HOST GROUP NAMED FOR THE FLOWER SHOW

With the dates of the Kent County Flower Show, Friday and Saturday, September 14 and 15, rapidly approaching plans for the event have begun to take more definite form under the guidance of Mrs. Grace Maxwell, general chairman of the exhibit.

Announcement was made today that a special group of hosts and hostesses had been named to welcome visitors to the show. Members of this group are: Mrs. T. H. M. Bramble, Mrs. Walter T. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, Mrs. Jennie B. Whaland, Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck, Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines, Col. H. S. Brown, Mrs. Hiram Brown, T. Harris Smith, Mrs. Rebecca T. Speicher, Mrs. Grace W. Aldridge, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kratzer.

It was also announced today that Governor Albert C. Ritchie had donated a special trophy for the sweepstake event which will be contested for until some one exhibitor wins it three times. Others who have been added to the list of prize donors are Metcalfe Bros., who will present a special prize for the vegetable exhibit, and Thomas W. Eliason.

One of the features of the show will be the tea garden which will be arranged by a committee headed by Mrs. Helen K. Brice. It will represent a cypress swamp.

The flower show officials have broadcast an appeal for window boxes with which to decorate the sixteen windows in the Armory where the show will be held. People having boxes which they are willing to let the committee use have been asked to get in touch with Mrs. Grace Maxwell.
