WE ANNOUNCE, with regret, the death of R. H. Collins, Sr., Senior Editor of the Transcript, on Tuesday, February 5th, 1934. His life and business standards have been an inspiration to those who have worked with him. His life in this community has been one that will be hard for us to replace and in carrying on, his guiding hand will be greatly missed. He became associated with this paper December 26, 1888 and his last day at his desk was December 27, 1934, a period of exactly forty-six years and one day.

The Curbstone Diplomat

WILLIAM S. COLLINS

We wish to express our appreciation to the Kent News and Enterprise for the assistance they have rendered us this week in issuing our paper. They have rendered us every possible assistance.

Also we wish to express our thanks to the newspapers in neighboring towns for their offer of assistance and to the people of the town who offered to come in and help.

Herbert E. Perkins, Executor of last Will and Testament of Isreal Clark, deceased vs.
Rebecca Wilson

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 2906

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for the sale of the real estate of Isreal Clark, deceased, on account of the insufficiency of the personal estate to discharge all the just debts due and owing by the said decedent.

The Bill states:

1. That the estate of the said Isreal Clark, deceased, is indebted to Wm. T. Hicks in the sum of $79.00, being balance of funeral expenses; and C. W. Kibler & Sons for balance of coal bill of $12.75; and The Peoples Bank in the sum of $500.00 on note dated October 10th, 1930; and Charles D. Rollison balance of bill of $6.98.

2. That the said Isreal Clark so indebted as aforesaid, and also to divers other persons, departed this life on or about 30th day of April, 1934, leaving a last will and testament which was duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court for said Kent County, a certified copy of which is filed herewith and marked 'Complainant's Exhibit No. 1.' That in said will he devised all his property to the said Rebecca Wilson and appointed your Orator, the said Herbert E. Perkins, as Executor.

3. That Letters Testamentary were duly issued by the Orphans' Court for said Kent County to your said Orator, a certified copy of which is filed herewith and marked 'Complainant's Exhibit No. 2.'

4. That the said decedant left no personal estate with which to discharge his just debts, but left real estate consisting of a house and lot situated in Church Alley in Chestertown, Maryland.

5. That the said decedant having left no personal estate with which to discharge debts, that it will be necessary to sell said real estate for the purpose of paying said debts.

It is thereupon, this 6th day of February, 1935, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plantiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 4th day of March next, give notice to the said Rebecca Wilson, non-resident defendant, warning her to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 18th day of March next, to show cause, if any she has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
