The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer,

Here goes a last minute chat with you before Santa comes down your chimney. So busy getting my small gifts together, mine eyes and ears have gathered me little or no news. Everyone alike is plunged head and foot into Yuletide preparation, and practically all of the pre season entertaining ended last week. However, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kenly entertained quite a few of their friends at an egg-nogg party on Wednesday evening. Following in its wake, Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Roland Corey will entertain informally at bridge in honor of Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Derringer, of Yorktown, Va., who will be guests of the holiday season at their home. Harry and Mabel, as they are known to their friends, made many friends here, and before they left last summer, the old town buzzed with parties galore.

Misses Harriett and Anne Welch arrive Saturday, today, for the Christmas season, and on Christmas Eve, have invited some of their friends in for an informal gathering before midnight church.

Everyone who can possibly be home will be. Most of the college and school crowd have come, and they are planning a gay time tripping the light fantastic toe probably every night in one town or another. Mrs. Jack Stenger expects several members of her family among whom will be Mrs. Richard Lane and her little daughter, Peggy, from New Bern, N. C.,

Mr. and Mrs. John Collins of Mt. Hope, W. Va., and their two children are hoping to be among the Chestertownites for the holidays, but as Mrs. Collins was recently operated on for appendicitis, their trip is uncertain.

Mr. Frank Beck, who was expected for the Scott Beck party but was unable to get here, will be with his father, Mr. Horace Beck, and sister, Mrs. C. Beck Jones for Christmas anyway. Everybody who can stay longer, is making every possible effort to do so, in order to be present for the big New Year's Eve dance at the Country Club. The dance will take on the form of the successful cabaret affair held last May. Of course everyone will be in the best spirits, aside from the fact of it being New Year's Eve, as invitations have been received for the Humphreys-Rowe wedding which will take place at 6 o'clock that evening in Emmanuel Church. This wedding is one of the crowning social events of the season and promises to be a very lovely ceremony. Barbee will be given in marriage by her grand father, Mr. Albert C. Kenly, and will wear her grandmother's wedding dress, carrying a shower bouquet of roses and lillies. Won't she be adorable? The Maid of Honor, her cousin, pretty little Priscilla Granger, who will wear a gown of gold velvet, with hat and shoes to match, will carry a beautiful shade of red roses. The six bridesmaids who include, Nancy Jean Usilton, Patience Pyle, Lucille Rasin, Dorothy Vickers, Ann Turnbull, of Baltimore; and Alice Cruikshank, of Galena, will be styled in stunning gowns of sherry velvet, wearing gold hats and shoes and will carry yellow roses. 'Bus' has selected his brother, Dudley G. Rowe, Jr., for his best man and the ushers include, Marshall McDorman of Baltimore, Marvin Williams, of Chestertown, William Scott Roberts, of Sudlersville, a cousin of the groom, Charles Humphreys, brother of the bride, Lee Booth and James I. Pritchett both of Danville, Va.

Following the ceremony, a reception will be held for the members of the family and bridal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Tilden Brice, Jr. So you see it fore tells a large night on which we say good bye to 1934.

And now, with a spring to my sleigh, and to my team give a whistle, I shall fly far away, like the down on a thistle. But ere I drive out of sight, do hear me say, 'Happy Christmas to all and to all a good night.'

Merrily Yours,

THE WANDERER.

Harrison Vickers, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Vickers, Jr., of Chestertown, Kent County, has returned home from the Stony Brook School, Stony Brook, N. Y., to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents. According to word received from Headmaster Frank E. Gaebelein, Harrison has again been awarded his varsity football letter.

BEASTON—HALEY

Miss Ann Mary Beaston and Mr. Harold Haley were quietly married by Father John Walsh in St. Dennis Roman Catholic Church at Galena on Thursday evening of last week. Miss Beaston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lindell Beaston and Mr. Haley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Haley. They are residing at the home of the groom's parents.

THOMAS— CORNELIUS

Miss Rose Elma Thomas, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Joshua Thomas, and William Roby Cornelius, son of Mr. James Cornelius were married quietly by Rev. S. T. Hamblin at the Methodist parsonage in Fairlee. They were atended by Miss Thelma Cornelius, sister of the groom and Mr. Alphus Urie, of Rock Hall. They are residing at the home of the bride's parents near Gratitude.

GREENWOOD—MOFFETT

A very pretty wedding was solomnized at Old St. Paul's Church last Saturday, noon, December 15th, when Miss Hazel Marie Greenwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Greenwood, became the bride of Mr. Walter Franklin Moffett. Both the bride and groom are very popular among the younger set in the county and they will reside on a farm near Chestertown. Mr. Moffett is one of the young progressive farmers of the county.

COUNTY FARM ENUMERATORS NAMED

Upon the recommendation of the State Central Committee the following were named enumerators for the Kent ounty farm census which starts January 2nd.

William Loller, Harry U. Silcox, Florence Christopher, Mrs. Mary Massey and Miss Eva Jarman.

This census, which is being taken by the Federal Government, includes 100 questions which will be asked farmers including, owner, operator, acreage, acreage in defferent crops, tillable and idle land, value of farm, amount of mortgage, number of buildings, amount of labor, crops harvested, number of various livestock, etc.

Like all Federal census, it is mandiitory for the farmer to answer the questions correctly although the individual information will be considered confidential.
