WASHINGTON TO PLAY HOPKINS TONIGHT

LEAGUE GAME PROMISES TO BE INTERESTING

Washington College basket ball team will meet Hopkins in the Chestertown Armory tonight, Saturday. This game being a State Collegiate League game, will attract a large number of local fans.

On Friday of next week the local collegians will journey to Emmittsburg where they will play Mt. St. Mary's. This s predicted to be one of the hardest games on the schedule and will have an important bearing on the league Championship. The following night, Saturday, February 16th the local team will play Delaware in the armory here.

Defeats St. Johns and Swarthmore

Washington College defeated St. Johns here last Saturday nght by the one-sided score of 40 to 21. Washington ran up a big lead in the early part of the game but at the end of the half St. Johns had reduced this lead to 19 to 14. In the second half Washington increased the lead to win 40 to 21.

Washington had little trouble with Swarthmore Wednesday night when they defeated the Pennsylvanians 38 to 16 in a uninteresting one-sided game.

LEGION WARS ON ISMS

OPPOSES ALL UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES

The new battle cry of the American Legion, 'War to the bitter end against every alien 'ism' that raises its head in America, from communism to pacifism,' was sounded Monday night by John F. McNulty, Commander of the Department of Maryland.

'It is not to be taken lghtly,' he continued. 'Down to every Legislative district and every city precinct, the Americanism commission of the Legion is organizing carefully and firmly at this moment to strike swiftly and decisively at every un-American movement, whether it originates with a radical shouting on a corner soap box or a misguided cleric gowned n his ministerial robes.

'There is no question of politics in this campaign. It is only fair to make it clear to every public official, from members of Congress down to the county supervisors, that this year the Legion is going to keep a public record of their votes and attitude on questions of patriotic Americanism.'

'In the darkness of economic depression, deadly enemies have poured into our country. They are organizing quietly, but efficiently, in every state and community. They are plotting the overthrow of this country by bloodshed and revolution.'

Citing what he called other 'traitorous preachment,' Mr. McNulty said: 'In some Sunday Schools and day schools citizens are teaching American children that it is a disgrace to bear arms in defense of the country that has given them life and liberty. If they continue to teach such dangerous tenets they must take the consequences.'

He declared a small group among some churches has 'stopped to traitorous utterances.'

'They have urged upon American youth the ugly principle of refusing to bear arms in defense of their country,' he continued, 'and called upon them to shoot their officers in the back if they are conscripted into service.'

CHESTERTOWN BASKET-BALL LEAGUE

Chestertown Basket Ball league drew a good attendance to the local armory on Thursday evening to attend the weekly games. There were approximately seventy paid admission.

The Collegians went into the lead this week by defeating the Assoc. David B. Ford was high scorer for the evening.

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

My letter to you this week, will be a bit of hearsay as I have been no place, due to the death of our beloved editor. But if you will bear with me on what I have gathered, I shall chronicle the week's events in the best manner I can. Of course, most of the parties have been in honor of Kitty Beck whose wedding to Gilpin Brown takes place Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Beck at 8 o'clock. The wedding will be comparitively quiet as to what was prearranged, with Mrs. Richard Decker serving as Matron of Honor and only attendant, while Mr. Decker will be the groom's best man. Little Sally Catlin and Anne Wilmer will draw the ribbons from the stairs to the improvised alter in the bay window making an aisle through which the bride and her father, who will give her away, will pass. Cathedral candles, and flowers will be the only decorations. The bride will wear a gown of ivory satin, with train and a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. Only the immediate families, relatives and a few close friends will attend the ceremony which wll be performed by the Rev. Charles L. Atwater. After a short wedding trip, the future Mr. and Mrs. Brown will have an apartment in Hastings Manor, Overbrook, a suburb of Philadelphia.

