The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Snow bound? Well, I'll say we are. From rain to fog, and fog to snow, there's no denying that Winter is on us now with a flare. It's a good time to stay put, and most of our residents are realizing that fact. However, some of them made a trip or two before the snow descended upon us. Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines left last Sunday to attend the Motor Boat Show in New York and expected to return Friday, although I haven't heard at this writing, whether they did or not. Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll spent a few days in Baltimore this past week, while on Saturday, quite a few are expected to attend the basket ball game there between Loyola and Washington College, followed by a dance at the Emerson Hotel. The dance is sponsored by the Baltimore Chapter of the Washington College Alumni.

Mrs. Joseph Archbell spent a few days in Baltimore this week, having gone over to visit Mr. R. H. Collins, Sr., who still ill at the Church Home. Mrs. R. H. Collins has remained at the hospital ever since Mr. Collins was taken there last Friday. We are glad to have with us again two little boys who have been ill in hospitals in Baltimore, namely, Allan Harris, and Karl Melamet. Both are on a fast road to recovery and I might add we have missed not only them, but their mothers, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Melamet.

Mrs. Karl Leiber, who with her two children have been spending the month of January with her uncle and aunts, Capt. Ned Emory and the Misses Emory, has had as her guest this week Miss Mary Stewart, of Zanesville, O. Mrs. Leiber and her children will return to Zanesville, Saturday, today, where she and Capt. Leiber are now living. Miss Margaret Adkinson has been visiting out at Piney Grove while her sister has been there.

Miss Helen Norris, of Denton, was a guest over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Russell.

Mr. John Kiskadden, of Washington, spent the week end at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines.

Miss Rebecca Kendall, of Ancon, Panama, has arrived for a two months vacation, and will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil W. Kendall while here.

Mrs. A. T. H. Harper, has gone to Baltimore, where she will remain for some time.

Mrs. Nora C. Maxwel is planning to visit for two months, relatives in and near New York.

The Hubbards have been having a gay time in Washington, and on Saturday, Mr. Hubbard and his son, Wilbur, attended the Alfafa Club dinner. Among the dignitaries present were President Roosevelt, Governor Harry W. Nice, former Governor Albert C. Ritche, and last, but not least, our famous friend, Will Rogers who was one of the principal speakers.

Parties continue in honor of the bride and groom to be, Miss Catherine Beck and Mr. Gilpin Brown, whose wedding will take place February 23. On Tuesday, Mrs. Frank B. Hines entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon in Kitty's honor, after which, bridge was played. The guests were designated their places by little doll brides, standing on a place card, while the color scheme throughout, was of pink and gold. Pink snapdragons and yellow jasmine decorated each table. On Saturday, today, two parties are listed. In the late afternoon, a few friends of the young couple have been asked to meet at the home of Mr. Horace Beck and his daughter, Mrs. C. Beck Jones for a little informal gathering, while on Saturday evening Miss Margaret Smith will entertain at bridge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck.

Mrs. Rudolph Tull, of Philadelphia, who was in town and remained over night at Mr. and Mrs. Beck's will give a luncheon bridge next Wednesday at her home, followed by a lingerie shower. This is the next party scheduled for the coming week. Miss Beck will go to Philadelphia Sunday and spend all of the week there in preparation for the wedding.

Alas, I must go and trample gown a little snow, so till next week,

Yours for better walking,

THE WANDERER.

Mrs. Samuel Cranor is ill at her home in Queen Anne's.

Mss Bessie Duyer we are glad to say, is able to be up after having been ill with pneumonia.

THREE BILLS INTRODUCED

WOULD EFFECT MARRIAGES, ELECTRIC RATES AND LICENSE TAGS

Among the bills introduced in the Senate this week were three that directly effect the counties of Maryland, particularly the Eastern Shore, which were introduced by Senator Cobourn, of Cecil County.

A bill was introduced which would empower the Treasurer in each county to issue license tags. The bill would require the application to pay the Treasurer a ten cent fee, which is the present postage rate.

Another bill titled Marriages, would require a minster to have charge of an established church in order to perform a marriage and would prevent the displaying of advertisement to the effect that marriages are performed at any designated place and would also limit the hours within which the Cerk of the Court could issue marriage licenses.

A resolution was also introduced directing the Public Service Commission to make an investigation of the electric ight and power rates of electric companies on the Eastern Shore. Under the present arrangements electic companies are compelled to file statements with the Public Service Commission but no investigation is made unless requested by the various communities.

PRESIDENT'S BALL JAN. 30

BENEFIT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Chestertown will cooperate with other towns and cities in all parts of the country in the staying of a ball on Wednesday, January 30th.

The dance will be held in the Chestertown Armory and the proceeds will be for the local hospital and the sanitorium at Warm Springs, Georgia.

The cabaret part of the dance, which was originally planned, has been canceled and the entire evening will be devoted to dancing.

COLLEGE ASSEMBLY SPEAKER ANNOUNCED

The speaker at the weekly assembly at Washington College on Thursday next, January 31st, will be Rev. Fred C. Reynolds, pastor of Grace M. E. Church, Roland Park, Baltimore.

The assembly starts at 11 a. m. and the public is invited to attend.

The Curbstone Diplomat

WILLIAM S. COLLINS

For the last three weeks it has been quite a hectic struggle to get out the Transcript. Ill health has struck here and there among us. Added to this has been a bit of mechanical trouble that has waited until we were weak before it struck.

Yours truly was struck Wednesday night and just back on the job late Friday morning.

With the roads blocked and no baker's bread coming in, a lot of the housewives are alarmed that they might have to try to make light bread. There should be no worry however because the stores seem to still have it and in all probability the roads will be open by tomorrow. It would be bad if some inexperenced had to take a hand at bread making.

Well, here's signing off until next week when I hope to greet you with the best of health.

ELECTRIC LINES NOT DAMAGED

The electric lines of the local power company were not affected by the storm this week. According to Mr. Clarence Beilharz there was not a single break in the lines. The local company serves Chestertown, Kennedyville, Fairlee, Rock Hall, Quaker Neck and neghboring sections of Queen Anne's county.
