The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

It seems to me I left you last week at the Flower Show. I was just about to go. Well, I did, and certainly felt that I got more than my money's worth. The display was simply exquisite and the Fashion Show great. It was lots of fun knowing the models and they looked stunning.

Probably everywhere around these parts was treated to a rainy week end, and too bad it seemed, for it was the time of the Eastern Shore Open Championship. Many dismissed the elements from their minds and trudged through mud and rain, knocking the little white pill from here to there. John Charles Thomas, in a color scheme of red and blue played Saturday, and while talking of him, he, Mrs. Thomas, and Mrs. George A. Dobyne, (Mrs. Thomas's mother) were guests of honor at a dinner party Saturday evening, given by Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown at Godlington Manor.

Congratulations are in order to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eshman upon the birth of a son at a Washington hospital last Saturday, and to Mr. and Mrs. Barber Bartley upon the birth of a daughter at the Easton hospital, Wednesday.

It is funny how some weeks run to certain forms of entertainment, for some times it seems all bridge, another, all golf, again, 'game parties,' others, boats, etc. But this week, I seemed to have indulged in seeing shows of various types. The first treat came on Tuesday afternoon, when both old and young turned out to see 'The Circus,' a private corporation under the direction of little Allan Harris. The affair was staged in the back yard of the Harris home and the audience was seated on the porch and steps. Everything from clowns, to tight rope walkers, the man on the flying trapeze, animals in cages, May West, and the like, were presented to the assembled company. The admission was 5 cents, and when the youthful company was paid off, each member of the circus received 25 cents for his work. For those who are interested in child psychology, things of this sort should be encouraged. Creative ability, imitation and ability of physical strength as well as mental, in the act of organization, are brought into full play.

That night, I saw Will Rogers in 'Handy Andy' and credit should certainly be tendered Mr. Russell in getting that picture here. The house, both night, was packed and I think there can be but few left who did not go.

Later in the week, I had a long desired wish fulfilled. I went to the Show Boat, not far from here. I expected to see no one that I knew, except the party with whom I went, which, incidentally, was able to fill two rows. But as I looked around, many faces did I see of neighbors here and there. It was heaps of fun and really a much better show than I dreamed would be. So, in summing it up, I'd say this has been Show Week, but not Flower Show this time.

Visitors in town this week are rather few. Of course there are some that perhaps I have not had the pleasure of meeting, but I did run across Mrs. Clarence Beck from St. Louis, her daughter and son. They have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Massey Hines, although I do believe 'Jerry' or Geraldine, her right name, has been staying with Mrs. C. Beck Jones part of the time. Mrs. Beck has been entertained quite a bit informally, while here.

Mrs. Rogers Wilson has closed her cottage at Ocean City, has been visiting her brother, Mr. Frank Gilpin and cousin, Mrs. Sam Emory before opening her town house in Wilmington. Mrs. Mary Roberts who has spent most of the summer with Mrs. Emory, returns Saturday, today, to the home of her sister, Mrs. Allan Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines will have Mr. and Mrs. S. Armstrong from Philadelphia as their guests for the week end, and Miss Anne Boardman, of Baltimore, will visit Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Stone, of Pittsfield, Mass., come today to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins.

Mrs. James Chamberlain and her two children, of West Chester, has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles Comegys at the Cliffs this week.

The choir of Emmanuel P. E. Church gave Mrs. John Flick who leaves shortly to make her home in Baltimore, a little farwell party in the Parish House. Mrs. Flick has been a member of the choir since her coming to Chestertown and will be greatly missed by her many friends here.

But now I must leave you. Please write me some news sometimes, for the bit I send to you.

Yours awaiting,
THE WANDERER.

Mayor C. N. Satterfield and Messrs. T. D. Bowers and George W. French left on Wednesday for Pennsylvania where they attended the State fair at Allentown.

Mrs. Barbara Elliott, who has been at the Church Home and Infirmary, Baltimore for treatment is very much improved and it expected home in a week or ten days. It was found that an operation was not necessary.

Mr. J. Thomas Gher, of Dundalk, Md., is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. Benge Simmons. Mr. Gher is a brother of Mrs. Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin O. Blunt, of Twin Oak, Pa., were last week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kennard Burke

Mrs. Ralph Usilton is the guest of friends in Waynesboro, Pa.

Mrs. James E. Allen is expected home today following an operation at Easton hospital.

Miss Catherine Elliott bookkeeper at the Kent County Savings Bank is recuperating from an operation for appendicitis at the Woman's Hospital, Baltimore.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Roberts and Mr. Louis Edgar Burgoyne on Sunday, September 16th.

Miss May Scott was the guest over the past week end of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McIntire.

Mr. L. Bates Russell is confined to his home on account of illness.

—Mr. T. Albert (Bert) Newton has purchased a farm in Harford County adjoining Aberdeen on the Philadelphia road. The farm was purchased from the Ralph Mitchel estate. Mr. Newton will move about the first of the year. Mr. Swan who is now on the Bell farm near Chestertown will take Mr. Newton's place on the Romie Morris farm.
