THE LYNCHING OF a negro in Princess Anne Wednesday night is a regrettable affair in this age of so-called "height of civilization" yet it has the method of dealing with perpetrators of this crime in the central and southern sections of the United States for generations and has proved to be the most effective method of protecting defenseless woman. The legal technacalities which have delayed the carrying out of the sentence in the Euel Lee case which happened in that section of the Eastern Shore, were fresh in the minds of the mob and was an incentive to carry out their plan. The people of that section are a law-abiding, peace-loving people and their action Wednesday night was the carrying out of a tradition of generations past for the furtherence of the assurance that men and women may continue to live in rural sections without fear of molestation.

The Curbstone Diplomat

WILLIAM S. COLLINS

IF, Saturday dawns bright and clear, Chestertown will no doubt have the predicted record breaking crowd. It just like this; Metcalfe Bros. are planning to take the day off. Mr. James Metcalfe (allowed to be called Jimmy, by his very intimate friends) says, "A United States president only comes to Chestertown every one hundred and fifty years and I'll be (His state of "would be" is censored) if I am not going to take the day off and be on hand." And that is just the way a lot of us are going to do. The report comes that all the stores in Galena are going to close so they can all come down to see the President.

To feed, water and otherwise take care of the estimated crowd is going to be some job. The Bible tells a mirricle about a multitude being fed by a dozen loaves of bread and a few small fishes. The boys and girls in the feeding business here have layed in large supplies of food for the occasion and say bring on the crowd. Here is hoping they get it, more than they can handle.

The president is coming to a county that gave him a majority in the election and were it not for the fact that he was going to ride so fast going up High Street he could see that the business places were members of the N. R. A. and he could also see the Beer program was being ably supported. Another also, Kent County supported the president by going for repeal of the eighteenth amendment. All one hundred per centers hold up their hands.

Another neck-tie party on the lower Eastern Shore. Kent County is so far removed from the scene of the lynching that we are not concerned with it any more than any other part of the State.

Everyone is familiar with the events. Now the whole situation and argument seems to be who shall take he blame?

The daily press of our state and neighboring states continues to yell about the disgrace to the state and that two lynchings have taken place in the same locality in two years. In placing the blame there is one outfit that should not be overlooked and that is the daily press.

Two years ago this summer, the lower Eastern Shore of Maryland was living peacefully enough, no sign of mob actions or persecution of the negro race. To be sure certain Jim Crow regulations and laws in existence but no trouble of any kind had taken place for years.

A Pennsylvania negro moves into the section and kills a family of four and fiendishly mutilated some of the bodies. After doing this he looted the house. A former Washington College student who viewed the scene, said the expression on the faces of victims showed the torture they endured.

Happening in such a peaceful community of course it caused excitement. The prisoner was defiant. The throng at the Snow Hill jail was easily handled by the officers. Our daily papers exaggerated the mob action.

Enter Mr. Ades whom we all know about. The daily press immediately started playing him up as a hero. His circus tastics, attacks on Jim Crow laws, jury system which had been satisfactory up to the time of the Euel Lee case were given wide publicity. The county in which the crime was committed started complaning about the cost of the affair. Still Mr. Ades continued and to the present day Euel Lee has not been hung. Mr. Ades still has the backing of the press. The disgrace to the state is that such characters as he are allowed to practice laws in the courts and dictate to them about selecting juries.

The daily press kept speaking through news artcles that the judges were predjudice and as a result had the whole section aroused. No wonder the lynching results followed at Salisbury and this last one, at Princess Anne.

One of the first things we noticed about this last case was that the daily press interviewed Mr. Ades as soon as the crime was reported. Published and very conspicously was the fact that Mr. Ades intended to defend the case and about the course he had pursued in the past. Remember the Euell Lee case. What is the effect of this on the people. Of course they did not want another Lee case.

Is it not also disgraceful that an aged woman walking along the public highway of the state is attacked. Our grandmothers at least should be safe. Think of the disgrace of this to the family. But, oh no, that has been absolutely forgotten by our friend the daily press. Is it not a disgrace that Euel Lee still lives and that an innocent family was murdered?

Conditions would be much better if the daily press would not be so sensational, and in the present situation they should get their share of the blame.

Moore and Leonard Wilson, thence with the lands of said Wilson 150 feet to the place of beginning, being the same property conveyed to the said Matthew A. Clough by the Millington Building and Loan Association by deed dated May 23, 1916 and recorded among the Land Records for Kent County, Maryland, in Liber A. P. R. No. 3, folio 447, etc.

3. That the said Matthew A. Clough at the time of his death was indebted to your Orator, Layton and Company, Incorporated, a body corporate, in the amount of four hundred twenty dollars and forty nine cents ($420.49), a copy of said bill being filed herewith and marked Exhibit "A" and as per Administration Account of the said Matthew A. Clough filed herewith and marked Exhibit "B," there was no money from his personal estate with which to pay the bill of your Orator, or any other bills presented against him.

4. That your Orator is credibly informed and believes that the personal estate of the said Matthew A. Clough is not sufficient to pay the just debts due and owing by the said intestate; and that any deficiency in said personal estate ought to be supplied by a sale of all of the real estate of the said Matthew A. Clough. That there was filed in the Orphan's Court for Kent County, Maryland, against the estate of the said Matthew A. Clough, the following bills:
