BOXING AT BETTERTON

FIVE BOUT MATCHES SCHEDULED AT BETTERTON CASINO NEXT WEDNESDAY

BATTLE ROYAL BETWEEN 5 COLORED BOYS

The first of a series of boxing bouts to be held at Betterton Casino under the auspices of the Betterton Beach Club will be held next Wednesday, June 20th. A full card is scheduled including a free-for-all battle royal between five colored boys as a special attraction.

The main bout is between two fighters who are will known on the Shore, Henry Gonzales and Tony Gallant.

The complete schedule follows:

FIRST FIGHT—FOUR ROUNDS

Kid Smith, of Betterton, vs. Joe Roche, of Ridgely.

Kid Smith and Joe Roche have both seen action in the ring at Centreville. Both boys are sluggers, and a real slugging match is promised.

SECOND FIGHT—FOUR ROUNDS

Kid Leonard, of Betterton, vs. Carrol Unsworth, of Cordova.

In this fight Kid Leonard makes his first professional appearance. He has fought in amateur fights in Washington, D. C., and looks very promising to the Betterton trainers. Unsworth has fought at Centreville and Salisbury.

SEMI-FINAL—SIX ROUNDS

Bud Bedford, of Centreville, vs. Harry Brown, of Centreville.

Dud Beadford created quite a sensation when he made his first appearance in the professional ring at Centreville this winter. He is a clever, speedy boxer. In Brown, Centreville promoters have found another clever boxer, and they promise a real fast stepping clever boxing bout.

MAIN BOUT—SIX ROUNDS

Henry Gonzales, of Betterton, vs. Tony Gallant, of Ridgely.

These two boys have met before. At the first meeting Gallant knocked Gonzales out in the first round. At the second meeting Gonzales knocked Gallant out in the first round. These two are hard hitters and clever fighters. It is fortunate that this fight could be scheduled.

FREE-FOR-ALL—FIVE HUSKY COLORED BOYS

As an added attraction there will be a free-for-all by five colored boys. Two huskies are from Chestertown, two from Centreville and another from Cecilton. The boy from Cecilton claims to have been a professional fighter at one time.
