OUR BROADCAST

—How any vehicle can travel 10,715 miles without leaving the city limits of Chestertown, can be proven by a look at the speedometer on the parcel post delivery truck of the local post office. Since it was delivered here five years ago it has not left the city limits except on one occasion when it was taken down Quaker Neck to appear in a picture prior to the road celebration three years ago. Special permission was received from Washington in order to make that trip. 10,715 miles around Chestertown is equal to three trips to California, or three trips to Europe, or practically half way around the world. Mr. Ralph Shinn has driven the truck during most of its travels.

—Those who say you can't get something for nothing may change their tune when they read Eliason Motor add on page three of this ssue.

—"There is a silver lining" and a silver coating also at the Chestertown Ice plant. The entire plant is receiving a coat of alumnium paint both inside and out, a sample of which can be seen on th delivery truck.

—Mr. James Merritt Hepbron, formerly of near Worton, and now managing director of the Baltimore Criminal Justice Commission, will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Sciece from Temple University at Commencement exercises to be held June 14th.

—The Elmira Star Gazette, of Elmira, N. Y., recntly carried an interesting biography of the success made by Wesley O. Crew who is president of the Elmira Arms Company. It states how he went to the city from a farm near Smithville Kent County and after many adversities, his persistance to succeed won success and he with John N. Willys started the sporting goods business which he now heads. Mr. Willys later left the business and became head of the Willys-Overland Company. Mr. Crew is the son of the late Lewin and Harriett Crew, of Smithville and his sister, Mrs. Ernest Horsey now lives at Betterton.

WHEAT CERTIFICATION

FARMERS MAY HAVE FIELDS INSPECTED FOR SEED WHEAT

Effort of the Extension Service and the Maryland Seed Certification Board to provide adequate amounts of high quality home grown seed wheat and other small grains are called to the attention of Maryland Farmers through the announcement that farmers who have grain crops of high quality, trueness to type, purity as to variety and free from disease and weeds, may have such fields inspected before harvest (and later have samples tested for weight per bushel, germination, freedom from weed seed etc.) by notifying the County Agent at once. Such grain sells at a nice margin above market grain.

Prof. F. W. Oldenburg of The Extension Service does the inspection work. He is doing much to improve the quality of seed used in Maryland.

Immediate action is necessary by those desiring this service.

Betterton Planning to Improve Bathing Beach

Beach Club Sponsored by Chamber of Commerce Plan to Raise Funds With Benefit Dances and Boxing Bouts

To raise funds for the improvement of diving boards, rafts and other beach improvements, the Betterton Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a dance this Wednesday evening, June 6th at the Betterton Casino.

Boxing bouts in the Casino one night in the near future is also planned as a means to raise fuds for the beach improvements. "Reds" Smith, of Betterton, will be in charge of this and will be assisted by Spence Hammond, of Centreville. "Reds" furnished boxers for a benefit bout at Centreville, so Spence Hammond will assist in this benefit bout. Among those who will probably be on the benefit card will be Joe Roshe, of Ridgely; and Dudley Bedford, of Centreville. Gonzals, of Mornec and Tony Galante, of Rigely, and other prominent fighters.

"Reds" Smith will journey to Baltimore this Monday to see the State Boxing Commission about whether or not the benefit exhibition can be held.

It is also planned to a little later in the summer to have open boxing bouts twice a week. These may be held on Owen's pier if the desired place can be found.

"Reds" Smith is training several fighters and they train about twice a week. Many people have been going to watch there training bouts. To transfer these to the pier would be a very simple matter they figure.

Gonzales is the most prominent fighter trained by Smith, having won many bouts this winter. Gonzale may fight Reddy Shreaves at Ocean City next week.

TEN TON TOMATO CONTRACT

CONTEST TO BE HELD AGAIN THIS YEAR

The popular Tomato Growers Coners Association and the Extension Serers Asociation and the Extension Service is open to competition again this year.

