LOANS FOR STORM DAMAGE

KENT COUNTY WATERMEN ELIGABLE FOR LOANS TO REPLACE STORM DAMAGE

As a result of a meeting held in Baltimore on October 24th, Kent County watermen, and watermen in all parts of tide-water Maryland may be helped by the Public Works Administration to replace nets and boats that were destroyed during the recent storm.

The following result of the meeting was reported:

October 24th, Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough, together with representatives from Deals Island, Smiths Island, Fishing Creek, and other points on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, devastated by the recent storm, had a meeting at the office of Mr. Abel Wolman, State Engineer, Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works. Besides Mr. Goldsborough and the representatives of the local communities of the Eastern Shore, the meeting was attended by Mr. Wolman and the Chairman of the Advisory Committee for Maryland, Mr. W.W C. Stettinius; also, by Mr. Harold Rosenwald, who came down from Washington, representing the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works.

At the meeting, which lasted about two hours, it was decided to amend the articles of an already existing corporation to include the entire State or Maryland to take care of cases as they arise. The Counties especially affected are Somerset, Dorchester, and Talbot, although considerable damage was done on the Bay Shore of Kent County.

Senator Philips Lee Goldsborough has also been working with the watermen for Federal aid.

COURT ADJOURNS

JURY DISAGREES IN MANSLAUGHTER CASE

The big doings at the College last Saturday went off without a hitch. The inaugural ceremony had the proper dignity and occupied just about the right amount of time. Word has come to us from as far as California that the newspapers there were displaying headlines about President Roosevelt's visit to Chestertown to attend the Inauguration of Dr. Mead. Great publicity and also a good time was had by all. The reporter for the Buletin was a villain and worse, for writing as he did about the Fire Company band. The music seemed to please everybody but him. 14,999 people cannot be wrong.

Many of the older Alumni were over, down and up for the occasion. Bush Wright and Jimmy Vaughn were the best dressed and most prosperous looking. Bush says "All is not gold that glitters." Jimmy has passed the New York Bar examination but has not been admitted to the bar yet. A tailor owed him forty dolars and told Jimmy, "My boy, let's make a business deal." So Jimmy got a lot of clothes. If McKee is elected Mayor of New York he is slated for a job.

The vicinity of Washington, D. C., was ably represented by Clagett and Howes. Clagett brought his better half, but left Junior home. Mr. Townshend Howes who used to bear the nickname (Monk) and was somewhat of a bad boy during his last year at College, is now editor of the Montgomery Sentinal. His office is in Rockvillet, Md., but his paper is printed in Ellicott City. Willie Henry, formerly of Chestertown operates a linotype machine in the establishment. Mr. Howes wrote a piece during the last presidential campaign under some such title as G. O. P. for sale. This came to the attention of then Governor Roosevelt and he wrote Howes a letter of recognition.

Many, many more of the Alumni were present. At the football game that afternoon was the largest crowd to ever attend a game here. Hanson Horsey and Jack Tobin, of Millington both generally seen at sporting events were present. They met an old friend if theirs among the Delaware rooters, in the person of Vick Cickers, who played in the world series between Detroit and Pittsburgh in 1909.

There is one little point about the President's visit that has not had much publicity. Just a report but here goes. The President asked "Where is Mr. John Raskob's home located?" The one questioned replied, "It is in the next county, Queen 'Annes." "Queen Annes" quiried the President, and then with a knowing smile on his face asked "You do not pronounce it Princess Anne do you?"

Mr. Henry L. Menchins article on the Princess Anne affair was very disappointing. Considering the length of time it took him to produce the article with the aid of a secretary, we were expecting something like the old times. About the only thing new was his expression "Below The Choptank." He did give the small weekly editors the title of "Imbeciles." This is in addition to "clown" which we received last year. Yes, the old sauerkraut monger is getting weak.

If plans work out we will be able to get an article published by Dr. Menchin, about the Eastern Shore. This was published some years ago and it should hurt the old diploma mill to have it reprinted.

It is all in the viewpoint. There is an amendment to our constitution known as the eighteenth. It proved very unpopular and will soon be repealed. In some cases the officers in enforcing this law had gun battles and there were deaths. How the daily press did love to critisize the officers of the law in the cases. In some cases the officers were mobbed and some injured severely. The daily press used this to demonstrate the unpopularity of the law and urged the repeal of the eighteenh amendment. No criticism of mob violence was made.

There are also some other amendments to the constitution, the 14th and 15th which will soon cause trouble. One degenerate lawyer in our state a short while ago used these to upset the jury systems.

As the jury system was upset the school system can also be upset. In fact a lot of customs can be upset. The gang that made the judges change their tune as to the color line have already started work on the Jim Crow laws. Mob violence will not be tolerated by the public press. It is time for a call to colors and repeal the 14th and 15th amendments.

