SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer,

Well, I ran out on you last week, but you didn't mind my having a little holiday did you? Well all have to one week, or part of one, during the year, to take a rest from our chores, and so I hoped maybe my absence would make your heart grow fonder. There will be many long weeks to plunge through my column before next August rolls around, and you may be wishing I'd be off the page again.

I returned to our fair town to find it steeped in preparation for the Amateur Championship Golf Tournament for the Eastern Shore. Of course, much excitement was afoot, partly because of the great celebrity in our midst, none other than John Charles Thomas, of Metropolitan Opera Fame, as a contestant. All day Saturday and Sunday, the 7th hole was crowded with spectators pulling for members of the Home Team who made a gallant fight and let me say right here, I for one, among those present, can assure you it was plenty exciting. Unfortuately, none of our boys came out on top, but the rest and enthusiasm waxed to the nth degree. This Sunday our team will go to Dover to play Salisbury for the Championship of the League matches held. throughout the summer. This will also call forth more breath taking and hair raising exercises.

But, it seems I am writing you a letter of sporting activities instead of social happenings, so before you lay me aside in disgust, lend me your eyes a little longer.

Following the golfing day Saturday, the dance at the Country Club Saturday night was one of the best ever, a splendid crowd and yet not a mob. And to make it even better than usual Mr. Thomas sang four numbers for us. I was simply spell bound and when 'O Dry Those Tears' was rendered, I felt like doing just the opposite. He and Mrs. Thomas seemed to enjoy their stay on their house boat anchored off the Club Pier. Col. H. S. Brown entertained them and their party several times, while Mr. Thomas having many friends here, entertained once or twice aboard his boat.

Before the dance, Mrs. ames G. Metcalfe, entertained 16 of the younger crowd for Ellen Skinner, her niece, who has been her guest during August. They are such a attractive set of boys and girls and all seemed to have a perfect time.

Sunday afternoon a delightful tea at the Club was held from four till six with Mrs. H. Clay Brown presiding Many of the younger girls served and their youthfulness and freshness made even tea seem more refreshing.

Sunday night, the Bob Wilsons held the last of their 'Open House' out at Fox Point, and I did hate to say good bye, for those pleasant Sundays out there have been ' a port in storm' during the hot weather. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and family return to Lansdowne, their home to morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Harrison and family who have been living temporarily on Washington Ave. have moved into their new home over in Queen Anne's. But alas! September oft holds many good byes, and they too return to their winter home near Philadelphia, September 17. They have won many hearts here, and I think Chestertown is fortunate in having such attractive new summer residents.

On Sunday while we were golfing up here, farther down the river a little regatta was under way which proved a very enjoyable and successful event for residents around the Quaker Neck neighborhood and the Queen Anne's people on the opposite shore. The affair known as the Eversly Farm Regatta was arranged by Dr. Harry Wilmer who presented a cup for the sneak boxes, while Mr. Foss, of N. Y., gave the cup for the free for all. Luncheon was served on the lawn of Mrs. Howard Wood, Dr. Wilmer's sister, started the occasion and drew a large crowd. The races were most exciting being very close, with Harry Wood coming 1st in the sneak box class, Bill Grieb 2nd, and Gilbert Ingersoll, 3rd, there being 8 entered in all. Dr. Wilmer won the cup presented by Mr. Foss in the free for all class. Those from town who entered the races were: Mr. Hynson Rogers, Mr. Hugh Hartman, Phil Brooks, and Mr. T. Moyer.

I wish that I had ever to write you of any on our sick list, that I might only say each time, 'we are all well.' But I guess that would be hard on our physicians, so it's an ill wind etc. However, grippe in various forms has been playing havoc a bit, but has been beaten fairly well. Mr. Eben Perkins, young Scott Beck, Mrs. C. Beck Jones all have had a taste of it but are recovering rapidly. Hay fever for those unfortunates whose lot it is to look from year to year to this dread disease, if it may be classed that way, is making many miserable here, and Gladys Rebecca Aldridge is improving, I am glad to say, from a second attack of undulent fever.

As for visitors, my mind is in a whirl. So many did I see over the week end and down at the supper at Old St. Paul's which, incidentally, is always such a treat, that I hardly know where to start.

Over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvill, of Philadelphia, were guests of Mrs. Carvill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kratzer, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin King and Miss Katherine King, of Chestnut Hill, were guests of Mrs. H. Clay Brown and Frank Beck surprised us with a visit to his father and sister, Mr. Horace Beck and Mrs. C. Beck Jones, who also were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradley of Baltimore.

Mrs. Jack Stenger had a regular family house party for the week end Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Olt, sister and brother in law of Mrs. Stenger, Miss Eva Connelly, an aunt, all of Haddonfield, N. J., Lloyd and Dave Connelly, two brothers, from Baltimore formed a gay family party.

Miss Harriett Welch who was here for two weeks after her western tour, was hostess to Miss Kate Jackson and her mother over the week end. Miss Jackson returned with Miss Welch to New York Monday, while Mrs. Jackson will remain the week with Mrs. H. Skipper and Mrs. E. Fountain.

