The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer,

Well it's all over now, the big affair, and as the old saying goes—"a good time was had by all." Most of the out of towners left us Sunday, tho' Mrs. Paul Wilkinson remained over for a few days as Mrs. Karl Melamet's guest. On Monday, Mr. Horace Beck bid us good bye for awhile to make a two weeks' visit to Atlanta, Ga., to pay his son Horace a visit. While he is away, Mrs. C. Beck Jones will trip up to New York once more.

Mrs. Medford Brooks, and her little daughter, Jane, were guests in Philadelpha, last week end and while there, attended the crew races, on the Schuylkill river, in which their son, Phil, participated, as a member of the McDonough crew, in the prep school races.

Miss Cynthia Clendaniel, who is now living in Canton, Ohio, has been home for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Clendaniel. She left on Tuesday to stop with her brother and sister in law in Baltimore for a night before returning to the West.

Mrs. Joseph Archbell arrived on Wednesday to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr.

Thursday night, Miss Catherine Beck entertained in honor of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines. Supper was served at small tables followed by bridge.

Miss Ann Smith honored Mrs. Paul Titsworth and her sister who are her house guests, this week, with a small tea to which the Literary Club as a body was asked. A few additional guests were invited to welcome Mrs. Titsworth back to town. Once a prominent member of the Literary Club herself, a very pleasant afternoon ensued.

Some more out of town visitors who have been in our midst are Judge Gilpin Sutton, of Seattle, who has been visiting his brother, Mr. George Sutton, near Locust Grove, Mrs. Geo. Davenport, wife of Bishop Davenport of the Diocese of Easton, who has been visiting Mrs. Charles Atwater, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradley, Miss Isabel Beck and Mr. Charles Cohn who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Harris on Sunday. Mrs. Brewer, of Hyattsville, mother of Miss Margaret Brewer, has been her guest, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Stone, of Pittsfield, Mass., visited Mr. and Mrs. Eben Perkins for a night on their way to Ocean City.

Miss Janet Atwater left on Monday for Baltimore where she has accepted a position with the Social Service.

Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper left on Wednesday for Fort Dupont to visit Captain and Mrs. Peach. On Friday they wended their way up to Delaware Gap and thence to the Pocono Mountains for a several days' visit before returning to Chestertown. Sounds like a nice trip, doesn't it?

Many of the college boys and girls will return this week and next, to begin their summer vacations, and thus activities of the younger set will take on new life. Swimming and dancing will be in progress while those of more mature years will probably still be holding to their favorite indoor sport of bridge.

On Sunday, our golfing boys will travel over to Dover to see if they can do as well on foreign ground against the Doverites as they did here a few weeks ago. Well, here's to them! Also Sunday will be "barbeque day," or rather an "open house day" out at the Maxwells, at Worton Manor. Among their house guests will be Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Franklin, of Cumberland, Major and Mrs. George Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Johnson, of Baltimore, all of whom will arrive Saturday. Those who come as early as Friday will be Mr. and Mrs. George H. Blackmore, of New Rochelle, and Col. and Mrs. Charles F. Severson, of Washington.

So this little epistle about winds up our wanderings of the week, and even gives you a start on the first day of next week.

Yours in advance,
The Wanderer

Miss Edith E. L. Sontag, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Sontag, and Mr. Walter J. Hepbron, son of the late Harry H. Hepbron, were married at seven thirty o'clock Saturday evening, May fifth, nineteen hundred and thirty four, by the Rev. W. A. Donoway at the Wesley Chapel parsonage near Rock Hall.

Mrs. George W. Smith, of Baltimore, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, near Pomona.

Mrs. Katie Perkins is spending the summer at the home of the Misses Welch.

Miss May Lynn, of Washington, D. C., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Metcalfe.

The following were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Russell for the week end: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jarman and Dr. and Mrs. L. N. Hitchcock and little son, of Westminister, Md.

Miss Elizabeth Fontaine, of Hood College, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Clark Fontaine for the summer vaation. Miss Fontaine was honored by being one of three Freshmen out of a class of 200 girls to be selected as 4 year members of the Marrionettes. The Marrionetts is an exclusive dramatic socety and to become a member of it is the ambition of every student at Hood.

Leutenant and Mrs. Harry Hurtt Derringer are guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Alice Derringer on Queen Street. Lieutenant and Mrs. Derringer have been in California for the past three years where he he has been statoned with the fleet.

Mr. Edgar Hodgson who is stationed with the Conservation Corps in Western Maryland, is the guest of his mother here.

SPORTS

WEST KENT DEFEATS CHESTERTOWN

The afternoon feature of Decoration Day was the baseball game between Chestertown's 2 baseball teams, West Kent and Chestertown. These two teams have not been on such friendly terms and a real contest was promised. Chestertown was the heavy favorite but another long shot came in by playing better ball. Now a more friendly feeling between the two clubs exists.

They have scheduled 5 more games with each other for the season on July 4th they will play a double header. The morning game will be played on the West Kent diamond and the afternoon game at Hopewell. They will meet again on July 29th at Hopewell. Another double header is scheduled for Labor Day. Probably the morning game will be played at Hopewell and the afternoon game at the West Kent diamond.

Now that Chestertown and West Kent are on more friendly terms and have come to an agreement on Sunday games we can look for some spirited contests when they meet.

