The Wayside Poet

By J. Thomas Price

I'VE FOUND IT PAYS

I've found, my friend, it always pays
To gladly do a kindly deed,
To always sow a fruitful seed,
And help a friend when e'er in need,
Try it. You'll find it always pays.

I've found, my friend, it always pays,
To try and live a life worth-while,
To greet each other with a smile,
And let this motto be your style,
Try it. You'll find it always pays.

I've found, my friend, it always pays,
To have some helpful word to say,
To cheer, the weary, day by day,
To lift those fallen by the way,
Try it. You'll find it always pays.

I've found, my friend, it always pays,
To win respect and love of men,
To try to serve with tongue and pen,
And if you fail to try again,
Try it. You'll find it always pays.

DEATHS

JOHN BOTTOMLEY

John Bottomley, of Millington, took his own life Sunday morning last when he hung himself in a barn near his home. Tieing a rope around his neck and to a rafter, he jumped through an opening in the barn floor. He was dead when found by members of his family. He was a stock dealer and was well known in the upper section of Kent County. He is survived by his widow and one brother, Frank Bottomley, of Milington. Poor health is thought to have been the cause of his act.

JOHN R. GILLESPIE

Word was received here on Monday by Chester Camp 8745, Modern Woodmen of America, of the death in Philadelphia of John R. Gillespie. The deceased was a former resident of Millington, having removed to Philadelphia about ten years ago. He was 70 years of age.

Surviving the deceased are his widow and a daughter, Mrs. James O. Jensen with whom he resided in Philadelphia.

WILLIAM G. HINDES

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for William G. Hindes 74, from the home of oJseph Ryan, Jr., south of Rock Hall. The deceased had been a semi-invalid for six years. He was found in his home a week ago after sustaining a paralytic stroke and death occurred Saturday night about 9 o'clock.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Etta Wells and Miss Margaret Hindes, of Virginia Beach, Va., the former of whom arrived to see her father. Mr. Hindes was the second husband of the former Miss Rebecca Davis, of Rock Hall, sister of Mrs. William Hudson and Mrs. Charles Reiche, of Chestertown.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. C. W. Spry, of Rock Hall M. E. Church and interment made in Wesley Chapel cemetery. The bearers were: Samuel Colly, Preston Shallcross, Thomas Elbun, Thomas Collyer, Richard Harris and Charles Smith. W. T. Hicks undertaker.

JOSEPH V. DUYER

Joseph V. Duyer, aged 52 years, of Worton, died Tuesday morning at Easton hospital following an illness of two weeks.

Besides his widow, who before her marriage was Miss Essa Gears, of Worton, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Esther A. Korycki, of Baltimore; and one brother, William Duyer of Lynch.

He spent his entire life in Worton where he conducted a blacksmith shop until the time of his death.

Funeral services were conducted at his late home in Worton at 11 a. m. Thursday, Rev. Marker, officiating, interment in Still Pond cemetery.

The bearers were Messrs. Irving Kroll, John Duyer, Frank Duyer, Jack Duyer, Lester Carter and William J. French. Marvin Williams, undertaker.

ANNIE W. CARVIL

Annie W. Carvill, widow of the late Henry W. Carvill, died Tuesday afternoon at her home in Baltimore. She was the sister of Dr. Charles W. Whaland, Chestertown, and was 94 years of age.

Funeral services were held at St. Paul's Cemetery at 10.30 a. m. on Friday morning, conducted by the Rev. C. L. Atwater. The bearers were: Messrs. R. H. Collins, Sr., P. A. M. Brooks, Joseph Brice, Charles B. Nicholson and two men from Baltimore. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

LADIES' AID MEETS

The Ladies Aid Society of Kennedyville M. P. Church was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hope Copper last Thursday evening for the October meeting.

At 8 o'clock the meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Edgar Pennington.

The hymn "Jesus is Calling" was sung by the Society, accompanied by Mrs. E. L. Redmile. Prayer by Mr. Coursey, of Barclay. The Scripture 46th Psalm was then read by "Miss Emma Shafer. Another hymn "The Great Physician" was sung. The Sec. Mrs. Chas. Miller read the minutes of the previous monthly meeting. The Treasurer, Mrs. Clendaniel, gave her report. The roll was called and dues of $7.10 were colected. Business was discussed, Mrs. Earl Nickerson invited the Ladies Aid Society to meet at her home for November meeting which was much appreciated. The following programme was given. Mrs. Copper having charge of it. Instrumental Solo, "Rock of Ages wit hvariations," Miss Emily Groves. Rec. "Welcome," Billy Copper. Duet, "In the golden Somewhere,' by Mrs. Geo. Glenn and Mrs. Wm. Lipscomb. Reading, "A Yankee in Love," Miss Reba Copper.

Instrumental Solo, "Myrtle May's Waltz, Robert Dempsey.

"Floral Contest," conducted by Mrs. Copper. Duet, "In the garden," Mrs. Rodger Kennedy and Mrs. Chas. Miller. Reading, "The House Inside," Mrs. Mary Miller.

Duet, "Jesus is Precious," Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fogwell.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and a very pleasant time was spent socially. Seventy-five persons were present.
