ITEMS OF INTEREST

ONE-CENT STAMP OF 1856 MOST VALAUBLE IN WORLD

The British Guiana 1856 one-cent stamp is the most valuable bit of postal paper in existence, says the Boston Transcript. Like many another rarity, its worth was not recognized by its original owner. A lad living in British Guiana, who found it among some old family papers in the year 1872, sold it to a collector for $1.50! The stamp thereafter changed owners several times, each time at rising prices, until in 1880 it was purchased for $600 by that greatest stamp collector of all time, the Austrian Count Phillip la Renotiere von Ferrary.

When Count Ferrary died, in 1917, his huge and wonderful collection was sold in a series of fourteen historic auction sales at a price which totaled $2,275,975. It was at one of these auction sales that the agent of an American millionaire, the late Arthur Hind, of Utica, N. Y., outbid the agent of King George V for the possession of the British Guiana rarity. The price paid, including the French government's tax, was $38,025—a collossal sum for one postage stamp! Yet stamp prices, like all prices, are based on laws of supply and demand. There are millions of stamp collectors, but only one copy of the one-cent 1856 stamp of British Guiana. This stamp, it is estimated, if sold, would sell in the neighborhood of $50,000.

HORSESHOE LUCK

We all know that horseshoes are lucky, but there is quite frequently an argument, when one is hung up, as to whether the points should be up or down. The usual view is that the horseshoes should point upwards, in order to keep the luck from falling out. This has been challenged, however, on the ground that, in heraldry, the points are directed downwards. It is also interesting to note that at Oakham castle, where, since the reign of Queen Elizabeth, it has been the custom for kings, queens, princes, and great noblemen, passing through Rutland for the first time to leave a horseshoe behind them as 'toll;' the collection of about 200 horseshoes thus built up is hung with the points downwards. Another argument is that, if we look at the track of a moving horse, we see that, with the points downwards, the horseshoe suggests a forward and upward movement, which is what we all desire. — Answers Magazine.

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Here I am at last at the peak of Chestertown's summer activities, and at this writing there is much ado and preparation for the crowning event of the season—the Regatta. Committees are bustling here and there, boats of all shapes, and kinds are being cleaned up and put into best of repair, dance frocks being taken out and displayed as to which is best to wear, housewives preparing their menus, and guests are arriving from all directions. So hail and long live the regatta.

Dorothy Vickers is entertaining about thirty of the younger set at dinner before the dance Friday evening, whereas other informal gatherings before the dances, Friday and Saturday evenings will be held here and there, thus going in parties to the dances, which is after all a lot more fun.

Virginia Jones who is spending her vacation here went to Baltimore Thursday and returned Friday with Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers in their boat, accompanied by Mr. Bill Rogers, all of whom will be house guests of Miss Jones over the week end. Miss Elizabeth Mahool will come next week to visit.

More coming for the Regatta will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkinson as guests at the Bacchus home and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. L. Dandridge of Baltimore, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr.

But other visitors in town, who will be here and not listed as week end guests, for they have been here this week, are Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Marinor, of Ashbury Park, N. J., who are visiting Mrs. Marinor's sister, Miss Lula Harley. Mrs. Marinor, you'll remember, before her marriage in the winter, was Miss Bonnie Harley. Mrs. Rudolph Tull, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Dorsey Hines, while Mrs. Fannie Wheatley is hostess to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wheatley and their daughter, of Toronto, Canada. Mr. Wheatley was pretty anxious to see his mother, for he covered the distance of more than 500 miles in 15 hours.

Mrs. James G. Metcalfe and little Frances have returned from a week's visit to Ocean City, while Mrs. Wm. G. Usilton will remain a week longer as the guest of Mrs. Scott Beck. Miss Mae Lynn, of Washington, came Wednesday and will stay until Tuesday at the Metcalfe home, her former residence.

Also returning to town after visiting elsewhere, are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard who spent a few days in Atlantic City this week, Misses Gladys and Rebecca Aldridge who were in Baltimore, as Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkinson's guests, Mr. Steve Collins who accompanied his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Archbell to New York, Miss Inez Russell, returning from Atlantic City, after ten days there, Mrs. Lewin Wickes, who returned from Avalon, N. J., where she was a guest of her daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atherton, and Mr. and Mrs. James Johns from Marion Station where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodland.

I had Helen Simpers beginning her vacation a little too soon last week, for she did not arrive until Thursday of this week to enjoy her leisure. Mr. Harry Kershaw, of New York, whom I forgot to mention awhile ago, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Walter B. Strong and will also be here for the Regatta.