On Wednesday, Mrs. James G. Metcalfe entertained at a luncheon bridge followed by a kitchen shower in honor of Kitty. The color scheme was red, and of a valentine nature. In the center of the table was a large red heart, on which stood a doll bride, whose veil was made of a piece of the groom's mother's veil. The place cards were cunning valentines, and when the shower poured, little Frances Metcalfe, and Jane Kibler, dressed as Dinahs, carried in a basket of kitchen ware, that would have made any housekeeper's heart glow.

On Thursday afternoon, the ex-children of 'Miss Kitty's Kindergarten' were given a party by Mrs. Massey Hines. Each child brought a mite which was to buy an electrical fixture for their former teacher.

On Friday, Mrs. Tom Kibler entertained at luncheon for the bride, but the details of this party, I have not learned, so will save for you till next week. On Friday night Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes and Mrs. Henry Kratzer entertained at a buffet supper in honor of Kitty and Gilpin at Mrs. Wickes's apartment and on Saturday, Mrs. H. Clay Brown will entertain the families and the original bridal party at a buffet supper at 5 o'clock at her home.

On Monday night, Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines was rushed to the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia where she is under observation, pending an operaton. Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer was taken on Wednesday to Baltimore and operated on for appendicitis on Thursday at the Woman's Hospital and is doing very nicely. It just seems there is no end to the illness of our friends. Let us turn to a happier trend of thought. On Friday, Mr. Hynson Rogers and Mr. P. M. Brooks left for a water trip to Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laidman, of Georgetown, also left this week for a two week's visit to the Sunny land of Florida.

Last Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend entertained friends at buffet supper.

Surprises come and go, but we were all amazed to learn of the wedding of Elizabeth Strong (known as Betty) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ringgold Strong and Leroy Lee Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Barnes, who live near Fairlee. The wedding took place on January 4, 1935, at Centreville, the ceremony having been performed by the Rev. L. C. Randall. Betty was a member of the senior class at Chestertown High School, for the present, the young couple are residing at the home of the bride's parents.

But more anon, and till then, yours,

THE WANDERER.

BAXTER—LEWIS WEDDING MONDAY

The wedding of Miss Enna Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rollison Baxter and Mr. Harry Wilson Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Lewis, will be performed by Dr. Litsinger at Christ Methodist Protestant Church next Monday evening, February 11th at 6 p. m.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Lois Baxter as Maid of Honor and Misses Lida Wheat and Anna Lewis as Bridesmaids. She will be given in marriage by her father, Mr. Rollison Baxter.

The groom's best man will be Mr. Ralph P. Williams and the ushers will be Messrs. Harry Poole, Allan Stradley, Ernest Leaverage and Rchard George.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents on Mill street.

The bride is secretary in the law office of Mr. Harrison W. Vickers and the groom is connected with his father in the mercantile business here.

They will reside in the Bringman apartment house corner of Queen and High street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheatley and Mr. and Mrs. Rollison Baxter will leave next Tuesday on a motor trip to Florida.

Former Senator and Mrs. Henry Brown returned to their home in Quaker Neck this week after visiting relatives in West Virginia for several weeks.

Mrs. Arthur R. Cooper was taken to Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, on Wednesday of ths week where she will undergo an operation today.

Mr. Frank Greenwood is confined to his home this week due to injuries received when he fell on High street Wednesday night.

Mr. B. L. Bonnett returned to his home here on Friday following a weeks treatment at a Baltimore hospital.

The President's Ball, which was scheduled for last week and postponed on account of the storm, will be held in the near future. Preparations are underway to make it a gala event.

The available picking acreage in 1935 of Maryland strawberries will be somewhat less than the harvested acreage of 1934, according to the Maryland Crop Reporting Service. The preliminary estimate places the 1935 picking acreage at 7,000 compared with 7,250 harvested last year, or a decrease from last year of about 4 per cent for the State. For the intermediate group of States as a whole, which includes Maryland, the decrease in acreage is considerable, being placed at only 75 percent of last year or 40,900 acres compared with 54,430 harvested in 1934.