Then Mrs. Wm. Gibson, Mrs. Wm. Usilton's sister, who has been here since Saturday, left on Thursday, while on Tuesday, Mrs. George Peterson, of Washington, came to visit her sister in law, Mrs. Eben F. Perkins. She was accompanied by her daughter Miss Anne Brooke Peterson. These ladies were much entertained during their visits with several informal parties given in their honor.

Dr. Barrett Catlin spent last week end with his sister, Mrs. James G. Beck and little Sally Catlin, who accompanied him, will remain with her aunt for the fall and winter.

Do you remember Mrs. Henry Beck, who is now living in Texas? A very charming person, and one likely not to be forgotten. She has been spending the summer with her relatives in Centerville, but is frequetly seen here at the Club and parties about town. Mrs. Beck was the guest of Mrs. Robt. Wilson this week for a couple of days, but has now returned to Queen Anne's.

Mrs. James Dukes, of Charleston, W. Va., and Mrs. George Chandler are guests of their mother, Mrs. W. F. Russell, Sr.

But now, I think I have made up for lost time and I will bid you a fond farewell. By the time I write again, our youths will be in the halls of learning, pedagogues in their places, politics having reached a crucial point and I, Still Thine,

THE WANDERER.

Mr. Harry Anthony, wife and daughter, of New York, were the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Elliott.

Miss Minnie Massey and brother, Mr. Herman Masey returned on Saturday last after spending two weeks with Mr. Herman Massey, Jr., near Stratford, Conn.

Rev. Charles Atwater and wife motored to Geneva, N. Y., carrying with them their son, William, who graduates at Hobart College next year.

Miss Mason, of Baltimore, who has been spending the summer with Mrs. Joseph Wickes left on Saturday.

Colonel Grant and Lieutenant Peach and wife of Fort Du Pont, Del., were the guest this week of Mrs. Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper.

Mrs. Rolph Townshend has been confined to her bed with intestinal grip since her return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cooper spent the week end with their daughter in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Matthews, of Baltimore, were guests of the formers father, Mr. John E. Matthews.

Mrs. James E. Allen is in the Easton Hospital where she underwent an operation last Monday. She is doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reed had for their week end guests Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Messina and Miss Eleanor Cummerford, of Upper Darby, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Clark, of Philadelphia.

Harrison Vickers, III returned to his School, Stony Brook, Long Island, on Tuesday. As a member and captain of the Varsity football, he returned some time before school opens, to practice with the team.

Mr. John W. Barnes has as his guest Mr. James L. Crouch.

Mrs. T. B. Kilbourne who has been visiting friends in Howard County has been quite sick and is still confined to her bed.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Charles L. Dodd is still sick at his home on High St.

Mrs. Ira E. Coss, of Rock Hall, announces the marriage of her niere, Ivy C. Diehl, to Albert R. Radtke, of Sandy Bottom. The ceremony was performed August 1st at Centreville, Md., Rev. Amt, of Easton, officiating. The couple are now making their home in Baltimore.

Mr. Earl Willis left this week to accept a position as teacher of history in the Catonsville High School. He has been teaching at Oakland since his graduation from Washington College.

Dr. William H. Moyer has returned to Chestertown after visiting friends in Davenport, Iowa.

Mr. Irving Sparks and family are the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks on Front Street.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Old St. Paul's Church will be held at the rectory in Fairlee on Tuesday, September 11th, at 11 a. m.

DR. CONLEY FOR WATERMEN

GOVERNOR RITCHIE'S declaration for the Repeal of the Tax on Gasoline used by work boats comes too late to capture the vote of the oystermen and crabbers and fishermen of Maryland. A bill to help these watermen was introduced at the regular session of the Legislature two years ago. The first bill introduced was to do away with this tax of four cents a gallon on gasoline for work boats entirely.

The Administration, acting under orders from Governor Ritchie, fought this bill, but finally compromised on a bill reducing the tax to two cents a gallon. This compromise bill was passed by both Houses of the Legislature, but at the last minute as an Administration measure, Governor Ritchie tricked the watermen by having an amendment made to this compromise bill carrying a two cents a gallon tax on gasoline used by pleasure boats. After this trick was passed Governor Ritchie vetoed the whole measure which threw the burden of the four cents a gallon tax on gasoline back on the watermen of the state.

The depression was severe two years ago when Governor Ritchie deliberately tricked the watermen and vetoed the bill that would have given one-half of the four-cent tax back to the watermen.

There is no reason why there should be a tax on gasoline used by work boats or pleasure boats. No other State on the Atlantic seaboard has a tax on gasoline used by work boats. Dr. Conley is already on record as favoring the repeal of this unjust and unwarranted four cents a gallon tax on gasoline for work boats.

I consider Governor Ritchie's statement as a campaign promise designed to catch votes but made too late for that purpose, although I am glad he is beginning to hear and heed the voice of the people.
