The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Should I have the misfortune today of being forced to give a text or topic to my chatter in this letter, it would be most brief, in fact, two words: Weddings and Operations. Sounds queer to me, for a title to a more or less social column, but the bare facts remain, and when you are through reading, you may agree. When there just aren't any 'socials,' and yet I get the command from the 'Powers that be' to write anyway, what is a poor correspondent to do?

So here goes! Let's start with the weddings, and although they are over, it's nice to reflect upon them for a minute or so, because it might be a goodly time before there are any more to describe. I am not trying to advertise Morton's Salt, but 'when it rains, it pours,' and verily so.

The Brown—Beck wedding came off as schedule, Kitty looking very lovely in her ivory satin gown, with tulle veil, through the center of which, was a beautiful lace panel. The bride carreid a bouquet of white roses, white gardeniers and lillies of the valley. Mrs. Richard Decker as Matron of Honor was attired in delft blue chiffon and carried yellow tea roses. The little ribbon girls, Anne Wilmer and Sally Catlin, looked mighty cute in pink organdie frocks with little bands of the same material forming a bandeau on their hair. The reception, which followed for the wedding guests alone, carried a color scheme of pale green and white. Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown left soon afterwards and I have heard since had a delightful time in New York. Right here I must stop long enough to tell you, of a rather funny incident that occurred to these newly weds. They were gayly walking down the streets of New York, probably with thoughts far away from friends or anyone connected with Chestertown. Who should they meet but Mrs. Louis Skinner, of Bronxville, who you'll remember is the oldest sister of the former Perry girls. After much greeting, etc., the walk was continued and the next familiar face to greet their eyes, was that of Miss Julia Emory, from here, who happened to be visiting her sister, Mrs. Adkinson, in N. Y. A little later, and at a far distant point of these two encounters they met, so the story goes, Mr. Skinner. Well, all I have to say, don't go to New York on your honey moon if you don't want to meet your friends. However, the young couple, will return to Chestertown today for the week end, before the house keeping episode begins, and Mr. Jimmy Beck, who postponed his entrance to the hospital of Union Memorial will go on Monday, instead of this week, as first planned.

The other wedding on Saturday evening last, was that of Miss Martha Georganna Robinson and Mr. Lee Startt, which took place at St. James M. P. Church. The bride wore a gown of sappline blue velvet and a silver cloth evening beret carrying a bouquet of cream roses. The Maid of Honor, her sister, was gowned in wine-colored velvet, wearing a gold cloth beret, and carred pink rose buds. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, near Fairlee. Mr. and Mrs. Startt will make their home in Baltimore.

Then on Monday, came the wedding of Miss Enna Baxter and Mr. Harry W. Lewis. The ceremony was performed at Christ M. P. Church with the Rev. Rev. W. H. Litsnger, officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lois Baxter, as maid of honor, and two bridesmaids, Miss Lida Wheat, and Miss Anna Lewis. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rollison Baxter.

Among the out of town guests who were here last week end were the following from Philadelphia:

Mr. and Mrs. Holt Eliason.
Mr. and Mrs. Morton Cole.
Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull.
Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Miles.
Mr. and Mrs. Young Parran Dawkins
Mr. and Mrs. T. Waters.
Dr. Eldridge Eliason.
Miss Dorothy Quarrels.
Miss Phyllis Vare.

From Baltimore:
Miss Margaret Smith.
Miss Virginia Jones.
Mr. William Rogers.

From Washington:
Miss Helen Simpers.
Mr. Fred Fetter.

From Providence:
Mrs. Ralph Crosby.

From New York:
Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown.
Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Brown, Jr.

Many journeyed to Annapolis Thursday from all parts of the State to attend the Assembly Ball. Mrs. C. Beck Jones from here was one of the guests.

On Wednesday evening, February 13th, ex-Senator S. Scott Beck, was given a surprise birthday dinner, by Mr. Phil Wilmer. In the abscense of Mrs. Wilmer, little Betty Beck acted as hostess, arranging the menu, and placing the guests, who numbered eight, and included only members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend and little Rolph, Jr., spent a few days in Baltmore this week, as the guests of Mrs. Townshend's sister. Rolph had to go over on business, and so the little visit. Mrs. Harry Russell, and Mr. Eben Perkins motored over with them, but returned the next day.

Next Tuesday, Mrs. Etta Fountain will entertain at dinner and bridge, the guests being limited to ladies.

News from our friends in the hospitals is encouraging. Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer who was operated on last Thursday for appendicitis is getting along splendidly and may possibly return to her home tomorrow, Sunday, and if not, next Wednesday.

Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines, who is at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital recovering from an operation performed on Monday, is getting along nicely, although is still rather uncomfortable. We extend our best wishes.

The appendicitis bug seems to have hit town again. I hear that Mrs. George N. Cooper, who had this same operaton at the Easton Hospital last Saturday is improving fast.

Florida is still beckoning our locals, and on Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wheatley and Mr. and Mrs. Rollison Baxter answered the summons with a motor trip thence.

