Democrats Nominate County Ticket

Ritchie and Radcliffe Nominated for Governor and U. S. Senate

J. THOMAS HADAWAY WINS SHERIFF RACE

DR. CHARLES CONLEY CARRIES KENT COUNTY FOR GOVERNOR

The primary election on Wednesday in both the Democratic and Republican parties was marked by spirited but friendly competition and was carried through apparently without bitterness, the opposing candidates mingling together through the long hours of waiting for the returns.

The County Harmony ticket was nominated with the exception that Mr. Robert A. Shallcross defeated Mr. Leonard Wilson for the candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court.

The unofficial results, which is in tabulated form, show the returns in the various precincts of the county.

Dr. Conley Carries County

Dr. Charles Conley, candidate for Democratic nomination for Governor in opposition to Governor Albert C. Ritchie, carried Kent County by a majority of 434 out of 3458 votes cast. Dr. Conley received a majority in the nine Eastern Shore counties, his home county of Frederick, and St. Mary's.

Governor Ritchie carried the other seventeen counties and Baltimore City which gives him a sufficient majority to assure his nomination at the Democratic convention.

Sheriff Thomas Hadaway wins. Former Sheriff J. Thomas Hadaway was nominated Democratic candidate for Sheriff receiving a 227 majority over Mr. Howard Hadaway his nearest opponent.

Primary Results in Kent County

FOR RITCHIE—Alleghany, Annarundel, Baltimore, Calvert, Carroll, Charles, Garrett, Harford, Howard, Montgomery, Prince George, Washington and Baltimore City.

FOR CONLEY—Cecil, Kent, Queen Annes, Caroline, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset, Wicomico Worcester, Frederick, and St. Marys.

COON DOG FIELD TRIALS TODAY

TO BE HELD NEAR CHESTERVILLE—$300 PURSE

What promises to be the largest coon dog field trials ever held in Maryland will be staged on the farm of John Hollitt near Chesterville today, Saturday, September 15th.

The affair will be under the auspices of the Eastern Shore Coon Hunters Association and promises to attract entries and spectators from many of the Eastern States.

Out Of State Judges—300 In Prizes

In an effort to make the affair interstate, the judges have been selected from experienced out of state men, three being two from Pennsylvania, two from New Jersey and one from Delaware. Mr. Lloyd Gale, of Crumpton, has been selected as the starting judge.

In order to attract coon dog owners from long distances the sponsors have agreed to a $300 purse.

Eastern Shore Dogs Win In New Jersey

The Bolden Bros. coon dog Sunbo won five places in heat and line; while Fannie and Lead, owned by Edgar and Morris Walls won the tree heat and tree finals. Lead also won the pot chase with Radio line winner.

By attending these field trials, in other states, these members of the local association have created considerable in the trials to be held today.

—Among those who have beautiful flower gardens this year is Mrs. David B. Ford and Miss Daisy Barnes.
