FINED TWO OVERCOATS

When one puts an overcoat in "Hock" in June it is not news but whe two citziens of Kennedyville put their overcoats in "Hock" in October it is news, especially when the broker is the Delaware State Police.

Such was the windup of a trip to Philadelphia this week when five young men went to see a midnight show. On the return the police decided that they were going $13 too fast and there being only $11 in the crowd, the police kept two overcoats to meet the difference.

W. J. STENGER GOLF CHAMP

W. J. Stenger won the championship golf tournament last Sunday when he defeated H. S. Russell in the 36 hole finals, 4 up and 3 to play.

The match was interesting until the last nine holes when the champ held a substantial lead. The first nine holes ended all even. The second nine ende d3 up for the champ which lead he held throughout the match.

Chestertown gets a big break next week in having the State W. C. T. U. convention. No doubt the attendance will be large and this will be a business asset to Chestertown. Conventions generally mean good news to the grocer.

Just what the attitude toward the beer signs will be is a question, but no doubt the beer signs will be of no advantage to those displaying them as far as the visitors are concerned.

The policy of this column has been wet. In kidding or rather trying to kid Dr. Clark, some people took the matter seriously. Dr. Clark did so himself.

Below is an anonymous letter which was recived this week. The letter was traced and was found to have come from the dry headquarters for Kent County. It must be a joke. Pinned to the letter is a white ribbon on which is printed in blue "Maryland W. C. T. U. 1933 Chestertown."

Dear "Dippy":

We were thoroughly convinced by the article you wrote in condemnation of Doc. E. J. Clarke, that you are on our side (Cheers, hoorays!), and we want to welcome you with open arms, and clenched fists, to our annual State Convention which will convene in Chestertown on October 12th.

Despite all that people say, and we mean some of our own little group who snoop about the county's resorts peeping in windows, we know that you are really with us in this fight to purge the world of the forces of iniquity. The present hysterical wave toward repeal means nothing to us; we are already building our group to put the law right back in there again when people get out of this mood of opposing any and everything that is put before them.

All praise to our bishop, the renowned Shotgun. Glory and long life to those who look not upon the cup and the wine when it is red! Wear this ribbon, Curbstoner, and tell the world you are fearless, and ready to stand with this little dauntless band who know not the word, "DEFEAT!"

ARID

After urging and trying to educate the people of Chestertown on the mater of sanitation, which proved a failure, the State Board of Health was forced to order Chestertown to build a disposal plant. It is embarrassing to think we were forced in the matter of sanitation. The worst of it however is the fact that some citizens intend to fight the order. Water tests have proved the river unfit for swimming, the sale of Maryland sea-food in other states threatened and residents of the waterfront advised by city doctors to try to have river cleaned up, have made little impression on many of our citizens.

Let us take a look at the situation in Centreville, our neighbor, which is hardly up to Chestertown in progressiveness. Centreville's residential section is not on the water front. The following are quotations taken from the Centreville newspapers:

"Citizens Approve Bid For Sewage Disposal Fund." "Muncipal Taxpayers Indicate Strong Sentiment in Favor of a Sewage Disposal Plant."

"Cost of plant expected to exceed $30,000.

"At a meeting at the Court House Monday evening, a group of citizens representing the taxpayers of Centreville, after hearing plans and purposes for construction of a sewage disposal plant, gave to the subject their unanimous endorsement and recommended to the commissioners that an application for Federal funds under the provision of the National Industrial Recovery Act, be made at once.

"An application for a loan to do this work does not necessarily mean the project as such has been approved. The city commission, with the application approved, can reject the whole thing if it so desires. However, with the sentiment so overwhelmingly in favor of such a plant, both for the sake of public health and public decency, it is believed that once the application for loan is approved the commissioners will ask for bids on the project and begin the construction as soon thereafter as possible.

"In taking the initiative in the matter the commissioners stated that they felt it might be wise to act now with the aid of federal funds at low interest rate, rather than in a few years to be forced to take such action by the State Health Department with the entire cost resting upon the local taxpayers with interest at much higher rates. It was pointed out in the discussion that Chestertown, with a sewage problem almost indentical with that of Centreville, had recently been required by the State Department of Health to install a disposal plant and that it was natural to expect that such a requirement would eventually be made of this community.