But oh me, oh my, I've gone over my space, and taken too much of your time.

Yours in penitence,
THE WANDERER.

WILLIAM S. COLLINS

Word, or rather a report comes, believe it or not, that the Republican State Central Committee has made the following nominations to Governor Nice for appointment.

Police Justice for Chestertown, exsheriff, John T. Vickers. This position is now held by Thomas F. Healey, Esq.

Magistrates for Chestertown, Messrs. Wm. G. Smyth, Republian and Robert Moffett, incumbent, Democrat. In this case Mr. Smyth would replace Mr. Will Wheatley.

Magistrate for the 5th district, Mr. George Davis, Rep. of Rock Hall. This would replace Capt. Kerr, Democrat, the present incumbent.

Mr. George E. Hicks, the Democrat incumbent at Galena would be retained.

Some of the Democrats are staging their hopes, that the Senate will not confirm the appointments. It is generally understood that in such cases the Governor can make recess appointments.

I cannot help but feel very uneasy about the health of Prof. David Mcmenamin. For a number of years I have always received a rather insulting comic valentine from him. Not getting one this time that I can trace to him, I fear he must be ill.

Mickey Ahern, the lively gent from Millington was in Chestertown on Wednesday looking for three sporting gentlemen with a little money to ride with him to Daytona Beach, Fla., to see Sir Malcomb Campbell try to break the automobile speed rcord. Mick could find some people with the money and he could find some Sports, but not the happy combinaton. Mick will also drop down to Coral Gables, Fla., to see the 'little woman' and young daughter, who are spendng the winter there.

No cause for astonishment. This week a high school student walked into a Chestertown store and wanted to know how much it cost to send a letter to St. Louis. After he was given a three cent stamp he wanted to know how you made it stick on. Really a true case.

As the old mountaineer said, 'Schooling just taches you book learnin, sense enough to come in out of the rain you learn from a mule.' Besides if it had ben an absent minded college professor, nothing would have been thought of it, so why blame a high school student.

Our old friend the cool-headed Harry Russell is showing signs of slippng, old age or something. Instead of being cool headed, he is getting rather excitable, as has been shown on three occasions in the past year.

Event number one is such a sore subject with him it had better not be mentioned.

Event member two was spilling a nice steak dinner in his lap at the Chestertown Restaurant.

Event number three was shooting a goal for the other team last week at th Armory. He claim that was a publicity stunt and he could not get enough publicity on it.

No doubt about it, the storm certainly slowed up business. Just think of Paul Sipala in the shoe repair business The wet streets are causing people to wear rubber shoes or galoshes and they cannot wear out shoe leather that way. I hear Paul was observing the people passing his shop one day last week and figured that it ran nearly nine out of ten were doing his business no good.

For a number of years Mt. St. Mary's at Emmitsburg has been a stumbling block for visiting basket ball teams. The main reason for this is the small floor and the baskets being set against the wall. News comes that Mt. St. Mary's is either going to build a new gym or else enlarge the old one. Don't we wish it was a larger gym tonight, when Washington takes them in?

Col. Ewing and Simon Westcott are back from a trip down the shore. According to their dope you cannot get any good salt water oysters yet on account the ice. What few chincoteagues they have are of a very poor quality.

Mr. Willie B. Usilton, 3rd, received a comic valentine referring to him as a chisler. He lays the blame on either Harry Russell, Massey Hines or William Collins. He compliments himself by limiting it to three. His reputation for a chisler covers three counties. Answering for one—Not guilty of sending the valentine.

The third Monday in March which happens to be March 18th, we are scheduled to have a town election.

Councilman from the 2nd and fourth wards and Mayor are up for election.

Mayor Satterfield is being urged to run again by a large number of his friends. Other names which have been suggested are: Phil Wilmer, Robert Moffett, Owen Smith and Dr. J. S. William Jones.

For Councilman from the second ward, there has so far been no other names suggested than the present incumbent, Mr. George W. French.

In the fourth ward we hear besides the present incumbent Mr. George Rash, the names of Harry Fallowfield, Samuel Massey and Dr. J. S. William Jones.

When the time rolls around there may be more in the race but usually the case for most of them to drop out.

MRS. WM. STOOPS BREAKS HIP

Mrs. William Stoops, of Quaker Neck, had the misfortune of breaking her hip whn she fell in Chestertown last Saturday. She slipped while trying to get into an automobile.

She was taken to Easton hospital for treatment and returned to her home on Friday of this week.

CHESTERTOWN BASKET BALL LEAGUE

Bad wather cut down the attendance at the Thursday night league games but a large attendance is expected the next time.

The Crescents with new players in their line up pulled a surprise on the Ascos and led them at half time 13 to 8. Townshend and Beck did a good job of guarding in holding the Asco forwards and specialiy McMahon to one goal apiece.

Brooks scored three goals and Reese usually a clever player was held scoreless. In the closing minutes of play the Ascos came through and clinched the victory.

The Collegians easily took the Medcos into camp in a free scoring contest.