After these amendments are repealed, let each state set up its own laws. Our northern brothers could continue to be broad-minded.

The Federal Court threw Ades out. Ades is not allowed to argue before the Federal Court as he has been temporarily disbarred according to the daily papers. It has been a wonder to some that the state ourts have not disbarred him. If a reputable lawyer had made the remarks about the state courts that he has they would be on the pan. That boy has certainly made people sit up and take notice and what is more he probably is not through yet. It was not fair for Salisbury and Princess Anne to treat him like they did. Worcester county gave him the big break.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 2844

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled cause is to procure a Decree for the sale of the real estate of Matthew A. Clough, deceased, for the payment of his debts which remain unsatisfied by the application of the proceeds from his personal estate.

The Bill states:

1. That Matthew A. Clough departed this life intestate on or about the eighteenth day of July, 1931, survived by his wife, Esther M. Clough, and the following infant children: Marshall Clough, age about thirteen years; Henry Clough, infant, age about ten years; Sylvia E. Clough, infant, age about four years; Mary Jane Clough, infant, now about eighteen months of age, who was born about three months after the death of the said Matthew A. Clough, being the child of the said Matthew A. Clough; and all of the above are the heirs of the said Matthew A. Clough.

2. That the said Matthew A. Clough owned at the time of his death a property located in Millington, Maryland, a description of which is as follows: All that lot of land and premises situate, lying and being in the town of Millington, Kent County, aforesaid, and described as follows, that is to say: Beginning for the same on the East side of Crane Street at a point two hundred feet from the South side of a fourteen foot lane between the lands of Jonathan G. Moore and E. A. Wilson and running thence with the said street to Edward W. Spear's Mill Race; thence with said Mill Race to the lands of J. C. Moore and Leonard Wilson, thence with the lands of said Wilson 150 feet to the place of beginning, being the same property conveyed to the said Matthew A. Clough by the Millington Building and Loan Association by deed dated May 23, 1916 and recorded among the Land Records for Kent County, Maryland, in Liber A. P. R. No. 3, folio 447, etc.

3. That the said Matthew A. Clough at the time of his death was indebted to your Orator, Layton and Company, Incorporated, a body corporate, in the amount of four hundred twenty dollars and forty nine cents ($420.49), a copy of said bill being filed herewith and marked Exhibit "A" and as per Administration Account of the said Matthew A. Clough filed herewith and marked Exhibit "B," there was no money from his personal estate with which to pay the bill of your Orator, or any other bills presented against him.

4. That your Orator is credibly informed and believes that the personal estate of the said Matthew A. Clough is not sufficient to pay the just debts due and owing by the said intestate; and that any deficiency in said personal estate ought to be supplied by a sale of all of the real estate of the said Matthew A. Clough. That there was filed in the Orphan's Court for Kent County, Maryland, against the estate of the said Matthew A. Clough, the following bills:

Leonard Wilson	$ 18.30
Merritt Brice	24.14
Layton and Company	430.49
Paul Comegys	6.25
Emma A. Worthington	100.00

5. That Esther M. Clough, his wife, has been appointed Administratrix of the estate of Matthew A. Clough and has qualified and filed bond and stated an Administration Account in the Orphans' Court for Kent County, Maryland, that the said Esther M. Clough, Marshall Clough, Henry Clough, Sylvia E. Clough and Mary Jane Clough are non-residents of the State of Maryland and do not reside therein, that your Orator is informed that they now live at Clayton, Delaware.

It is thereupon, this 5th day of October, 1933, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of October next, give notice to the said Esther M. Clough, Marshall Clough, Henry Clough, Sylvia E. Clough and Mary Jane Clough, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 14th day of November next, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

THE
First National Bank
OF CHESTERTOWN

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CHESTERTOWN made its debut last week having succeeded The Third National Bank, which has enjoyed the confidence and patronage of the public for forty years. The Officials and Board of Directors of The Third National Bank, who have been placed in control of the affairs of the reorganized institution, with the addition of two of the county's outstanding young business men, desire to thank the patrons of the bank for their very generous and patient forebearance in working out the manifold problems incident to the bank reorganization, and to assure them of our deep appreciation of their loyal support of The Third National Bank.

The new institution begins its career with an absolutely clean balance sheet, with not a dollar of borrowed money, with a Capital Stock and Surplus of $70,000.00 and with the full support and cooperation of the Federal government in the future conduct of the institution.

The Officers and Directors of The First National Bank ask for a continuance of the large patronage which The Third National Bank enjoyed for so many years, and they assure the public of the safety of their deposits and the conduct of the new institution along the most careful business methods.
