MY ROSE GARDEN

The roses in my garden,
Are beautiful to see;
In colors of the rainbow,
They nod and smile at me;
And fragrant with their perfume rare,
They make the world about me fair.

My garden filled with rose-buds,
Brings Heaven near to all;
The sordid things of human life,
Are left outside the wall;
And God His beauty doth disclose,
Amid the fragrance of the rose.

I love the quiet moments,
I linger with my flowers;
They seem to speak of God's pure love,
They are enchanting hours;
But hidden 'eath their beauty rare,
Are thorns, the tender flesh to tear.

And so I've learned the lesson,
Life teaches me each day;
The thorns are hidden with each rose,
It seems to be God's way;
Oh, yes, He knows, my Father knows.
The thorns I pluck with every rose.

29c WHEAT BONUS PREDICTED

It is estimated that the heat bonus to be paid wheat growers on this years crop will be 29 cents a bushel. It is predicted however that this bonus money will not be paid until after October 1st.

The 8 cents a bushel, balance of the bonus due from last years crop, together with the corn and hog bonus, will be received by local farmers within the next few weeks.

The 29 cent bonus which will be paid this year is on 54 per cent of the average crop for 1931, '32 and '33 which will gross approximately $100,000 in this county.

The bonus this year will bring the price of wheat, as of Friday to approximately $1.00 a bushel.

WHEAT 82 1-2 CENTS A BUSHEL

Wheat prices on the local market on Friday were quoted at 82 1-2 cents a bushel. Corn was quoted at 64 cents a bushel.

With approximately half of the wheat threshed the crop has turned out better than was originally expected.

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer,

Doesn't this weather make you want to "Stand Up and Cheer?" After the broil of the past two weeks, I feel like I could handle any task. It, in fact, makes me feel almost as young as this youthful crowd around town who are simply racing from one picnic or dance on to another. I mentioned to you last week that they are making every moment of their summer vacation count and I not only hear but see that this is a fact. Young Ned Houston who is visiting his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines and Charlotte Jane Curry, who is staying with the Massey Hines are having one grand time. On Wednesday, Mrs. Frank Hines took a crowd of them to Rehobeth for the day, and Thursday Mrs. Allan Harris gave the visitors and their little circle a picnic down at the Harrison farm. They were thrilled, and that sums it all up in one word. Another little group of this younger crowd consisting of Nancy Shakespeare and her guest, Betty Gundry, is also at no loss for amusement, for one night there is an informal supper party at the Hewlitt's another at the Grieb's and others dropped in for supper another night at Mrs. Lewin Wickes' after a day's outing at Tolchester, as young Lewin's guests. These parties are very much 'spur of the moment' affairs but no formal or planned affair was ever as much fun for these sweet sixteens.

Mrs. C. Beck Jones, who was hostess to Miss Ellen Beck all last week, added to her household for the week end Miss Ann Morrison and Mr. Jack Morrison, of Staten Island, N. Y. Following their departure, Mrs. Jones and Miss Beck sailed from New York on Tuesday for a trip to Bermuda. Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton, III, are staying with Mr. Horace Beck during Mrs. Jones, absence.

Dr. and Mrs. Hartley Schmall and their two children are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend. Mrs. Schmall is Mrs. Townshend's sister, you'll remember.

Speaking of doctors, we were surprised to hear of Dr. Beachley's sudden attack of appendicitis, and removal to U. of Md. hospital for an operation. I know you join us in wishing him a speedy recovery. I am so glad little Gladys Aldridge is almost well again after that bad attack of undulant fever.

Mrs. H. S. Brown, of New York, was down last week end and with Col. Brown were hosts at a terrapin dinner last Saturday evening.

Harvey Tull, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Dorsey Hines, returned to his home, Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weaver, of Baltimore, will be week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper and their son, of New York were guests last week end of Mr. Cooper's sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe. They were much entertained during their brief stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Strong and 'Juny' will spend the week end at Napley Green, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Du Pont.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott and their family have made their summer exodus from town and are established at Woodlawn Hall from where they will make constant visits to their bungalow camp on the Sassafras.

Mr. Laughlin, who formerly owned a home in Quaker Neck, is with Mrs. Laughlin spending some time as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ingersoll.

I understand that Mrs. Harrison Cooke and her small daughter, will spend quite a bit of the summer with Mrs. Cooke's grandmother, Mrs. A. T. H. Harper who will soon be living in her new home the Carroll house, on Water street.

Mrs. Annie Stam and her daughter Susan, have been guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stam. On Thursday, when they returned to Washington, Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr., and Mrs. Joseph Archbell returned with them. Mrs. Collins, however, left on Friday to visit her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. John Collins in Mount Hope, W. Va., for a stay of three weeks. Mrs. Archbell will return to Chestertown today.

But I must not tire you longer with my chatter of who's coming and who's going. I do know that I am still here and likely to be.

Yours remaining,
THE WANDERER

Mrs. Jesse W. Downey, her son, William and Mr. H. Willis Usilton, spent the week end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Usilton. Mrs. L. J. Keyser returned with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Downey, to her home in Roland Park for a visit.

Dr. and Mrs. Downey and their son, William sail on the steamship Manhattan on July 18 for France, England, and Scotland. They expect to return early in September.

Mr. Walter G. Clatanoff, manager of the Standard Auto Supply Company, will leave on Monday for a two weeks visit to Nebraska. Mr. Nobel Payne will act as manager of the local store during his absence.

Mrs. George Carter, Sr., celebrated her 83rd birthday on Tuesday at his home on High street.

Mrs. Fred Robinson was given a surprise birthday party at the home of Mrs. Lillie Elliott on College Avenue on Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Smith and two young daughters were guests last week of the former's mother, Mrs. Bell P. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Waller, of Baltimore, were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Jones.

Robert Harrison and a group of friends are planning to buy three outboard motor boats representing three classes to participate in the regattas this summer.

Mrs. Clara Higgins, Mrs. Harry Wilkinson and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wilkinson were guests last week of Mr. John W. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Greenwood and children have moved to Betterton for the summer where they are occupying the Wm. E. Owens house.

Mr. and Mrs. Hope H. Barroll and Mr. Jack Barroll were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll at Byford Court.

Mr. Charles S. Smith, Superintendant of the Chestertown Water Board, was able to be at his office this week after several weeks illness.
