BUOY ROCK OPEN FOR OYSTERS

WILL BE CLOSED AGAIN JAN. 22ND

The officials of the Conservation Department met representatives of the tongers and Watermen's Protective Associations on Wednesday, August 22nd, and together they examined the oysters on Buoy Rock, Chester River. According to a statement by Mr. Earl:

"It is a pleasure to know that these oysters have recovered from the poor condition in which they were at the time it was closed, and when it is opened it will be learned that this rest period to them has been for the benefit of the oyster industry. The Department, however, wishes to remind the oyster tongers of Kent and Queen Anne Counties that when this bar was closed against tonging in January of this year, the time provided for the closing of the 324 acres was from January 22, 1934, until October 15, 1934, both dates inclusive. Therefore this Rock will not be legally opened until Tuesday, October 16, 1934.'

Thousands See Annual Horse Show

TENTH ANNUAL EVENT DRAWS RECORD CROWD AND ENTRIES

The tenth annual Kent County Horse Show held on the farm of Mr. Julian Jones under the auspices of the Kent County Horse Show Association on Wednesday of this week was one of the crowning events of the season.

Entries included horses from all parts of Maryland and Delaware but Kent County horses held their own. This annual horse show brings out the fact that there are many high bred horses in the county and their owners are well versed in their training.

Much credit is due the officers of the Horse Show Association, not only for the annual horse show but also for the results of their efforts to encourage the breeding of fine horses.

The results of the show are as follows:

WHY I LIKE MARYLAND

I am a little boy from Philadelphia, I spend my vacation every summer with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joiner who are my aunt and uncle on a farm near Worton. The reason I am writing this item is to express my opinion of Kent county, I like Kent county because it has many beautiful farms and many big farms. I like farming myself I like helping my uncle milk, feed the pigs, chickens. I like to help my uncle plow and ride horses, gather eggs, help pitch hay and many other things which have to do with farming. When I grow bigger I hope to have a farm in Kent County, Maryland.

STILL POND STORE ROBBED

250 REWARD OFFERED

The store of Mr. Kennard Jones in Still Pond was robbed of a quantity of merchandise Wednesday night.

Included in the merchandise stolen was flour, cigarettes, gun shells, meat, candy, etc. The bulk of the stolen articles must have necessitated a number of trips into the store yet no one saw a heard any indications of the robbery.

The automobile and truck have made it very hard for authorities to trace robberies of this kind as the stolen articles can be caried great distances before the robbery is discovered.

Sheriff John T. Vickers has offered a reward of $250 for information leading to the arrest of any person or persons who robs any store in Kent County. While it is the duty of every citizen of the county to assist in any way possible to apprehend thieves, the reward will be a further inducement for every one to help check this law violation.

Crowd Attend Local Regatta

Mayflower Loses to Island Bird in 10-Mile Race by Four Feet. More Entries Than Ever Before in Motor Events. Enteries Enthusiastic and Planning to Attend Next Year.

Threatening weather Thursday and early Friday morning kept some stars and other small sail boats from attending the Regatta but every race had many entries and Friday afternoon saw Chester River dotted with sails.

6 Stars started and the Red Jacket by sailing a beautiful race outclassed the others. She hugged the Queen Annes shore and got a favor that put her well in the lead.

The Barnegats, Bateaus and Scows fought it out in a light freaky breeze.

With a very light breeze three canoes started Saturday morning. This race started at 9.30 and over a 10 mile course the Island Bird beat the Mayflower just 4 feet. This was two races in one as there was also a handicap race. In other words for the Cup for the flat race the Island Bird won by four feet but in the handicap which was sailed at the same time, she won by several minutes. The Mayflower got both second prizes.

Saturday morning three handicaps started at one time. Patsy Raskob took two of the events.

Action in the Motor Events started 11.30 Saturday morning, with a Cruiser Race. After 1 p. m. Saturday every 30 minutes saw a race. Crowding in special events, it was necessary to start two races at the same time. All events had five or more entries.

Many large yachts were anchored off the Club pier and the pier as well as the river banks was crowded with spectators.

Dances which were well attended were held both Friday and Saturday nights.

No accidents marred the occassion and although the weather was not suitable for sailing events it was ideal for the motor events.
