Lansdowne, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Havens, of Lansdowne, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hooven, of Lansdowne, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hagy also of Lansdowne, will stay elsewhere, but will be among those present at the buffet supper which Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe will give previous to the party at the Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Beck will have as house guests:

Ex. Senator and Mrs. Wm. A. Gunter Cumberland.

Senator and Mrs. Creston L. Beauchamp, Princess Anne.

Senator and Mrs. L. G. Sasser, Upper Marlborough.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines will entertain:

Mr. and Mrs. James Springer, Baltimore.

Miss Leonore Harris Springer, Baltimore.

Mr. John Kiskadden, Washington.

Mrs. Hines will be hostess to the Scott Beck's and their guests at supper prior to the party.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck will have as their house guests:

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Tull, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Morton Coale, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Miles, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip G Wilmer will entertain Mrs. Lillian Elliott, of Philadelphia, over the week end, while Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kibler are expecting Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Skinner, of Bronxville, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kramer, or Wilmington, and Mr. Frank Beck are invited guests of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkinson, of Baltimore, will be visitors at the home of Mrs. Grace Aldridge and Mr. James Bacchus coming from New York will be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus.

Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe will also be among those entertaining at supper Saturday evening.

So you see we are looking for a big time and I'm sure we are going to have it.

Following this big night, the early part of next week starts off with a bang when Mrs. H. Clay Brown will entertain quite a number at dinner and bridge on Tuesday evening, folloed by another party on Wednesday evening. When we will get our beauty sleep in, I don't know, but I won't miss anything to get it. I'll catch up in Lent.

Now let's turn to our travelling friends for a space. Mrs. William T. Dixon, who has gone to Savanah for the winter was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Pearce Crisfield who was her guest several days before their departure.

Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes left Sunday to be a guest for a few days of her daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atherton in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Noyes, of Glen Arm in the Long Green Valley, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll. Mrs. Eva Murray and her sister, Miss Charlotte Murray will be guests at Byford Court, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barroll, over the week end.

Mrs. Joseph Archbell returns today after a ten days' visit in New Jersey and New York.

I am glad to say our sick friends, Mr. John Clendaniel and Mr. Emory Hines are both much better. Miss Cynthia Clendaniel is still with her mother and father.

Mr. D. W. Ingersoll has returned to his home from the Church Home in Baltimore, but is still sick. We wish all of them on the road to health.

Now dear Roamer, I have lapped over my space and your time, but that's how it goes, some weeks are packed with news and others,—well you will never know how I ponder.

Yours for better results,

The Wanderer.

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Here we are facing Christmas and I hope you are more progressed than I in your shopping, and your cards, I trust are selected, even if not written. May I blame my delay on the time I spend writing to you?

I want to go out to the sale on December 10, at St. Paul's Rectory, that you will see advertised in another part of the paper, and try to get a few items on my list checked off, anyway.

Well we are embarking on a bit of pre-holiday festivity this week and next, in this little old town, and not waiting for Santa Claus to hand us invitations. Last Monday we started with two delightful teas on the same afternoon. One held at Reid Hall was sponsored by the Shakespeare and Dramatic Clubs in honor of Mrs. Cheney and the cast of Jitney Players who gave a performance of Goldsmith's comedy 'She Stoops to Conquer' that night. The sad part of it was, that the honored guests did not arrive in time for the tea. Coming via Tolchester and being from out of State they said that they had no idea it would take two hours to get across. Oh me, oh my, how well we know that bitter fact. However, the tea was most pleasant. Mrs. Scott Beck and Mrs. Gilbert Mead relieved each other of pouring tea while the charming little co-eds served the guests.

The other tea which gave our residents a chance to view the interior of the new hospital was equally interesting. Mrs. Frank Hines and Mrs. Clark Grieb took turns at the tea table and the ladies returning home to the evening meal refused that drink with their dinners, having had an ample amount an hour previous.

