WILLIAM S. COLLINS

Page 'Chic Sales' for Pocomoke City. That burg in the lower part of the shore thinks they need a public comfort station for the convenience of the country folks when they come to town. Such a thing was much talked of in Chestertown at one time but the Town Commissioners decided they did not have the money. Such a thing would be a great convenience for town visitors and the country people. How about it folks?

Although the papers have published the fact that the Kent and Queen Annes Hospital opened up a week or two ago with some throat operations, it is all bunk. The first operations performed at the local hospital were this past Wednesday.

To make the best better. Although Chestertown had its best regatta last summer it is planned to have a still better one this coming summer. A meting was called last Sunday night and they are planning to start work now on the regatta for next summer. Work was started on the last regatta just three weeks prior to the event. And everybody had more fun.

There was so much interest in the World Series that many business men in town either brought their radios from home to their places of business or else had them installed for the occassion. Of course some won and some lost bets. I hope a real baseball man from the upper part of the county reads this and sends a dollar down to yours truly.

The report of the Kent County jail is not so hot but it is about as good as the one for the other counties in the state. A bond issue for a new jail has been soundly defeated on two occassions in recent years. Most of the citizens of the county feel that the living conditions at the jail are better than most of the inmates are used to at home. If you are too snooty for jail, stay out!

According to the proprietor of a recently vacated store in the upper part of Chestertown, there is nothing to the report that a wholesale liquor company has rented the building. 'No sir' he said, 'I wish somebody had rented it.' Good news for Herring Hill drys.

Accerding to a piece in the Baltimore Sun all hope its gone for the borrowing of money from the P. W. A. fund for the construction of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge and the deeping and widening of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal. What is left of the fund will be used for the drouth stricken states of the West. There is still on wide river or rather bay to cross.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

On October 6, 1934, God in His infinite wisdom removed from our midst our beloved brother, William B. Groves. His many friends throughout the Order were deeply grieved to hear this sad message.

His sincere and noble life endeared him to many and a great personal loss comes to every member of Betterton Lodge No. 164.

He has slipped away to join a higher fraternity but his memory will ever linger with us, his friends and Associates.

Thus closes a life that has made this world a brighter, happier place for us who had the pleasure of sharing his friendship.

Resolved, That the members of Betterton Lodge No. 164 do hereby assure the loved ones of our brother that we are ever mindful of their sorrow and extend to them our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the record of our lodge, that a copy be sent to the family, that a copy be sent to the paper for publication.

Fraternally submited,
J. WILLIAM CLARK,
HENRY L. CLARK,
WILLIAM H. MILLER.

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

October in all its glory is here and these grand cool days remind us that it really is Fall, but to the eye, it seems more like Spring. I noticed how green the grass is down on the golf links, which usually this time of the year is brown and scrawny. Then too, the leaves are slow to take on their reds and golds, but nevertheless, I love it all, for October is my favorite month. The travel to the cities in the Spring and fall seems to increase for some reason or other, and many little groups may be seen on the Tolchester boat, or else motoring around. Among those who wended their way to Baltimore for a few days this week, where Mrs. Joseph Archbell, Mrs. Frank Hines, Miss Neale Walker, Mrs. C. Beck Jones, and Mrs. Wm. S. Dixon.

Small afternoon teas are much in vogue this season of the year, when around four o'clock, a good hot cup of tea and some dainty sandwiches, consumed while chatting with interesting friends around, goes mighty good on a fall afternoon. These informal gatherings shed a genial atmosphere and extend a cordial welcome to all fortunate enough to be among those present.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown entertained after this fashion last Monday for Mrs. Sidney Manning from Baltimore who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Perkins. Mrs. Brown had among her guests old friends of Mrs. Mannings and a most pleasant afternoon was guest old friends of Mrs. Manning's was also the guest of honor at another tea on Thursday afternoon given by Mrs. Hynson Rogers.

Mrs. Allan Harris asked a few in for tea on Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Mason Wood, and an equally delighful time ensued for her guests. Mrs. Wood has been Mrs. Harris's house guest, but since has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Some of the college crowd returned home for last week end, and tasted a bit of home cooking which you can bet seemed better than ever. I happened to see, Elizabeth Fontaine, Charles Chester Atwater, and Charles Dole. Cynthia Clendaniel, though no longer listed in the college crowd, is home, from Ohio, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Clendaniel.

Harry Russell, won the golf championship for the club last Sunday, and is to be congratulated. He and Jimmy Kreeger played the finals, but the laurels went to Harry.