The aim and assest of the corn this to demonstrate the economy and practically of the practices recommended such as fall plowng and manuring of tomato ground; use of certified seed of approved varities; early setting of plants made possible by use of muslin covered plant beds, etc. Generous use of fertilizer pays well as shown by both quantity and quality of fruit resulting.

Generous pr[illegible] are awarded the three highest ranking growers of Canning house tomatoes in the state. Certificates are issued to all who produce over ten tons per acre. Relatively few growers attain the goal but all participants gain much from the testing of methods, varieties, time of planting etc. The data revealed by successful contestants show definitely that the approved methods are sound economically.

Wm. E. Greenwood, of Quaker Neck, was fourth high contestant in 1933, with an average yield of eleven tons per acre. Clarence Hadaway was Kent's successful 1932 contestant.

The County Agent has entry blanks, also rules and regulationes governing the contest. Entries will be received throughout June, 1934.

This Contest is a definite part of the effort to demonstrate the economy of "more tomatoes (per acre) on fewer acres" which means more profit, less acreage to till and not over production.

GARDEN PARTY AT BETTERTON

200 ATTEND GARDEN PARTY LA[illegible] FRIDAY

The Garden Party held by the Homemaker's Clubs at Royal Swan Hotel last Friday was most successful. Every section of the County was represented and many out of State guests.

Mrs. Howard Owens is a charming hostess and Mrs. Walter B. Harris [illegible] most capable chairman.

The program consited of vocal solos by Mr. H. G. Dana, accompanied by Miss L[illegible]ise Russell; Mr. Raymond Moffett, accompanied by Miss Covey Griffith; piano solo, Mrs. Mary Covey Griffith; Talk on "The New Flowers this Year" by Mr. John W. Johnston of the Herald Tribune, New York. Mr. Johnston in his very pleasing manner told us many valuable things relative to the exhibition of flowers and the care, while growing and during the trip from garden to show room. Mr. Ernest Hemming, of Eastern Shore Nurseries talked on the Evergreens and Trees planted on the grounds of the Royal Swan Hotel, giving names and different kinds.

Games with music by the Washington College Orchestra closed the program. The proceeds are to used to help finance the annual Flower Show in September.

E. S. P. S. REDUCES RATES

ELECTRIC CURRENT REDUCTION EFFECTS 1ST, 2ND AND 3RD DISTRICTS

New electric rate schedules, in which the present rates by blocks for residential and commercial customers are changed from 12 cents, 7 cents and 3 cents per kilowatt hour to 10 cents, 6 cents and 3 cents per kilowatt hour, will become effective in June in the sections of Maryland and Delaware served by the Eastern Shore Public Service Company from its central generating station at Vienna. The new schedules, reflecting the above changes, and also adjustments in the blocks, were filed with the Public Service Commission of Maryland today. They will result in an estimated annual savings of $45,000 to customers.

Company officials pointed out that this savings of $45,000 to its residential and commercial customers will be in addition to $30,000 saved annually by those same customers since the Company, on September 1st last, began payment of the 3 per cent Federal tax previously paid by them, thus making an aggregate annual savings of $75,000 to those domestic and commercial customers since September 1, 1933.

In announcing the new schedules, F. W. C. Webb, Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors, made the following statement:

"From time to time since the Delmarva Peninsula began to feel the depression seriously in the last quarter of 1932, the Company has been urged to reduce its rates on the ground that the price of electricity should follow the trend of commodity prices, an argument which does ont logically apply because of factors peculiar to the utility industry. As a matter of fact, residential consumers on the Company's lines are, in the aggregate, buyng their electricity now for approximately one half the cost per unit which they paid in

WILL OF MARGARET E. JARRELL

The will of the late Mrs. Margaret E. Jarrell was probated in the Orphans Court this week. The will leaves her entire estate in trust to her son W. Frank Jarrell, Sr., the Trustee to be appointed by the Circuit Court, and that the Court is requested to consider the wishes of her son in naming the Trustee. The estate is to be managed by her son. Should the revenue from the estate not be sufficient to provide an ample living for her son and his family, then the trustee may dispose of such part of the estate as is necessary to provide same.