On Tuesday evening, Miss Priscilla Grainger, who, will be one of the attendants in the wedding, gave Barbee Humphreys a lovely party. This time it was a miscellaneous shower,with an umbrella over the dining room table, showering perfectly grand gifts below. You probably have heard that Barbee and 'Bus' Rowe will be married on the exciting day of New Year's Eve at 6 o'clock in the evening at Emmanuel Church. Further details I will give you later.

The next event of the week and really the largest social event of the season will be the party which Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck will give Saturday night at the Country Club. Everyone is all agog over it and the affair promises to be just the nicest yet. Any number of out of town people will be guests here for it, remaining over Sunday. Of course I can't pretend to tell you all of them for many are in doubt at this writing, but those who are expected, and their hosts are as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. James Metcalfe will entertain as house guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Wilson, of

Mrs. B. F. Thompson, of Jacksonville, Florida, is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Hopkins and family visited Mrs Hopkins' mother and family, Mrs. David Pickett, of Western Maryland over the week end.

Miss Cora Mench, of Baltimore, spent Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mench, near town.

Mrs. Ida Chalfant from Pittsburg, is spending some time with her niece, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Porter on High St., Chestertown.

ELLIOTT—HAMILL

The wedding of Miss Charlotte Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Elliott, of Fairlee, and Mr. Henry O. Hamill, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Hamill, of Oakland, Md., was performed at Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee Friday morning at 11 a. m. by Rev. Ernest White, assisted by Rev. S. T. Hamblin.

The bride was handsomely gowned in wine colored velvet with hat and shoes to match and carried a shower boquet of cream roses. Her Maid of Honor, Miss Harriett Skirven, wore a peacock blue gown with brown hat and shoes and carried bronze chrysanthemums.

Mr. Raymond Moffett was the groom's best man and the ushers were Messrs. Lee and Frank Barnes. Following the ceremony the bride and groom left by motor for New York City where they will spend their honey-moon. T hey will reside in Fairlee, Mr. Hamill being employed by the Newsome automobile company at Betterton.

WHEELER—DRISCOLL

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. William T. Driscoll, of Reisterstown, Md., of the marriage of their daughter, Roberta Krug Driscoll, to Mr. William Horace Wheeler, of Betterton. The wedding took place on Wednesday, November 14 at Frederick.

Mr. Wheeler is principal of the high school at White Hall, Md. He and his bride will reside at 22 Chatsworth avenue, Reisterstown.

HILL—CROWE

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Nola E. Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Hill, and Ryland C. Crowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Crowe, at Elkton, on November 3.

The bride is a member of the senior class at Washington College and Nottingham Academy in Cecil county. They will reside at Kennedyville and the bride will continue her studies at the college.

CROSBY—DON DERO

Mrs. Charles Don Dero announces the marriage of her daughter, Mildred Helen, to Mr. LeRoy R. Crosby, of Waterbury, Conn., and Rock Hall, Md., Friday, November thirtieth, nineteen hundred thirty four. Mr. and Mrs. Crosby were overnight guests of the groom's mother, Mrs. Sarah M. Crosby, at Rock Hall, Monday, while on a short motoring tour. They returned to Waterbury Tuesday.

MOFFETT—GREENDWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Greenwood have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Hazel Marie, to Mr. Walter Franklin Moffett, the ceremony to take place at High Noon on Saturday, December 15th at Old St. Paul's Church.

WHY 'blue coal' BURNS BETTER

REASON NO. 34

'blue coal' is a square fracture, medium free burning Pennsylvania hard coal. It comes to you in "cubes" instead of flat slabs. And it is carefully and evenly sized. When these uniform blocks of coal go into your furnace, there are plenty of spaces for the air to circulate through, assuring complete and even combustion. 'blue coal' doesn't pack down into a solid mass like slabby, unevenly sized coal. That's why it burns slowly, evenly, completely—sending steady, healthful warmth to every room. For better heat at lowest cost, phone us today and say 'blue coal'.