But after all, there are some who probably have attended enough Regattas and have gone away at this time for pleasures elsewhere. They are Mr. and Mrs. George Baldwin and their five children who left last Saturday by motor for a two week's trip to Chicago and the World's Fair, Mrs. T. B. Kilbourne and Mary Jean Strong who are visiting relatives in Laurel. Md., for a month, Mrs. Harrison Cooke who left Wednesday to visit Mr. Cooke's relatives in Charlestown, W. Va., for a few days and Lewin Wickes, who is now with the Athertons.

And now those who have been here this week and gone, were Mr. and Mrs. Thruston Braham, of Front Royal, Va., who spent their short stay with Mr. and Mrs. Hynson Rogers, and Louis Skinner, who visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kibler.

When! that was a list wasn't it? Your head is probably whirling with who's here, who's there, who's come and who's gone.

You probably would like to know what they do when they get here, and although the variety is not so great in the form of entertainment, our guests seem to generally have a good enough time to want to come back. Bridge of course, remains supreme. Misses Grace and Jennie Wilkins gave a bridge luncheon on Wednesday, and a nice custom these ladies who entertain at bridge in the summer time follow, is to have the cards in the morning ending up with the luncheon, thus giving all afternoon to go home and remain at repose.

Miss Fannie Hartman however diverged from bridge this week, and entertained at a musicale on Wednesday evening.

Still others are breaking away a little from that concentrating game and the old lines have come to my mind quite frequently of late, 'Turn backward, turn backward, O Time in thy flight, Make me a child again, Just for tonight.' And why? Because recently about 18 or 20 of not the young crowd, I might say, the younger mostly married crowd, have been getting together, and have entered upon a series of Miscellaneous parties. By that I mean all sort of games that we used to so enjoy, are revived and the first of these 'get togethers' was so successful that they have followed in rapid order. Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon gave an Elephant Egg hunt, which turned out to be 2 large water melons, and these being quickly disposed of, the various games followed. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Usilton, III, entertained shortly after that with another 'game' party, and Thursday evening, Miss Kitty Beck gave a Dutch Treat supper followed by another. They are heaps of fun, and you have no idea what a good time this crowd have. I, for one, am very happy to be included, when they are given.

But, you must be weary of my chatter by now, and so with a Hurrah for the red and blue, and a good time to you.

Yours in verse,
THE WANDERER.

Mrs. J. K. Valliant and daughter, Grace, have been visiting relatives in Oxford, Md.

Miss Gladys Rebecca and Miss Marion Aldridge, daughters of Mrs. Grace Aldridge were guests last week of their aunt, Mrs. Paul Wilkinson in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wherry, of Howard County, were week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee spent the week end at Rehobeth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Blyman and son, Billy, are the guests of his brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Blyman.

Mrs. Sarah Crowding, Misses Dorothy Thompson, Dorothy Ivens, Ruth Jones, Mr. Walter Clatenoff, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Kirby, Mr. Vickers LeCates, Miss Esther Belevin, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland LeCates, spent the week end at Ocean City, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Russell are entertaining Mr. William P. (Chief) Beatty, of Long Branch, N. J., former football coach of Washington College.

The following were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Roberts on a fishing trip: Mr. Arnold Green Cauns, of Seaford, Del., Miss Florence Dryden, of Princess Anne, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Twilley, of Quantico, Md.

Mrs. Lawrence Davis, of Rock Hall, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Thomas Hadaway, in town.

Miss Mayme Thompson has been quite a sufferer the past week with an infected nerve in her foot but is now slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Galen Vansant and family, of Virginia, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. French.

POLITICAL FACTS

With the Democratic and Republican primaries less than four weeks off, politics gained an impetus this week and it is the principal topic of discussion in all parts of the county.

Up until Wednesday there were very few official candidates, that is those who had filed with the Supervisors of Election, but at the time of going to press all of the harmony ticket had filed, also three candidates for Sheriff, and R. A. Shallcross for Clerk, who is opposing Leonard Wilson, the harmony candidate. According to candidates cards in this issue Dr. H. P. Copeland is opposing Arthur H. Brice, the harmony candidate for the Senate and Preston Crowding is opposing Walter Morris, Jr., the harmony candidate for Treasurer. Neither Dr. Copeland nor Mr. Crowding have filed their papers.

The candidates for Sheriff who have filed their papers are Howard Hadaway, Thomas Hadaway, Reuben Jamar and J Gale Usilton; all papers must be filed with the Supervisors of election before August 24th.

Kent County is attracting the attention of Republican candidates for State and National offices. A number of Republican leaders met with Philip Goldsborough at the Old Lyceum this week and Harry Price, Webster Smith and Senator France were also in the county this week. The first three are candidates for the Republican nomination for Governor and the latter for U. S. Senator. From all reports all is not harmonious in the Republican ranks in the county as far as the State and National ticket is concerned. As to a local republican ticket the report is that party will have a full ticket in the field in the general election. If a ticket is made up it will probably be by endorsement of the State Central Committee of that party.
