INTER-STATE MEETING POSTPONED

ANTI ORGANIZATION GROUP TO CHECK ON STOCK OF INTER-STATE

On the plea that they needed more time, the Anti-Interstate group, known as the Allied Dairies, secured an injunction against the holding of the 17th Annual Meeting of the Inter-State Milk Producers Association scheduled for November 21 and 22 at Philadelphia. Their petition to the Court requested delay in order that a "check-up," might be made of the list of stockholders in the Inter-State.

The granting of the injunction is of no significance. The Court in granting the injunction remarked that if the books are O. K., the "check-up" should be welcomed; if the books are in error, they should be corrected.

It is common belief that the injunction will afford small comfort to the Anti-Organization group. Doubtless minor clerical errors in transfer of shares of stock may be found but such errors will have no significance.

The injunction names December 19th as the probable date for the meeting. The share holders' list is now being checked or audited. After the "check-up" is completed, an earlier date for the Annual Meeting may be set.

FOUR MORE COAT SCHOOLS

The satisfaction and help received at the Coat Schools in October makes it seem advisable to schedule four more schools for Spring Coats, it was announced this week by Miss Helen N. Schellinger, County Home Demonstration Agent.

It is being announced now, so you may plan to have things ready. When you receive your turkey money, set aside enough to buy the material for your coat. One woman made a lovely white coat from a white wool dress.

The schools will be held during the weeks of February 20th and February 26th.

This is an opportunity, if you sew, that you cannot afford to miss.

The places for holding the school will be determined by the enrollment.

Any one who sews and wants to make a coat will be welcome.

Hints for the Household

FOR NOVEMBER
BY BETTY WEBSTER

This is the month when the occasional cold blast, and perhaps a snow flurry, foretell the winter soon to come. And when we see nuts, oranges and apples in the market instead of the more delicate peaches, pears and plums. Also the seasonal odor of burning leaves mingles with that of spices when the forehanded housewife is preparing her mince-meat for the luscious pie served at Thanksgiving dinner.

Doesn't the thought of it make your mouth water?

Do you remember how we used to stand around, as Buddy and Sister do now, waiting for the "lcks" that were left in the mixing bowl?

And then, the wonderful [illegible] mother cooked for pies —for we always had both mince and pumpkin pies for Thanksgiving?

What fun it was to have all the relations come for the day. And then, weren't we on "tenter-hooks" though trying to behave as we were told, till dinner was served?

Thanksgiving is the one day of the year in which the dinner is outstanding. Other holidays have other important features which make the feast secondary but of this day the dinner is THE celebration!

RECIPES

Escalloped Potatoes

6 medium sized potatoes sliced
2 tablespoonfuls of flour
1 tablespoonful of salt
Pepper
Butter
Milk

Put a layer of sliced potatoes in casserole. Sprinkle with flour, salt and pepper and dot with butter. Repeat until all ingredients are used and pour on milk to fill dish. Cover with bread-crumbs and bake one hour.

Dumplings

1 cup of flour sifted with
1 teaspoonful of baking powder and
1-2 teaspoonful of salt. Stir in
2-3 cup of sweet milk.
Have liquid boiling and drop dough by tablespoon which is dipped in boiling liquid. Cover securely and cook ten minutes. Then remove cover and at same time take from fire. This process insures light, fluffy dumplings.

For apple dumplings pare:

4 tart cooking apples. Bring to boil and add.

1 cup sugar. When at boiling point again, drop in dumplings. Follow this recipe for blueberries, black berries, cherries—adding or scanting sugar as needed.

EACH TO HIS TASTE

A young girl was vacationing in the country and became friendly with a farmer boy. One evening as they were strolling across a pasture they saw a cow and calf rubbing noses in the accepted bovine fashion.

"Ah," said the farmer boy, "that sight makes me want to do the same."

"Well, go ahead," said the girl, "it's your cow."