"It is the current opinion that once this is begun the commissioners will not hesitate to continue this progressive and necessary community enterprise."

Centreville's condition is not as bad as that of Chestertown.

Mary Jane Clough, Infant.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 2844

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled cause is to procure a Decree for the sale of the real estate of Matthew A. Clough, deceased, for the payment of his debts which remain unsatisfied by the application of the proceeds from his personal estate.

The Bill states:

1. That Matthew A. Clough departed this life intestate on or about the eighteenth day of July, 1931, survived by his wife, Esther M. Clough, and the following infant children: Marshall Clough, age about thirteen years; Henry Clough, infant, age about ten years; Sylvia E. Clough, infant, age about four years; Mary Jane Clough, infant, now about eighteen months of age, who was born about three months after the death of the said Matthew A. Clough, being the child of the said Matthew A. Clough; and all of the above are the heirs of the said Matthew A. Clough.

2. That the said Matthew A. Clough owned at the time of his death a property located in Millington, Maryland, a description of which is as follows: All that lot of land and premises situate, lying and being in the town of Millington, Kent County, aforesaid, and described as follows, that is to say: Beginning for the same on the East side of Crane Street at a point two hundred feet from the South side of a fourteen foot lane between the lands of Jonathan G. Moore and E. A. Wilson and running thence with the said street to Edward W. Spear's Mill Race; thence with said Mill Race to the lands of J. C. Moore and Leonard Wilson, thence with the lands of said Wilson 150 feet to the place of beginning, being the same property conveyed to the said Matthew A. Clough by the Millington Building and Loan Association by deed dated May 23, 1916 and recorded among the Land Records for Kent County, Maryland, in Liber A. P. R. No. 3, folio 447, etc.

3. That the said Matthew A. Clough at the time of his death was indebted to your Orator, Layton and Company, Incorporated, a body corporate, in the amount of four hundred twenty dollars and forty nine cents ($420.49), a copy of said bill being filed herewith and marked Exhibit "A" and as per Administration Account of the said Matthew A. Clough filed herewith and marked Exhibit "B," there was no money from his personal estate with which to pay the bill of your Orator, or any other bills presented against him.

4. That your Orator is credibly informed and believes that the personal estate of the said Matthew A. Clough is not sufficient to pay the just debts due and owing by the said intestate; and that any deficiency in said personal estate ought to be supplied by a sale of all of the real estate of the said Matthew A. Clough. That there was filed in the Orphan's Court for Kent County, Maryland, against the estate of the said Matthew A. Clough, the following bills:

Leonard Wilson	$ 18.30
Merritt Brice	24.14
Layton and Company	430.49
Paul Comegys	6.25
Emma A. Worthington	100.00

5. That Esther M. Clough, his wife, has been appointed Administratrix of the estate of Matthew A. Clough and has qualified and filed bond and stated an Administration Account in the Orphans' Court for Kent County, Marylad, that the said Esther M. Clough, Marshall Clough, Henry Clough, Sylvia E. Clough and Mary Jane Clough are non-residents of the State of Maryland and do not reside therein, that your Orator is informed that they now live at Clayton, Delaware.

It is thereupon, this 5th day of October, 1933, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of October next, give notice to the said Esther M. Clough, Marshall Clough, Henry Clough, Sylvia E. Clough and Mary Jane Clough, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person, or by Soilcitor, on or before the 14th day of November next, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Quality is the new "buy-word"

TODAY, there is a new vogue in buying. We're all doing our part to hasten recovery. Cheapness is black-listed by every shrewd shopper and "fair value" is the order of the day.

Quality is the new "buy-word." As a store which has upheld its quality standards through bad years as well as good, we have pledged our support to the national movement.

When you make a purchase here, you may do so with the assurance that it measures up in every respect to the standards of value you have a right to expect in a store like ours.