At the death of her son the trust estate is to continue for her grandson, W. Frank Jarrel, Jr., and the Trustee is then to turn over $2,000 to the grandson on his 21st birthday; $5,000 on his 27th birthday and at the age of 31 years the remainder of the estate is to be turned over to him, unless he should wish to continue the trustee ship.

A codicil to the will provides that should the said son, W. Frank Jarrell, Sr., pay off all of his debts then the trust estate is to be turned over to him direct.

OLD FRIENDS DAY AT ST PAUL'S

LEGION HONORS WAR DEAD

The American Legion, Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36, honored those dead heroes of the World War whose graves are in Kent County on Tuesday morning by placing flowers and an American flag on their graves.

This day was set a side as a national holiday in memory of those who served their country in time and have since passed to their just reward. The part that the American Legion takes on Decoration Day is particularly appropriate as it carries out the thought of the day by devoting the morning to memorial exercises in a country where the spirit of the day is too easily forgotten by those seeking pleasure and sport.

Among those honored on Tuesday were:

James E. Caldwell.
Thomas B. Ivens
William Forest Barber
Walter Luike
Alwyn Hanson Stavely.
Frank M. Jarman.
G. Alan Jarman.
Hiram B. Eliason
Clarence M. Ryan
Joseph A. Ayres
R. Nelson Stevens
Norman S. Crouch
Charles R. Humphries
Ivens W. Leonard
Thomas H. Skipper
Samuel Wickes Wilson
Chester Bishop
Jessie O. Beaver
Allan B. Harris
Harold Matthews
Burnham Eshman
Claude Mullen
A. Rudolph Wacker.

Among other Kent County boys whose graves are not in Kent County is Edward Cain who was killed in an airplane accident during the war.

Colonel William Schwab, former Commander of the local post delivered a very appropriate address at the cemetery in which he honored those who have passed on and emphasized the appeal of millions "Please, God may it never happen again."

MR. HARRY NICE SPEAKS

Mr. Harry Nice arrived in Chestertown and was inroduced around by Mr. John Bennett. He attended the baseball game in the afternoon and made a speech on Cross Street that night. Mr. Nice's speech was not of a political nature and he praised the men that went to war, mentioning the fact but for the defense of the country by these men there would be no celebration here tonight. Mr. Nice is one of four candidates for the republican nomination for Governor. All applicants for the governorship, both democrats and republicans were invited to attend.

CONTESTS HELD, BAND GIVES CONCERT

The Chestertown Band gave a concert at 7.30. A drive was made for donations to the band on Decoration Day Our band is one of the best in the state.

Several contestants for children were held. The bicycle race was won by William Bnjamin' The ice cream eating conte st was won by Taylo Frank. Junior ice cream eating contest was won by Etta May Leonard. The pie eating contest was won by Chester (Gump) Hopkins.

STREET DANCE DRAWS BIG CROWD

Cross Street was packed and jammed at the street dance, many dancing and many watching. A large crowd remained until the very end. Efforts were made to secure a couple to get married but to no avail. One college boy volunteered if t hey would supply a girl with plenty of money and good looks.

Another street dance and contests is planned by the Cross Street Association for Hallowe'en night. At that time they plan to have an ox roast.

WEST KENT DEFEATS CHESTERTOWN

The much talked of Chestertown-West Kent game was a real thriller. West Kent jumped into the lead with scores in the first and second innings. Chestertown tied the score and later went into the lead. With he score four to two against them, West Kent scored three runs in the 8th going into the lead 5-4. Chestertown tied the score in the first half of the 9th and West Kent came through in the last half of the ninth with the winning run.

Eddie Harris pitched a very good game for Chestertown for seven innings.
