The Social Wandere

Dear Roamer:

As a good soaking rain came to our dry parched land, so some day will some interesting news probably come to me to write you about, but at present, I liken myself unto your brown lawns and dusty roads that were, until they were so refreshingly revived. Regatta days for Chestertown are not far off, and then perhaps my business will pick up. Were I, writing to you from St. Michaels tonight, my pen would be alive, for this is their big week, and I hear some of our town crowd went down to help make it even larger. All of which means this was the week of the St. Michael's Regatta. Mr. and Mrs. Hynson Rogers, their daughter, Harriett Louisa, a friend of hers, Mr. Will Smith the Brown Brothers, Bill Collins, Massey Strong, Howard Strong and others whose names slip my memory were among that nautical mass.

In the meantime, some, not so nautical, have enjoyed visiting friends and relatives here and elsewhere. Now first let me see what new faces I have seen. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Skinner of New York are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kibler, Mrs. Skinner's brother in law and sister. Miss Margaret Smith, of Baltimore, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck all week, and although she left on Friday, will return next week to finish out her visit. Mrs. Ivors Leonard's daughter, Mrs. Laird, of Michigan, and her two children are guesst over at the Hartman place, and as far as I know, those are the only out of towners that have crossed my path this week. Of course, some of those who have run away from us for a little while have returned and in that group I might include Miss Nelie Walker, who has been visiting in Bel Air, and is now with the James Becks, Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr., who has been visiting her son in Mt. Hope W. Va., Mrs. A. T. H. Harper, who was a guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. Harrison Cooke in Elizabeth, N. J., and has opened up her new home, Mr. William Usilton who spent a few days in Atlantic City, Mr. James Bacchus, who was in New York a few days this week, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, who spent last week end at Rehobeth, as did Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong, and Mrs. L. Strong who returned from Ocean City. Last but not least, the younger generation have also come back. The little boys who have been down at Camp Wright are in our midst, once more, with little Jimmy Metcalfe returning the same day from Chicago, after a month's visit.

But for those who have the good fortune to come under the heading of 'Still Away,' the list grows smaller. The Scott Becks, and Mrs. Phil Wilmer, with all the children got off to Ocean City on Wednesday, although I believe Mr. Beck and Mr. Wilmer will not get down until Saturday. Miss May Ireland is visiting her brother in Hadden Heights, N. J., and Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks is a guest of Miss Minnie Massey here.

Now dear Roamer, send me some news that I may tell another reader, if this does not include all of the week's chatter. At any rate, I have written you all I know.

Yours to receive,
The Wanderer.

Miss Ann Kreeger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kreeger has accepted a position as commercial teacher, and coach for Athletics in Georgetown, Del., High School.

Mr. Frank Beck, of Butler, Pa., is spending his vacation with his father and sister, Mr. Horace Beck and Mrs. Katherine Jones.

Mr. Eric Wood, of New York City, is visiting his friend, Mr. William B. Usilton, III.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Hendershott, have been visitors to friends in Harrisburg, Va.

William and Charles Senart, of Washington, D. C., have been visiting in town. They were former residents of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Hadaway have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stinger, of Linden, Mich.

Miss Eleanor Cumerford, of Philadelphia, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Elmer Reed.

Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon and daughter, Bessie, are visiting friends at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Rolph Townshend and son, Rolph, Jr., are visiting Mrs. Townshend's father, in Howard Co.

Mrs. W. Vernon Kirby have been in Virginia visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ford moved into their new home on Saturday of last week.

Philip Brooks and Bill Grieb took a trip to Baltimore last Saturday on the three masted Schooner B. P. Gravner which was loaded with wheat. They report an interesting trip.

Mrs. Edith Long, of Pennsylvania, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. Edgar Hodgson, of the Conservation Corps in Western Maryland, was the week end guest of his mother, here.

Mr. Samuel Dorf and daughter, Miss Freda Dorf are visiting friends in Virginia.

Mr. Alfred Crisfield, of Georgia, is visiting his sister, Mrs. William T. Dxon at Green Point.

Mr. S. J. Johnson who suffered a stroke of paralysis last week, is slightly improved this week.

—During the electric storm of last week lightning struck a herd of cattle owned by Mr. E. J. Crouse at Swan Creek, killing six cows.

—Mr. Eugene Wyble purchased the Crew Farm near Coleman Corner this week from Mr. H. W. Vickers, administrator.

—Mrs. M. E. Newsome has bought the home on High Street owned by Mr. Ralph Barnett.

West Kent will play Tilghman's Island on Saturday and Town Point on Sunday. Chestertown will journey to Church Hill Saturday.
