"MIXED PICKLES" NEXT WEEK

ing purposes only, is a big scream from start to finish, in three fast action acts. Bright and witty dialogues, hilariously funny situations, prettily costumed and cleverly executed singing and dancing chorus numbers, set in a background of bright and colorful scenery, all combine in making 'Mixed Pickels' an entertainment that never fails to please all classes.

As an added attraction to the musical comedy over 75 children are to take part in a beautifully costumed pageant, entitled, 'A Hallowe'en Fantasy,' and this number by the kiddies is sure to prove one of the highlights of the performances.

Prominent in the speaking cast are: Vernon Kirby, Joe Mooney, Helen Smith, Jane Chaires, Norris Duffy, Harry Lewis, Unetals Reynolds.
