

"LIMEHOUSE BLUES"

George Raft in the featured male role of London's Limehouse, 'Limehouse Blues,' which comes on Wednesday and Thursday, November 28 and 29 to the New Lyceum Theatre. Jean Parker and Anna May Wong share top honors.

Laid in a realm where fierce feuds are as common as mammy songs, 'Kentucky Kernels' brings Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey to the New Lyceum on Monday and Tuesday, November 26 and 27 in their newest comedy hit.

The popular pair are seen as two vaudeville magicians who become involved in a family feud when their ward inherits a vast Southern estate. Thus Wheeler and Woolsey inadvertently step into a busy feud with an opposing clan. When Wheeler falls in love with the daughter of the hostile leader of the enemy, Woolsey attempts to reconcile the foe. Then hilarious events are said to pyramid into a side-splitting climax.

Mary Carlisle one of the up and coming younger stars, appears with the comedy team as the pretty daughter of the enemy clan, portrayed by Noah Beery. 'Spanky McFarland, bright child actor, plays the orphan.

'Kentucky Kernels' introduces the catchy 'One Little Kiss,' which serves as a backgrouind for a garden dance by a galaxy of beautiful girls, and as a vocal number for Wheeler, Woolsey, Miss Carlisle and Beery. The melody is by Bert Kalmar and Harry Ruby, who are also credited with the story and screenplay.

Limehouse, London slum and center of the nefarious activities of the English gangster, according to Director Alexander Hall, is perhaps the smallest Chinatown in the western world but the most famous, made so by the vast amount of Literature for which it is the setting.

Hall who directed 'Limehouse Blues,' featuring George Raft, Jean Parker, Anna May Wony, and Kent Taylor and coming on Wednesday and Thursday, November 28 and 29th to the New Lyceum Theatre points out that Limehouse has yielded more stories than all the rest of the world's Chinatowns put together.

Hall cites Thomas Burke, H. M. Tomlinson, Sax Rohmer and Pett Ridge as only a few of the writers who have used Limehouse as a background for their tales of mystery and wonder. One reason, he says, is its darkness. The famed Chinatown of San Francisco is a blaze of lights. That in Los Angeles is in the heart of the city and has hardly a dark corner. New York's Oriental district is a brilliantly lighted double street.

'Limehouse is positively dingy,' says Hall. 'It is lit by a very few sputtering gas lamps. Its narrow streets with beetling gables and blank walls are amost as dark as a dragon's mouth. Its darkness is opulent and velvet, and the smoke-covered sk and the fog from the Thames give it a blackness that can almost be felt. Its sounds are the deep voice of the river, the moan of boat sirens and the clanking of chains, which are eerie to hear late at night.'

In this sinister atmosphere George Raft, as Harry Young, a smuggler, plies his trade of silk-smuggler, aided by Anna May Wong, the enchantress, in a river front cafe frequented by Asiatics and tourists.

The film tells of the strange love that grows in these sordid surroundings, a love story as tender as a lotus blossom.

Described as a fast-moving, witty and hon est story of college life—'a col lege picture without a football game'—Fox Film's 'Bachelor of Arts' will shop at the New Lyceum on Friday and Saturday, November 30, December 1st as part of a double feature program.

America's foremost satirical humorist, John Erskine, author of 'The Private Life of Helen of Troy' and other notable books, wrote the novel from which this Fox production was filmed. Erskine knows college life intimately (he is himself a professor at Columbia University) and he has confessed that he was irked by the farfetched and fantastic college stories and films recently current.

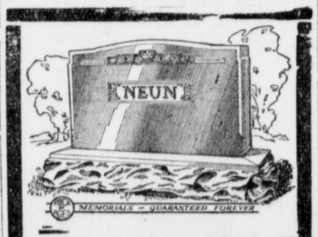

It is anticipated then that 'Bachelor of Arts' will prove the trust and most authentic picture of a university world yet produced—an honest and 'debunked' picture, in which all college life isn't rah rah rah!

Tom Brown and Anita Louise have the two chief roles in this gay new production and important parts are also assigned to Henry B. Walthall, Mae Marsh, Arine Judge and Stepin Fetchit.

Lamar Trotti adapted the story from the best selling John Erskine novel and Louis King directed the film. John Stone was the producer.

Other members of the supporting cast, in addition to those named above, are Frank Alberston, George Meeker, Frank Melton, Berton Churchill and John Arledge.

The second feature on the Big Week end double feature bill will be the Wstern Action but 'Trailing North' starring Bob Steele.

"Nerves" "NERVES" "Nerves"

Dr. Miles NERVINE "Did the work" says Miss Glivar WHY DON'T YOU TRY IT?

After more than three months of suffering from a nervous ailment, Miss Glivar used Dr. Miles Nervine which gave her such splendid results that she wrote us an enthusiastic letter.

If you suffer from "Nerves." If you lie awake nights, start at sudden noises, tire easily, are cranky, blue and fidgety, your nerves are probably out of order.

Quiet and relax them with the same medicine that "did the work" for this Colorado girl.

Whether your "Nerves" have troubled you for hours or for years, you'll find this time-tested remedy effective.

At Drug Stores 25c and $1.00.

Marion Eugene Taylor vs.
Edna Virginia Taylor

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 2893

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill states:

That on the first day of November, 1930, Marion Eugene Taylor was married to one Edna Virginia Cosner at Blaine, West Virginia, by the Methodist Minister there, with whom he resided in Cecil County, Maryland, until March 1, 1931.

That your Petitioner is now a resident of Kent County, Maryland, and has been a resident of Kent County, Maryland, for longer than one year. Your Petitioner is informed that the defendant has lived in the State of West Virginia since she left him on March 1, 1931.

That though the conduct of your Orator towards his wife, the said Edna Virginia Cosner Taylor, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Edna Virginia Cosner Taylor on March 1, 1931, without any just cause or reason abandoned and deserted him and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years and is deliberate and final and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

That a child was born to the said Edna Virginia Cosner Taylor and your Petitioner in West Virginia about September 1, 1931.

It is thereupon, this 22nd day of October, 1934, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County once in each of four successive weeks before the 19th day of November next, give notice to the said Edna Virginia Taylor, non-resident defendant, warning her to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 3rd day of December next, to show cause, if any she has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
