JUST KEEP SMILING

If in the fight you meet defeat,
Meet it with a smile;
If hard luck you have to greet,
Greet him with a smile;
If you lose it's no use crying,
Do your best and keep on trying,
If you have no car try flying,
But don't forget to smile.

If nothing seems to come your way,
You just try to smile;
If cheated of your rights, some day,
Just go on and smile;
Don't make tragedies of trifles,
Don't shoot butterflies with rifles,
Just be sane, for raving stifles,
Take it with a smile.

If from the world you get hard knocks,
Take them with a smile;
Instead of an auto you've an ox,
Drive him with a smile;
Hard-luck stories don't keep telling,
Better times ahead, keep yelling,
They'll get better in the telling,
Tell them with a smile.

CHURCH NOTES

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown

A short series of sermons on 'Mountain Tops with a Master' will begin next Sunday morning at Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Chestertown. The first subject will be 'A Mountain Top Call.'

The Sunday School attendance last Sunday was far above the yearly average. There is a place for every age in this school. The hour is ten o'clock.

This congregation is a party to the Union Open Air Evening service at seven o'clock. The Rev. C. L. Atwater will have charge of the service next Sunday and will preach.

The following is a letter that came in this week to the Transcript. As the letter was anonymous the paper refused to use it but it is neat for this column. All letters to a paper should have the name of the writer but it is not necessary that the name be published.

Chestertown Md.
July 17th, 1934.

The Chestertown Transcript,
Chestertown, Maryland.
Dear Editor,

I am a subscriber to all of the Kent County papers and have read with interest all the news, But, please, Mr. Editor, tell me why it is that just the so called 'elite' of Chestertown rate your social column. I notice with pleasure that in the other two papers all of us are on the same level.

Do you think you could get along without our money? If so, why not publish your little paper for your high tone friends alone and see how long you will last.

Yours for a more cosmopolitan paper,
..... A Subscriber.

Well, subscriber we publish all the social news that comes our way without showing any preference. I suppose you must refer to the Social Wanderer. That part of the social column is contributed. It has caused a lot of favorable comment. The other social news is that which we gather here ourselves. We guarantee that Wanderer classes no one as the 'elite' but merely writes what she knows. And, subscriber, if you know any social news we would be glad to have it and we wish we had more writers that could follow the style of the Wanderer. Thank you for the letter and how about letting us have some social news. Phone or write.

CHESTERTOWN, MY CHESTERTOWN

The biggest rumpus at the present time is about the widening of Maple Ave. We hear the report that some of the people are saying, 'They tore us up now we think they ought to widen the next block too.' If such a thing should happen maybe that dangerous wall at Maple Ave. and Water Street would come down.

THE WRONG DOPE

Last year it was predicted that the drinking of beer was just a fake and would soon die out. Harry Simmons Russell predicted that there would not be near as many licensed places this year as last. If you cheak up you will find as many licensed beer places and some of them claim they are selling more than ever.

That reminds me that an application to sell beer at the Bowling Alley was protested. The hearing was held this week but today Friday no decision had been handed down. The license office in Baltimore had not heard from Frederick where the legal side of the question is passed on.

TOUGH ON BILL BAKER

I hear the other night Bill Baker, that bright boy from down in Quaker Neck, was the object of discussion and someone remarked his age was nineteen. Oh no, spoke up one of the ladies, I think he is the same age as the Curbstoe Diplomat. Ray for our side.

GETS 15c FOR HEIFER

Bordley Seward, Centreville farmer and mail carrier out of the local postoffice, recently shipped what he considered a pretty fair heifer to a Philadelphia commission merchant.

The heifer weighed 400 lbs., was in fine shape and looked at from any angle, seemed to be an excellent specimen and ready for market.

Apparently, though, the heifer didn't look so good to the commission merchant when she arrived in the 'City of Brotherly Love.' He butchered her for bologna.

After yardage, truckage, insurance, 'professional services' and various other charges which govern such transactions had been deducted, there was a balance due Mr. Seward of 15c.

A check for that amount was found among the various papers connected with the deal.

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Three cheers for Phil Wilmer whose worries, for the time being, are over on planning entertainment for others, and who has been enjoying a week's visit in Chicago as a representative of the Ford agency here. To go back to the hurrahs, the crab roast and dance at the Country Club last Saturday was a rousing success. It wsa a real picnic, and invariably the greeting when I went up to one, and offered my hand was. 'Don't touch me, for I am full of crab.' Crabs for those who liked them, were galore, and apparently delicious salad, eggs, coffee and all the rest seemed to be equally appetizing and certainly everyone appeared to be having the best of times. Later at the dance, the music being splendid, all from sixteen to sventy, were in accord with the day and so again to Phil Wilmer and the noble committee, who certainly did their share of hard work. I shout Hoo-ray. Quite a few visitors were with us, and some I noticed were Miriam and Virginia Jones (I forget the names of ther escorts who were Baltimore men,) 'Doc' and Mrs. Irvin, (formerly Kitty Weir) Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoovan, of Lansdowne, and a Mr. Crawford, of South America, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradley, of Baltimore, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Corey, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lankford all of whom were guests of Mr. Edward Corey near Fairlee.