One night this week some of the crowd who have been giving and attending the Miscellaneous or Game parties that I have mentioned before to you, decided to surprise Mrs. C. Beck Jones with a farewell party, Hamburgers, salad, coffee, and cake were dutifully toted and landed upon your shore of Queen Anne's. There, with a fire crackling, jolly company, a setting sun and good food, Mrs. Jones was not alone in reveling in this occasion.

Mr. George Perine from Kinderhook, N. Y., who has visited here before and was recently married, came with his lovely bride, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll at Byford Court, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Price and Mr. Samuel G. Caldwell are visting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Jones in Atlanta, Ga., making the trip on Thursday of last week by motor, Mrs. S. G. Caldwell is also their guest, having made the trip several weeks ago.

Little Frances Mackey Metcalfe has been quite sick with an attack of grip, but is much better at this writing.

Mrs. Robert Wood, of New York, came Friday to spend the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kratzer.

Last night I went to the play 'Mixed Pickles' and saw many whom I knew. It seemed like the old days when one went to the theatre, and had an orchestra to entertain you while waiting for the show to start. The music was very good, incidentally, and the cast so mixed the pickles that the audience had a large evening. Much credit is due to all concerned with the production.

Yours for more amusement,
THE WANDERER.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Usilton have as week end guests Dr. Blaine C. Bishop, of Waynesboro, Pa. Dr. Bishop is a brother of Max Bishop of the Boston Red Socks, formerly with the Philadelphia athletics who is a hero of every base ball fan.

Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard entered John Hopkins hospital on Friday of this week where he will undergo an opperation.

Mr. Howard Turner, of Betterton, is desperately ill at the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia. He was taken ill while at his office on Saturday and was rushed to the hospital in an ambulance. At the time of going to press there was no change in his condition which is considered very serious.

Bishop Francis, of Indianapolis, will be the guest at the home of Miss Marian Pennigton, in Kennedyville, this week end and wfil conduct the services at Shrewsbury Church on Sunday, Oct. 21, at eleven o'clock. The Bishop is attending the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Atlantic City.

Miss Fanny Harthan who has been visiting in Detroit and vicinity has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiliam T. Nickerson have as their guest, Miss Jennie Nickerson of New Jersey. She and Mrs. Nickerson visited in Baltimore and Washington this week.

STILL POND

Mrs. Mary Hanson, of Perryville, is spending sometime with Miss Alice Maxwell.

Mr. B. R. Fellows and son, Edward, brought Mr. Kelly, of Piney Neck home from the Maryland General Hospital in Baltimore in the ambulance Friday.

Mrs. Thomas Mann and daughters spent last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crossley, near Sudlersville.

We are glad to hear that Mr. John Boulden and Mr. Albert Jervis who have been very sick are much improved at this writing.

Miss Alice Shugard, of Baltimore, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs.. Carson Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson, Miss Louisa Travers, and Mr. Walter Davis spent Monday in Washington.

Mrs. John Nicholson returned home from the hospital last Saturday. She is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bratton, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jones, of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ford and son, Nevitte, Mrs. Kate Ford, of near Lynch and Emerson Moore, of Betterton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Penn Toulson, of Vineland, N. J., spent Sunday and Monday with his sister, Miss Louise Toulson.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Way, Miss Stewart, Miss Brown and Mrs. Birdie Flinn, of Wilmington, visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Clark Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morris, of Lumberville, Pa.., spent a few days last week with their son, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Morris.

Word has been received of the marriage of Mr. Howard A. Johnston, son of Mrs. Mary Johnston, formerly of Still Pond, to Miss Dorothy Perkins, of Lakewood, N. Y. They will make their home in Jamestown, N. Y..

The Annual Harvest Home service will be held Sunday, October 14th. Special music has been arranged by the choir. There will also be an orchestra of nine pieces from Philadelphia who will render selections in the Sunday School and at the regular church service. Come out and hear a good sermon and enjoy the fine music.

Betterton Lodge No. 164 and Friendship Rebekah Lodge No. 57 entertained the Grand Lodge officers last Monday night. They are as follows: Hedley C. Black, Grand Master; Chas. W. Held, Deputy Grand Master; T. Earl Ewing, Grand Warden; Benjamin Raffel, Grand Marshal; Arthur Chas. Tiemeyer, M. D., Grand Representative. Each gave an address that was inspiring and helpful to the members.

20 BOYS ENTER C. C. C. CAMP

Twenty Kent County boys entered the Civilian Conservation Camps this week, fifteen of which were white boys and five colored. This makes a total of approximately sixty boys who have left Kent County for this line of training and employment. They are furnished food and clothing and their salary is sent home to their parents.
