The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Here we are to Thanksgiving and it hardly seems possible that some of these turkeys I see about the country side are on their eve of the general massacre for us to enjoy on that day when the families en masse settle down for a day of feasting and enjoyment. Some one I used to know who knew only port of their Latin would say 'Tempus will fugit.' Bad Latin or not, it's true just the same. Families, however, as far as possible, do try to be together, and I've heard of a few who will go to Baltimore to eat their Thanksgiving dinner, among whom are the Allan Harris's, the Frank Hines's, the Richard Collins's, Jr. Others leaving to partake of that big meal elsewhere, and Philadelphia in particular, will be the Jim Beck family, and Mrs. H. Clay Brown coming from New York.

Virginia Jones came over from Baltimore to spend last week end with her father, Dr. Jones, and while here was taken sick, and remained until Monday night, when she returned, fortunately, better. Julia Power who recently, underwent a tonsil operation is home with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Julian Power. Others in our midst, but not on sick list, were Mr. and Mrs. James Springer, and their daughter, Miss Leonore Harris Springer, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Emory, Margaret and Robert Atkinson who visited their aunts and uncle out at the Emory place, and Mrs. Howard Ward, of Wilmington, Del., who came last Sunday and has been spending the week with Miss Palmer Carroll. Miss Carroll will entertain at a small tea Saturday afternoon in Mrs. Ward's honor. Mrs. C. Beck Jones has returned to the fold from her western trip and will visit some of her friends before settling in her new home. Mr. Horace Beck is still in Atlanta, with his son.

Much interest is abroad in the forthcoming game Saturday afternoon between Washington College and Delaware. Everyone who possibly can, is going, for it promises to be most exciting. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker and Mr. Gilpin Brown from Philadelphia, will meet there and be guests of Miss Catherine Beck, for the week end. The following Saturday is the Army-Navy Game, and those attending from here will be Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Kibler Mrs. Allan Harris, Jr., Miss Catherine Beck and Mr. Gilpin Brown.

Mrs. J. P Clark, who has been in Chestertown for several months with her daughter, Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, left on Tuesday for brief visits in Washington and St. Louis, before going on to California for the winter. Mrs. Mead accompanied her to Washington, where they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Mead.

Dr. George Parker, of Baltimore, has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Maxwell this week.

Mrs. Williom T. Dixon due to unforseen circumstances, has postponed her visit to Savannah until after Thanksgiving, and is back at Green Point Farm. Her son, Bill Dixon, will join his mother for Thanksgiving, coming from Gilman School, in Baltimore.

And now I turn to weddings. On Thanksgiving Day at the Westchester Country Club, the knot between Hiram Staunton Brown, Jr., known to his friends as 'Bunny' and Miss Ada McCarthy will be tied. The ceremony will take place at 4.30 o'clock in the afternoon and be followed by a reception. Mrs. H. S. Brown left Wednesday of this week for New York to be on hand for the pre wedding festivities. Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines will leave on Tuesday for New York and will attend the event.

Parties for Miss Barbee Humphreys whose engagement to Bus Rowe was recently announced,' will be under way soon in full swing. The first one will be given Friday, the day after Thanksgiving, by one of the bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Jean Usilton. A luncheon bridge kitchen shower is the nature of the party but further details I will have to save until next week. All this romance in the air at this time takes us dreaming into who will be next?

Announcement was also made this week of the marriage of Miss Jeraldine Harwood and Mr. George J. Biles, both of Philadlephia, on Saturday, November 10th. Miss Harwood is will known in Chestertown having formely lived here, and Mr. Biles has been a frequent visitor at his father's summer home near Quaker Neck wharf. They are now living in Germantown.

Miss Charlotte C. Elliott daughter of Mr. Frank L. Elliott has selected Friday, December 7, as her wedding day when she and Mr. Henry O. Hamill, son of Mr. P. H. Hamill, of Oakland, Md., will be married at Salem M. E. Church.

But now I must leave you, and who can tell when I will have more weddings to write you about? They are coming in to me thick and fast, and as soon as I am at liberty to tell you more, I will but don't be too curious in the meantime We don't want to kill the cat.

Yours holding the bag,
The Wanderer.