But now, the town looks a trifle deserted, the visitors having returned, except the Norman Coreys, of Birmingham, Ala., who are still here, and Rehobeth Beach has lured many to its wild waves and soft sands. Mrs. Browne Metcalfe has taken the Rowe cottage for two weeks, and has had Mrs. Phil Wilmer and Anne as her guests this eek Mrs. Tom Kibler and Mrs. James Metcalfe went down Thursday, just for the night. Mrs. Lawrence Strong has a cottage there and will have Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong and Helen as her week end guests. Helen will stay over next week. Mrs. Harry Russell with her ssters and their families also have a cottage for two weeks at this popular resort, and likewise Jim Bacchus is here too, but just staying at the Carleton. So it seems 'the thing to do' is, go to Rehobeth. Mrs. Bonwill Dukes evidently doesn't agree, for she has gone to Atlantic City for eight weeks as the guest of her mother. Harriett Skirven and Charlotte Elliott, who will spend their vacation at Atlantic City are of the same mind.

Others have strayed away too, but not to Rehobeth. Miss Nelie Walker who is spending the summer heer, held off to Bel Air for two weeks and Mrs. Allan Harris, Jr., is visiting in Baltimore.

Two girls who were guests in town last week that I did not see at the dance. were Julia Power who visited her father and mother, and Dorothy Johnson who stayed at the Dave Fords

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard have returned from their trip to California and are back in town. Thinking of the West. I hear that Harriett Welch is in Colorado Springs at present and having a grand time. The hard part must be the coming back and settling down to earth again after these wonderful trips. That is what Mrs. C. Beck Jones did Thursday, although one doesn't know how long before the opportunity knocks to go again. And that helps!

Speaking about trips I understand that Miss Louise Dutcher and Miss Anna Pippin are planning a two weeks motor trip to Canada. They plan to leave Chestertown Monday, July 30th.

Mrs. Karl Melamet is spending two weeks in Baltimore and while there, plans to have little Karl's tonsils out next week. Annd that brings me to my sick list—Emerson Russell has been miserable this week with at attack of quinsy, and confined to his bed, while Dr. Simpers has also been sick. We wish each a speedy recovery. Helen Simpers will leave the hot city of Washington and be here for the week end.

'Bunny' Brown, son of Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown, was taken with a sudden attack of appendicitis last week and was immediately operated on in a hosptal near New York. He is recuperating fast.

I understand that Mrs. John Urie has bought a home in Cambrdge and will shortly go there to live. Speaking of Cambridge reminds me that our golfers troop there Sunday for a final battle. So wishing them luck, and bidding you good bye, I remain The Wanderer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Corey will be week and guests at the home of Mr. Edward Corey.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Corey and son, Reese, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott at their camp on the Sassafras River. Mr. Corey will spend part of the week on a business trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Johnson, of Baltimore, were anchored of Worton Point for the week end near Mrs. J. D. Maxwell. They had as their guests Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Franklin, of Cumberland.

Mrs. J. W. Kirby went with a party of friends from Baltimore last week to visit Niagara Falls and other points of interest there.

Mr. Josiah Massey, of Wilmington, Del., visited friends in town this week.

Prof. Victor Douskies, one time member of Washngton College faculty, but now a member of Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., is visiting with his wife and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham, of Betterton, Mrs. Douskies was formerly Miss Ruby Graham, of Chestertown.

Miss Jean Brotemarkle, of Salisbury, Md., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Washington, I. Woodall.

Prof. David McMenimin who is attending the University of Md., this summer spent the week end with his mother in Chestertown.

Miss Mary Joe Wheatley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheatley is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Milton Harris at Gloucester Point, Va.

Mayor and Mrs. Satterfield with the latter's sister, Miss Maud Miller left last Wednesday to visit the World's Fair at Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thos. Hadaway with Mrs. Gertrude Waddell and Mrs. Blanche Davis attended a supper at Love Point last Tuesday.

Mrs. Argus Robinsonn, of Elkton, has been quite ill. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson visited there last Sunday and found her some what improved.

Starkey—Blackiston

Announcement was made this week of th marriage of Mr. William Franklin Starkey son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Starkey, of Queen Anne's County near Chestertown, and Miss Edna Rebecca Blackiston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blackiston, of near McGinnis Corner. The ceremony was performed at the Parsonage of the Centreville M. P. Church by Rev. T. Colvin Randal. Mr. Starkey is employed by the Baldwin Electrical Corporation.

Among those who spent the past week end at Atlantic City we noted Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Needles and little son, Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Porter and Mr. C. Reed.

Professor and Mrs. Louis C. Robinson returned this week after visiting relatives near Philadelphia for the past two weeks.

Jackie Kibler, Alan Harris and Dickie Foley left on Wednesday for a two weeks encampment at Camp Wright on Kent Island.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Moyer have as their guests Mrs. Moyer's mother, Mrs. Charles K. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Crouch are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby boy born Sunday morning.

Mr. Randolph Waddell returned to his home here this week following an operation for appendicitis at Easton hospital.

Mr. John Flick expects to leave Chestertown on Monday of next week for Washington, D. C., where he will be engaged in working out the details for a trip into the Central American countries on a Government Mission.

Mr. Edgar Hodgson, a member of the Civilian Conservation Corps, and stationed in Western Maryland, has been promoted to Supply Sargeant to take effect August 1st.
