The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer,

Just about now, the talk of foot ball, of games past and games ahead, seems to be holding full sway and even the ever flourishing topic of politics is put into second place. And why not? For after all, this is certainly foot ball season and short though it may be, let it reign supreme. How the seasons do change our trend of conversation! Last Saturday's game, which as you may surely know by now, gave Washington College new hope, new thoughts, and much encouragement for the future. Many turned out to witness the opening event here and as I passed down the side-lines, the attractive fall costumes worn by the feminine contingent added much color and brightness to the already glorious day that it was. And now, all of the fair sex at college and many of the town lassies and matrons are preparing to don their best as they escort the team to Baltimore Saturday to witness the game between Washington and Hopkins. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, III, will be in the group, and remain there for the week end to take in after the game festivities. Miss Kitty Beck went to Philadelphia Friday where she will witness the Penn Rutgers game. Mr. William B. Usilton will spend the week end in Philadelphia also, but I don't know if he will be a spectator at the game or not.

Last week end I had a glimpse of a few home comers whom I am always glad to see. Those I chance to remember, were the Misses Helen Simpers, Harriett Welch, Virginia Jones, Elizabeth Brown and from school, I saw Bill Dixon.

Returning Sunday to Philadelphia, Miss Elizabeth Brown was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. Clay Brown, and Mrs. Phil G. Wilmer who were guests of Mrs. Irvin King, of Philadelphia, who has often visited Mrs. Brown here. And while I am still in the vicinity of Philadelphia, a visitor from the noble Quaker City here this week was Mrs. Thomas Atherton who was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Lewin Wickes.

Turning to Washington, Prof. and Mrs. Laurence Ford spent last week end there, while Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stam are also there for two weeks as guests of Mr. Stam's mother, Mrs. Annie H. Stam.

My telescope brought to my eyes, several on the Tolchester boat this week traveling to Baltimore, among whom were Dr. Esther Dole who went as a delegate to the League of Women's Voters, Mrs. Allan Harris who was Miss Isabelle Beck's guest, Mr. James Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Eben Perkins. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Perkins and their son, Mr. Warwick Perkins who is in this country for a short visit, will be the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Perkins. Mr. Tom Hines, of New York, has been visiting. Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines this week while Mrs. E. J. Clarke, of Pocomoke City, and her sister, Mrs. Freeman, of Norfolk, Va., are other guests visiting Miss Nellie Waters, so we have had quite a few out of towners in our midst.

Many friends of Mrs. Rolph Townshend will be happy to learn that she is up again after her illness and on the road to recovery. Mrs. R. H. Collins, who has been at the Church Home for three weeks, following an operation, returned yesterday to her home and is much improved.

Mrs. C. Beck Jones who left Friday with her father, Mr. Horace Beck, for a western motor trip, was given another farewell party this week, this time by Mr. Wilbur Hubbard. It was one of those informal gatherings that I have written to you about before, but oh, such a lot of fun, and everyone had just the best kind of a time.

Wdding festivities are not only allotted to June, but October holds its place for romantic events. A surprise linen shower was given Tuesday night in honor of Miss Charlotte Coleman Elliott by Miss Mildred Hoyle in Fairlee. Miss Elliott, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Elliott of Fairlee, and Mr. Henry O. Harrell, of Betterton, will be married in the late fall.

Thursday evening, Mrs. Herbert Skipper and Mrs. Etta Fountain entertained at bridge in honor of Miss Nelie Walker. Miss Walker is planning to leave for the West before very long now.

For something to anticipate we have the beach party and dance at the County Club on Saturday, October 27. I haven't any of the particulars yet, but according to the promoters, it promises to be a fine occasion, and will probably assume the nature of Hallow' een in it's execution.

But more anon,

Yours for a gala day,

The Wanderer.

Mr. E. S. Blades and family, of Hillsboro, moved into the Noland home on east High street this week. Mr. and Mrs. Blades have a family of four children. Mr. Blades has been appointed superintendant of the Standard Oil Company here to fill the vacancy caused by the transfer of Mr. Darrel to Dover.

Mrs. Charles Ford, of Chestertown, underwent an operation for appendicitis at Easton hospital on Wednesday of this week. At this writing she is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Lloyd, of Baltimore, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby boy born Thursday, October 18th. Mrs. Lloyd was formerly Miss Louise Startt, of Kent County.

Mr. Howard Turner, who is at Jefferson hospital in Philadelphia suffering from a stroke of paralysis, is reported slightly improved. Although he has not regained consciousness physicians have succeeded in giving him nourishment.

Miss Dorothy Johnson, of Philadelphia, was the guest over the past week nd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ford.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS VISIT KENT

Mr. Harry W. Nice, Republican candidate for Governor and members of his State ticket were visitors in Chestertown, Rock Hall and other parts of the County on Tuesday.

Included in Mr. Nice's party were Messrs. Geo. Henderson, Jerome Jefferson, Walter Quinstead, Frederick Adkins, and H. B. Messenger. Part of the group visited the Transcript office. After leaving Chestertown the party went to Rock Hall where a Republican rally was held.

APPOINTED TO FEDERAL POST

Colonel Hiram S. Brown has been appointed a member of the advisory board of the N. R. A. by President Roosevelt.

Mr. Brown has had a wide experience in both business and finances in New York and should prove a valuable man on this board.

BIRTHDAY PARTY BY MAIL AT GOLLEGE

HUNDREDS OF ALUMNI EXPECTED TO ATTEND 152ND BIRTHDAY

Dr. Gilbert W. Mead, President of Washington, will be host to hundreds of alumni and friends of Washington College at the 152nd birthday of that institution which will celebrated on Founders Day, October 25th. Free transportation will be provided to alumni from all parts of the United States who will be personally escorted to the president's office where ample provisions have been made to accomodate them for years to come. These unique arrangements make it possible for thee hundreds of friends of the college to attend this birthday party without leaving their homes, friends or businesses.

The transportation will be furnished by the U. S. Postoffice Department and the guests will be personally escorted from the local office to the college by R. Lee Robinson, local postman.

This novel birthday celebration idea was devised by Dr. Mead and has been worked out so as to avoid crowding standing in line, stepping on toes or listening to numerous speeches, and here's how:

All alumni and friends of the college have received a card inviting them to come to the birthday party by mail. The card is to be signed and placed in self addressed envelope, postage paid and mailed to the college extending birthday greetings. While the card does not ask, it gives all an opportunity to send a birthday present such as a penny, nicklel dime, half-dollar or a dollar for every year of age of the institution.

In addition to the birthday party by mail, Founders Day exercises will be held at the college next Thursday morning at 11 a. m. to which the public is invited.