GAMES THIS WEEK END

Chestertown plays Clayton at Clayton Saturday afternoon and Tilghman's Island at Easton Sunday.

West Kent plays Queen Anne at Chestertown Sunday afternoon.

BETTERTON.

About two hundred women attended the Garden Party given by the Women's Clubs of Kent County at the Royal Swan Hotel. Because of the rain the program was held indoors. Many beautiful flowers were exhibited by the club members. Music was furnished by the Washington College orchestra and Mr. J. W. Johnson was the speaker.

The members of the Chester Lodge of Masons, with their wives or friends will attend the worship service at the Methodist Church at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Rev. W. Vaughn Moore will deliver the sermon. After the service they will go to the Rigbie for dinner.

A goodly number of visitors were in town for Decoration Day. The Wilson Line steamer brought an excursion and a dance was held both in the afternoon and evening. Everything is now in readiness for the summer season.

The members of the Epworth League will attend the Epworth League service at Price's tomorrow evening.

At the town election held last Saturday afternoon Messrs. Ray Crew and Alpheus Smith were elected as town commissioners to fill the vacancies of the expired term of Mr. Walter Brice and Mr. James T. Crew, deceased.

Mrs. Edith Turner Anderson, of Philadelphia, spent the holiday at her home here.

Mrs. Larry Hackett is spending the week with her mother in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reese Crew, of Philadelphia, were the week end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crew.

Children's Day service was held at the Methodist Church last Sunday evening. The children gave a very interesting program. The church was beautifully trimmed with baskets of cut flowers. These flowers were afterards taken to the shut ins.

The wedding of Miss Anna Elizabeth Crew, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Crew and Mr. Norman Ducloe, of Philadelphia, will take place this morning. They will leave immediately for a honeymoon at Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

You Are Invited To See The NEW COOLERATOR
Now On Exhibition At The Chestertown Ice Plant

Here is a new and entirely different kind of Refrigerator.

It provides constant cold temperature until the ice chamber is nearly empty.

It does not dry out foods.

It constantly washes and purifies the air.

It prevents the mixing of food odors.

It does not require foods to be stored in covered dishes to prevent their flavors and juices from being stolen by DRY COLD air.

It needs to be refilled with Ice less than THREE times in TWO weeks.

It will make pure, tasteless ICE CUBES in five minutes.

No other Refrigerator, whether operated by a CHEMICAL Freezing Unit,—or otherwise—can compare with the COOLERATOR.

No matter what kind of a Refrigerator you may have, or what kind you may think you would like to have, you owe it to yourself to see, to investigate, and to get the FACTS about the proper preservation of fresh foods, and what this means to the health of yourself and family.

We cordially invite you to drive out to the ICE PLANT where we will be glad to show you the new COOLERATORS, and how PURE ICE is made.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

CHESTERTOWN.—June Week activities in connection with the 152nd annual Commencement at Washington College, Chestertown, Md., will get underway on Thursday, June 7, and culminate in the final exercises on Monday morning, June 11.

While this will be the 152nd commencement for Washington College it will be the first here for Dr. Gilbert Wilcox Mead who assumed the presidency of the institution last July and was officially inaugurated in October of last year when President Franklin D. Roosevelt was at Chestertown for the ceremonies, addressed a throng of more than 10,000 and received an honorary degree of doctor of laws from this old institution just as had George Washington, the first president of the United States.

...vering the commencement ad- ...his year will be United States ... Hugo L. Black, of Alabama. ... Black is prominent in the ...ay for his activities while in ... the senatorial investigation ...an and air mail subsidies. ... degrees will be conferred ... L. Radcliffe, prominent- ...as a compromise Demo- ...e for governor of Mary- ...os W. Woodcock, for- ... director and recently named president of St. John's College, Annapolis. Both of these men are native Eastern Shoremen.

The commencement week activities will open with President Mead's reception to the Board of Visitors and Govnors, the faculty and the senior class on Thursday, June 7, from 4 to 6 P. M. Thursday night the Washington Players will present 3 one-act plays as their commencement offering. One of the plays is the work of James Anthony, a member of the graduating class.

The annual colorful June Pageant, in which all the girl students of the college take part, will be presented on the campus at 4 P. M. on Friday, June 8, under the direction of Miss Doris T. Bell. At 9 P. M. the Commencement Ball will be held in the gymnasium.

Saturday, June 9, is Alumni Day. Activities for that day will open at 1.15 P. M. with the dedication of the Elisha Cullen Dick Memorial library and reading room in Reid Hall, the girl's dormitory. This memorial is the gift of Mrs. Frank Madison Dick, of Cambridge, Md. She is the Librarian General for the national organization of the D. A. R. At 3 P. M. the varsity and alumni nines will test each other on the college diamond and the annual alumni dinner, meeting and dance will be held in the gymnasium that evening.

President Mead will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, June 10, in the William Smith Hall and in the same building, at 3.30 P. M., the college musical organizations will present a farewell concert.

The commencement exercises at 10.30 A. M. Monday will feature the presentation of the portrait of the late Dr. Paul Emerson Tistworth, president of Washington College from 1923 to 1933 who died last November shortly after assuming the presidency of Alfred University. The portrait, the work of Maurice Molarsky, noted Philadelphia artist, will be the gift of alumni and friends of the college and clubs in the thirty-fourth district of Rotary International, of which the late Dr. Titsworth was a former District Governor.
