and not living up to it. Complaints are turned over to State Headquarters and they in turn send them to Washington. No local person can force a firm to take down the "Blue Eagle."

Mr. Hamill from State Headquarters spoke in Kent County this week and will be back in Kent County the latter part of next week.

The N. R. A. committee requests all business firs to sign the blanket code if their own particular codes have not been settled. Anybody in doubt about the codes should see Dr. Meade, president of Washington College who will explain the interpretation of the code.

The First National Bank

—OF—

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

ALL THE STOCK of the First National Bank of Chestertown, Maryland, has been subscribed and paid for. This new bank will not have any Bills Payable and will not have a dollar borrowed.

The Application for a Charter for the First National Bank has been made and approved by Washington Authorities.

The only reason that the First National Bank can not open its doors immediately for business, is because of the winding up of certain legal or technical matters of the old Third National Bank with the authorities at Washington and Richmon

There is no reason why the affairs of the Third National Bank should not be wound up satisfactorily in a very short time, and this will permit the First National Bank to open.

The New Board of Directors consists of the old board,

THOMAS D. BOWERS
P. MEDFORD BROOKS
W. B. COPPER
S. J. JOHNSON
G. ELLSWORTH LEARY
WALTER U. LUSBY
H. STOCKTON STARTT
ANDREW W. WILSON

and two additional members,
