Poems by the Wayside

BY REV. J. THOMAS PRICE
Chesapeake City, Md.

THESE THINGS I LOVE

These things I love,
For they are friends to me,
The sky of blue above,
The murmur of the sea;
The stars that beckon to me in the night,
The thrill that greets me with the morning light.

These things I love,
For they are friends to me;
The sky of blue above,
The rose with fragrance rare,
The lily's purity;
The golden sun-set at the close of day,
The silvery moon across the milky-way.

These things I love,
For they are friends to me;
The birds that sing of Him
Who makes all nature free;
The flowers blooming in their beauty rare,
The cheerful spirit nature seems to wear.

I love these things
That all about me are,
I find these friends where'er
I journey, near or far;
And He who loves and guides me day by day,
In giving me these blessings, cheers my way.

These things I love,
And are such help to me;
Are yours, as well as mine,
O, dear one, can't you see?
For rich or poor, He gives to all each day,
These blessings rare to cheer us on our way.

Later, refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served. The large beautiful decorated birthday cake was made by his daughter, Mrs. Joe McHenry.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Willis and Son, Mr. Maxwell Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McHenry, of Kennedyville; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Willis and son, Carl, Mr. and Mrs. John Willis ad sons, Bobbie and Jack, Mr. John Bugley and Miss Elizabeth Rice all of Philadelphia; and Mr. Walter Willis, of Elkton.

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

As the month progresses, and out of town guests come and go, so are our friends here making social items for papers elsewhere. Ocean City still seems to be Queen of the May and claims many of our residents this month. Dr. and Mrs. E. Clarke Fontaine and their attractive daughter, Elizabeth, left Thursday for a stay at that popular resort, whereas Mrs. Roland Corey, and son Reese, Mrs. Howard B. Strong and son, Howard, Jr., left last Sunday, to be joined by Mr. Corey later in the week for a week or two's stay. On Wednesday, Mrs. Thos. Kibler, Mrs. Phil Wilmer and their children returned from visiting their sister Mrs. Scott Beck, who you remember has an apartment there for the month of August, and their places were stepped into by Mrs. James G. Metcalfe, her children, and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, who left here Wednesday. The husbands of these ladies join them for the week ends, so I imagine they have a pretty good time. Still others who were among those at Ocean City were Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines, who spent a few days there this past week, and Rev. C. L. Atwater and family who are also there this week. But enough for that enticing spot for the present.

Let's hear of a few accounts of what went on last week end. Miss May Watkins, of Baltimore and Mrs. Frederica Strong Albee, of Laurel, Md., were guests at the home of Mrs. Walter B. Strong. Speaking of the Strongs, reminds me that friend Ernest, had a birthday last Monday. A crowd got together rather quickly, on learning the fact, and had a beach party over at the home of Mrs. C. Beck Jones. It was supposed to have been a surprise, but although men have no curiosity, his wife was forced to tell him something was on hand.

As long as we are on the subject of birthdays, even if I was telling you of last week end's happenings, Mrs. Jas. Beck was given a real surprise party Wednesday evening at her home, arranged by Mrs. Nettie Slaughter, a house guest. Lady after lady, started dropping in, and when all invited were assembled, much to Mrs. Beck's surprise, the gay little party was taken to the movies, after which refreshments were served at Mrs. Beck's home. We wish both of these friends who have just passed another mile stone, many more happy returns.

Now to go back to last week end, and I'll try not to get side tracked this time, Mr. William S. Collins, Sr., Mr. Z. R. Collins, of Centreville, and little Betty Truslow visited from Friday until Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson R. Collins at their new home in Montclair, N. J. And while we sent some to New Jersey, New Jersey sent us Mr. Walter Terrill, who was a guest of Mr. James Bacchus.

Mr. Rolph Townshend motored to Howard County over the week end to bring home Mrs. Townshend, Rolph, Jr., and Miss Dorothy Nichols, Mrs. Townshend's sister who is now visiting them. Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Dana have also returned from their trip. Mrs. Elias Nuttle, and Miss Helen Simpers were home, and Helen returns this Saturday for her vacation as does Miss Virginia Jones for two weeks.

Miss Charlotte Fletcher, who was a counsellor at Camp Wright with Harriett Louisa Rogers, has returned to her home in Cambridge, Md., after having been a guest for a week at the Rogers' home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Waring, of Santa Fe, New Mexico, were guests for a night, enroute to Boston, of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines. Mrs. Waring's father was the late Mr. Will Rose, well known in this section. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Springer arriving on Thursday and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradley, on Saturday all of Baltimore, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Hines.

Mrs. Brooke Bond of Port Republic, Calvert Co., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Eben F. Perkins, this week.

Miss Margaret Smith, of Baltimore, has returned to finish her visit with Miss Catherine Beck.

Miss Peggy Wilson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Fox Point, entertained at a dinner party followed by a Treasure Hunt Friday evening.

And that brings me to this week end. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker of Philadelphia, will be guest at the home of Mrs. H. Clay Brown. On Saturday evening, Miss Elizabeth Brown and Mr. Gilpin Brown will entertain at bridge in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

So, that about winds up my little yarn of news.

Yours till Regatta days,
THE WANDERER.
